Bartlesville, OK 74003

Dear Mrs. Nunneley:

I am writing you in the hope that you can help me with my research on the Bunch family. First, let me explain my connection.

My great-great-grandmother was Delilah Bunch. According to the information I have obtained, she was a cousin of Colonel Samuel Bunch and her father was David Bunch. She was married to Claiborne Burnett on August 4, 1809, in Grainger County, Tennessee. Claiborne and Delilah (Bunch) Burnett had eight children, including my great-grandfather, Chesley J. Burnett.

I have a copy of the book, "Bunch and Park on the Trail West," by Alice Park which contains much information about the Bunch family in Virginia. I have also obtained material on the Bunches living in North Carolina, but I am now searching for information on those who moved to Tennessee.

I have tried to obtain the address of Mr. DeWitt Bunch, who had written extensively about the Bunch family, but Mrs. Park says she does not have his current address. She says, however, that this Mr. Bunch based much of his writing on information developed by Tilghmann Bunch and Richard Bunch. This was supposedly published in a book of some form.

Mrs. Park adds that a Mrs. King, who did so much Bunch research, may have had a copy of this material. I understand Mrs. King died in May and you now have possession of her records.

Would it be possible for me to obtain copies of any material you have that would help me in my Bunch research, especially with regard to those of the family living in Tennessee? I would be glad to pay for any copying cost, or if you would prefer to mail the material to me at my expense, I would make the necessary copies and return the material to you.

I will appreciate any help you can give me. I am enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope for your reply.

Sincerely,

Fred T. Foster

Dear Mr. Foster:

I am writing in regard to your letter of 30 July 1984 concerning the Bunch family and your line, David Bunch, through his daughter, Delilah.

I have spent much time the past few days searching the records of the Bunch holdings, formerly the property of Mrs. Geneva King. I have located only one Delilah Bunch, as follows:

William Bunch m Delilah Bunch - 4 Jan 1809 - Grainger Co., TN

There are two family group sheets concerning these men, William who married Delilah and his father, David. The group sheet for David lists no wife's name and seven children with William being the only named child, he born bef 1784. The group sheet for William who married Delliliah lists nine children with only two named, Armstead and Samuel named. She gives no reference sources for her information so it was probably sent by someone who did not send proofs. She does indicate that David was from Henry Co., VA.

The last address I can find in Mrs. King's files for Dewitt Bunch appears to be a 1972 address and seems to be the last correspondence she has or at least the last letter she retained. It is as follows:

Bunch Family Record
Perry, NY 14530

I have a copy of the Bunch Family Record from 1962 to 1972. It first appeardd as a monthly and then a quarterly. I believe Alice Park is quite correct that DeWitt Bunch based much of his publication on information from Tilghmann and Richard Bunch and their material. DeWitt apparently did a great deal of research and travelled to many states to confirm the Tilghmann and Richard material and added some of his own ideas.

I am enclosing a couple of family group sheets and would like you to fill out a sheet for David and Delilah. If you know any of the children of David, it surely might help me look further in these records. Many of Mrs. King's records are by individual name in many folders. Additional names for the children of David may help me pinpoint some information I can not now see.

I will await your return of the family group sheets before doing any copy work on the Grainger Co. TN material in hopes that it might help me decide what to copy. Also, would like any later locations for this family. Mrs. King has done quite a bit of "following" on some of the Bunches in Missouri, Arkansas and other states.

Hope I can help you -

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mrs. Nunneley:

Thank you very much for your letter and the enclosed map of the Bartlesville area. I am sorry to be so late in replying, but my wife and I have been traveling and returned home only recently.

I appreciate your willingness to let me review Mrs. King's records in your home on Saturday, June 29. As I mentioned in my earlier letter, I will be flying into Tulsa on Thursday, June 27, and will call you from there to confirm the time that I expect to arrive at your home on Saturday.

I don't believe that I will need a copying machine during my Saturday visit. I expect to take notes of any information that I find helpful and, if there are a few items that I want to copy, perhaps I could make copies first thing Monday morning before going back to Tulsa.

I am interested in your comment about the librarian at Nowata keeping some of Mrs. King's records. Do you suppose she would allow me to see these, possibly the day before I come to your home?

You may be interested in knowing that I have recently received a letter from Mr. DeWitt Bunch, who now lives in Geneseo, New York. Hewas unable to track down Delilah Bunch in his records, but did give me some suggestions on who her parents and ancestors might have been.

I'm sorry to hear about your father's poor health, and I certainly understand the limited time you have to keep up with correspondence. Thanks again for your help, and I look forward to meeting you on June 29.

Sincerely,

Fred

Dear Mrs. Nunneley:

You may recall I wrote you several months ago about my research into the Bunch family. This was after I had learned that you were in possession of Mrs. King's material and a file of the Bunch Family Record.

I expect to be in your area for a few days in June and would like very much to have the opportunity to meet you. I would also appreciate your permission to review the material you have regarding the Bunch family, and possibly to make copies of anything pertaining to my branch of the family.

I will be flying into Tulsa on Thursday, June 27, and will rent a car for the drive to Bartlesville. I will have to return to San Diego from Tulsa on Monday, July 1.

If it is convenient for you, I would hope to see you either Friday, Saturday, or Sunday while I am in your area. I would not need to take up much of your time, if you would allow me to review your materials on my own.

If you would drop me a note and give me your telephone number, I will call you shortly before I leave for your area and set up a specific time and date when you would be available.

Thank you for your consideration and any help you can give me.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Foster:

I apologize for the delay in answering your last letter of so many months ago. My father, age 85, has been in very poor health for many months and I have spent much time with him. He has had surgery and two strokes since December. He lives 100 miles from me and seems I am on the road most of the time.

You are more than welcome to come to our home in Bartlesville and use the Bunch records. I am only sorry Mrs. Geneva King is no longer living to assist you in your research. So much of her Bunch information belonged only to her. She put much on paper, but had a great deal of knowledge on all of the Bunch lines which, I fear is now lost. I do have some of her records, but some of them were taken by the librarian of the Nowata Public Library. Mrs. King's husband tried to help me obtain the rest, but I am sure I did not get them all.

It would be convenient for you to visit on Saturday, June 29. If you do not finish with the records, you may use them on Sunday, June 30, also. I do not have a copy machine in my home and will, if you are interested, try to obtain one on a rental basis from the Bartlesville Office Supply. They have kindly provided one for our annual genealogical workshop, but may not rent to individuals. Let me know if I should inquire.

The records of Mrs. King are stored within one legal size file cabinet drawer, so please know that you may make a trip with little results.

I am enclosing a City of Bartlesville map and a picture of our home, which I hope will make your trip to locate us an~~d~~ easier one.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Nunneley:

I can't begin to thank you enough for all your help. You really made my visit worthwhile and I do appreciate it.

It's always gratifying to see someone with such an interest in genealogy and who is so well organized. I just hope I can organize my research as well as you have.

As soon as I have time to put together all my Bunch material, I will send you copies for your files. And, of course, if you should ever run across any more material of David Bunch and my elusive Delilah, I would appreciate hearing about it.

I took your suggestion and spent an hour in the Bartlesville Public Library after leaving your house on Saturday. I did find some interesting material in one book about another branch of my family, the Hardins, but unfortunately the copying machine was not working and I was unable to make a copy for my files. I hope you will do one more favor for me, and that is to make a copy of the following pages from the book I have listed, which is in your genealogical section.

The book is titled "Genealogies of Kentucky Families," call number GR 929.3 GEN 1981. I would like to have a copy of the following pages: title page, 440, 441, 442, 443, 444, 445, 446, 447, 448, and 449.

I am enclosing some money which I hope is sufficient to pay for the copying and postage.

If you and your husband ever get to southern California, please give us a call (222-2282). We would love to show you around the San Diego area.

Thanks again for all your help. I hope we can keep in touch.

Sincerely,

Fred Foster

The Bunch Family

By Philip H. Hurst

My thanks to Mr. DeWitt Bunch for his research and subsequent conbributions to the following articles.

John Bunch arrived in Lancaster County, Virginia in either the year 1651 or 1652. His wife's given name was Mary. He was the first Bunch to arrive in America of which there is any record of (to my knowledge). John was summoned to court on June 6, 1654 to show evidence of a Mr. Toby Horton loaning guns to the Indians. He failed to appear and was fined 200 pounds of tobacco.

On March 18, 1662 John Bunch was assigned 450 acres of land on both sides of Rickabock Path. This land was originally granted to Thomas Merreday who sold to Philip Freeman, who then assigned to John Bunch.

John Bunch II (son of John) died in the year 1741. His wife, Rebecca died March 16, 1770. John Bunch II was on the Quit Rent Roll in Sts. Peter and Paul Parrish, New Kent County, Virginia in the year 1704. His brother was Paul Bunch who died in the year 1726. John II was listed in St. Paul's Vestry Book in the years 1719 and 1721. John II patented 200 acres in Fredericksville Parrish, Hanover County, Virginia in 1722. This later became Louisa County. He died and left his property to his sons, the largest proportion of land to his son, John III, who was the eldest. The other sons received 60 acres each. In 1741 Rebecca Bunch patented 400 acres in Goochland County, Virginia.

David Bunch, son of John Bunch II was born June 26, 1722 and [illegible] 18, 1776. His wife, whose given name was Mary, was born in the year 1729 and died May 4, 1809. The brothers and sisters of Grandfather David Bunch were: 1. John Bunch III, who died in the year 1777, 2. William, who died in about the year 1774 and whose wife's given name was Phoebe, 3. James whose wife's given name was Mary, 4. Samuel, who died in the year 1782 and whose wife's given name was Mary, 5. Lucretia, 6. Henry, who married Ann Calloway. James and Mary Bunch were married on January 11, 1749. Mary, wife of Samuel Bunch died January 31, 1792.

Joseph Martin Bunch, son of David Bunch was born June 15, 1749 and married Mary Eckhols on November 3, 1785.

In 1776 he received from his father's will 60 acres on Hudson's Creek, Virginia. His eldest brother, John A., inherited a majority of property. In 1780 Captain John A. Bunch patented land in Holston County, North Carolina which today includes Grainger County, Tennessee. John A. Bunch was a Revolutionary soldier and was active in the early Indian Wars. He served as Captain under John Sevier in the Etowah Campaign against the Cherokees and Creeks in the years 1792 and 1793, and in 1794 he served in the Knox Regiment of Militia at Rutledge, Tennessee. The Captain was quite a man in public affairs. He gave land for the first courthouse at Rutledge, and served in the Tennessee Legislature in years 1803-1805. His home was still standing in 1965 and was about one and one-half miles from Rutledge on the Knoxville Road. Richland Creek runs through the place, and an old family cemetery is nearby. The place once had splendid orchards. The French Bourbon Prince, afterward King Louis Phillipe of France, and his brother dined here with Captain Bunch while en route to New Orleans on their American visit in the 1790's. Captain Bunch's wife was Mary Asher and his son, John married Margaret Muse Clay on August 25, 1807. She was a relative of Henry Clay. Captain John A. Bunch owned one-half interest in a tan yard in Wilke's County, Georgia along with his brother, David W. Bunch. The 1810 Grainger County tax list or census states that John Bunch owned 395 acres of land and eight slaves.

Grandfather Joseph Martin Bunch came to Claiborne County in the year 1805 and settled on Clinch River. On March 5, 1805 "Martin" Bunch sold to William McPhetridge 25½ acres on the north side of Clinch Mountain, on the waters of Puncheon Camp Creek, "It being the tract whereon said Bunch now lives." Witnesses: Samuel Clark and James Dyer, Samuel Yancey, Clerk. The price for the tract on Puncheon Camp Creek was $200.00. It is probable that "Martin" Bunch owned property in what is now Claiborne County as early as 1790. Peter Graham Fulkerson, a prominent lawyer at Tazewell who was born in 1840, wrote: "Martin Bunch came to Clinch River about 1790.

There are several negro graves in the Bunch Cemetery at Bunchtown on Clinch River. They are the graves of slaves and former slaves. Bunchtown was established by Martin Bunch after he and his family moved there in 1805.

CORRECTION: On January 15, 1981, I published an article in "The Claiborne Progress" entitled "David Huddleston and Family." Under the children of John and Rachel McBee Huddleston I listed a certain Malachi Huddleston. The original spelling of the name was "Malocky" and I have since learned that "Malocky" was a nickname for Charlotte Huddleston and not a corruption of the name Malachi.

Grainger County, TN, was organized on June 13, 1796 when 12 justices appointed by Governor John Sevier were present. The justices each year were ordered to "take in" a list of the taxable property in the county. In the act creating the county the limit of the tax was prescribed. The county courts in Tennessee were authorized to levy a tax on property by a legislative act passed October 25, 1797, in which types of taxable property were listed and the method of taking the taxes was prescribed.

By the provisions of the act of 1797 white polls consisted of "all free males and male servants between the age of twenty one and fifty years"; slaves, "all slaves male and female, between the age of twelve and fifty years."

The justices of Grainger County were ordered to take in lists of taxable property for year 1799 on February 21. On August 23 the following tax rates were set:

For each white poll	.12½
For each 100 acres of land	.12½
For each Black poll	.25
For each stud horse Kept for covering mares	.25
For each town lott	.12½

The lists which follow were transcribed from a microfilm copy of an original certified copy returned by Ambrose Yancey, Grainger County court clerk, to the Tennessee general assembly, now on file in the Tennessee State Library and Archives, Nashville.

A List of Taxable property in part of the Bounds of Captain (Isaac) Lane's Company (people who lived north of Clinch Mountain to Clinch River) taken by John Bristo, Esqr. 1799 includes David Bunch (1 poll) and Martin Bunch (1 poll).

Dear Mrs. King:

First I would like to apologize for not answering your letter sooner but I was in the process of moving from Kansas City, Missouri to Joplin, Missouri at the time your letter was received and therefore, just had too many things to do.

I know very little about my side of the Bunch Family. I do have a few records in Kansas City, that were compiled by Mr. Bunch of Chicago, which might be of interest to you. I remember that it mentions a Nathaniel Bunch coming from Kentucky and that he was granted land in Arkansas by the Government for his services in the Union Army. I will send you a copy of this soon. The best that I can determine my family are not descendants of Nathaniel Bunch. I think my side of the Bunch family, originated in Louisa County, Virginia, when they migrated to Missouri, I don't know. The following is a bit of the Bunch family, (from the family records)

1. Wm. Maloy Bunch, settled in Henry County, Missouri
    A. John Thomas Bunch, My Grandfather
    B. Wm. B. Bunch, My Father
    C. John A. Bunch

My Grandfather had two brothers, one was killed in a Civil War Battle, at Springfield, Missouri. The other brother migrated to Iowa and I know nothing about his family. My Father, Wm. B. Bunch, had one brother and sister. I am the youngest of five children, Clayton Irvin Bunch, Wm. Chester Bunch, Dimple E. Bunch, George W. Bunch and John A. Bunch. My Family are all deceased with the exception of one brother, George. I am 49 years of age, married and have one Daughter, Benita, 10 years old. My new address in Joplin, is 2110 Ozark Street, or the office address is 3205 E. 20th Street.

Please give my regards to Mr. Chess Bunch and tell Mr. J. B. Bunch, if his family still have their reunion coming up, I certainly would like to attend.

John A. Bunch, b 1910, son of
Wm. B., son of John Thomas, bc1846,son of
Wm. Maloy, bc1822, son of

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mrs. King:

You will find enclosed copies of letters from Richard H. Bunch, 6558 Minerva Avenue, Chicago, Ill., which were written to my Uncle W. I. Bunch. I certainly hope that this information will be of benefit to you. You will note on page four, the record of my family. I believe this record to be true because of an old diary that I have. You will note on page three, where Eliza Bunch, daughter of Jesse and Elizabeth Bunch, departed this life December 18, 1818. This is listed in the old Diary. The old Diary is so old and worn that most of its contents are unreadable. If you find anything of importance that I have sent to you, I would appreciate hearing from you.

Very sincerely yours,

John A. Bunch

Dear Mr. Bunch:

For five years, in conjunction with Tilghman H. Bunch of Washington D.C. whose great grandfather, Col. Samuel Bunch, was born in Grainger County, Tenn. in 1786, I have been gathering information about the Bunch family. By searching old public records, books and magazines, we have accumulated quite a vast amount of data. Most of the data we have about members of family has been personally contacting or writing to Bunches wherever we heard of them. Last week while in Peoria attending the funeral of one of my brothers widows I heard of your son A. B. Bunch and went to see him hoping he could give me some information but he said that he had little information, but said you had a lot of information and would be glad to impart it to me. Hense, this letter. I will give you a limited sketch of data and information that I have obtained.

The Bunch family is said to have been found in Flanders, migrated to Scotland during times of religious uprisings and were known to have lived there more than 400 years. The first discovered record of the family in America was found in Nugents "Cavaliers and Pioneers in the year 1651/2. It is also stated that a John Bunch came to Virginia in the year 1651/2. It is also stated that a John Bunch (I presume the same man) took title to 450acres of land in New Kent County in 1662. It might be well to state here that New Kent County was founded from York County in 1658, Hanover from New Kent in 1720 and Louisa County in 1742. From data I have, I am confident that all Bunches mentioned in New Kent, Hanover and Louisa Counties lived in that section known since 1742, as Louisa County. Due to destruction, during the Civil War of Public records of that district I have been unable to trace or get any data about the family until year 1742, when John Bunch appears. In transfer of some of his property it is said that he had patented 400 acres of land in Fredericksville Parish, Louisa County and divided same between his five sons. 100 acres and homestead to his son John and 60 acres each to his sons William, Henry, David and James. David who was born in 1722, and died in 1776 was my great, great grandfather. (Died in Louisa County). He had 9 sons and 4 daughters born from 1747 to 1772. John 1747, Joseph 1749, Pouncey (my great grandfather) 1750, William 1752, Jean 1754, Mary 1757, David 1759, Lucresea 1761, Anthony 1762, Thomas 1765, Nathaniel 1767, Winnie 1769, and Paul 1772.

I have quite a lot of data about descendents of David (1722) through his son John, Pouncey through his sons James, Suprey and ~~James.~~ Pouncey James was my Grandfather. His son William, two lines. Have copy of statistics taken from David's Bible which is in possession of Walter A. Bunch of Asheboro, as descendent of David's son William. Have names of some 250 descendants of Nathaniel Bunch, born in 1793. He enlisted for service in War of 1812 from Overton County, Tenn. Have been unable to trace him back to Overton County or connect him with the Virginia Bunches but for christian names used I believe him to be of the Virginia Bunchs. My father said that there were two unrelated families of Bunchs who came from England, one settling in Virginia and the other in Carolina. I have extracts from public records of the three albemarl Sound district Counties Perquimans, Bertie and Chowan, covering period of more than 100 years. Evidently they are of the unrelated family father mentioned. Have record of a lot of Bunches who lived in Granger County, Tenn. But can positively place but one of them. I will consider it a great favor if you will give me data you have about your family and will be glad to give you additional data if you would like to have it. As for myself, my Father, James Franklin Bunch, was born in Fluvanna County, Virginia in 1824, came to Illinois in 1851 settling in Peoria, He went back to Virginia in 1859 but returned to Illinois in 1861. I was Born February 24, 1865 in Buruea County. I lived in Peoria from 1867 to 1886. Have lived in Chicago since December 1888, and was engaged in the Grain Business for 46 years ending 1928. I am sole survivor of a family of 10 children. Trusting I may hear from you soon, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Bunch:

Your letter of the 4th inst. received and I want to thank you not only for your promptness in answering my letter but for information contained therein.

As you said your great, grandfather's name was Jesse Bunch, I have examined my files to see if I could find a Jesse Bunch who would fit him. I believe I have. The only Jesse Bunch, amoung the Virginia Bunches, which I find is a Jesse Bunch Born in Louisa County on November 11, 1773. His parents were John and Hannah Cruze Bunch. John was the oldest son of my great, great, grandfather, David Bunch (1722) who was born in 1747. John and Hannah Bunch's other children were Anderson Bunch 11-8-1771. John 3-3-1776. Lucy, 1-13-79. Josiah C. 9-23-81, Pounce, 5-15-75 and William 8-12-87. Jesse was born Nov. 25, 1773.

On January 23, 1799 a Jesse Bunch married Elizabeth Pulliam in Louisa County. As I find no other Jesse Bunch and John and Hannah Cruze's son Jesse would have been 26 years of age in 1799. I am inclined to believe the two Jesses mentioned were the same person. If they are the same men, we had a common ansestor in David Bunch 1722 - 1776.

Although but a few years younger than I am you are on one generation later. Your son told me your age, but I did not make a note of it.

Wish I could read that old diary. It must be interesting. When I was back in Virginia for a visit in fall of 1938 I looked up my great, great, grandfather David's old place. Was able to locate it by description of property in his will. All bounderies were creeks and trees. Was disappointed to find that his house, which he referred to in his will as "My Mansion" had been torn down and a modern house built on same place. Had quite a talk with two brothers by name of Hughson who live on two adjoining parts of the old place. They could give me but little information about the early Bunches, but did say the story was that Burwell Bunch, son of Davids' youngest son Paul, went out to Missouri on Horse back and bought up all parts of the old place left to his fathers' brothers. In his Will, David bequeathed to his son, Joseph, 60 acres being his former home. (John Bunch, 1742 left 60 acres each to his sons William, Henry, David and James. 100 acres and the homestead to his son John. This is the 400 acres he patented in Fredericksville Parish, Louisa County.) To his son David, he left about 55 acres of land and other property. Anthony, 55 acres of land and other property. Thomas 71 A., Nathaniel 71 A., Paul 74 A. on which his Mansion stood. As in those days 400 acre lots were patented. I suppose David originally had 400 acres. As his sons John, Pouncey and William were not mentioned in his will. I presume he provided for them before the will was made and possibly the balance of acreage above that given to his 5 sons had been given to one or more of the 3 not mentioned in the Will. I wonder if there is anything in diary about Burwell coming to Missouri and buying up the different parcels.

Mr. W. I. Bunch,
Osceola, Missouri

My Dear Mr. Bunch:

For several days I have been laid up with a bad case of Lunbago. Having sufficiently recovered to be able to sit up and use typewriter with some degree of comfort I decided to occupy a few hours of time in making copy of some of the data Tilghman Bunch and I have obtained in more than five years search. I did this because your son told me that you were very much interested in family information. You possibly may find something in this data which will tie in with information you have, especially with entries in the Diary kept by Jesse Bunch. In extracts from the book "The Virginia Baptist" you will see that an Eliza Bunch, daughter of Jesse and Elizabeth Bunch died in 1818. Is there anything in the Diary about Jesse's marriage, his wife's maiden name or mention made of his parents and brothers and sisters?

If there is anything interesting in Diary on line of what is contained in papers enclosed, do you know whether or not Jesse served in the War of 1812. If so where he lived at the time. If he did and you give me some of facts I can write to the Veterans Bureau, Washington, D.C. and get information. I have done this in three cases and received valuable data. Names of wife, date of birth of Nathaniel, as well as of some 10 children were given. In case of my grandfather's brother Pouncey wife's maiden name and place of marriage were given. Also a description of Pouncey. As all the Bunches I had met were of dark complexion and hair and quite tall. I was surprised to find that Pounce had red hair, and blue eyes and was only 5 foot eight in height.

Were it not for danger of loss in the mails I would ask you to send me the Diary so I could make copy of contents. As there would be danger it would be foolish to do so.

Dear Mrs. King:

It was so nice to meet you and your Family recently at Rogers, Arkansas. Also, I was glad to meet the other members of the Bunch Family. I certainly was surprised to find out about the old Diary that I have, which belonged to Jesse Bunch, my Great Great Grandfather. I have tried to read it on numerous ocassions, but just could not make it out.

I am wondering if you could take the time to send me all information concerning the Diary and any other information that you may have concerning my line of inheritage, as I have an Aunt that is getting along, (age-wise) and would like to compile all information as completely as possible and send this to her.

Your help in this matter will be very much appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

John A. Bunch

Dear Mrs. King:

I believe it was Aug. 16, 1960 since I last heard from you. My how time does fly and here it is 1967.

I have [illegible] side of the family and was wondering if you have been able to trace [illegible] to John Bunch who died prior 1742. I am real interested in finding out about your lineage and if you would care to write me concering this, it would be very [illegible]

Of course you k[illegible] Park in Washington D. C. as I gave her your name and add[illegible] from her in which she mentioned your name. I cant imagine [illegible] hope it works well for all concern. I have given her con[illegible] family but didnt realize until just recently [illegible] book on the Bunch & Park family. I am related to the Park side of [illegible] Bunch was a Park. Her father was Overton Park who had brother by the name of Guilford, his som Tom, his son Lee is Mrs. Park husband. I am also related to [illegible] was Martha Bunch, Martha's grand father was Jesse B[illegible] great great grandfather. Its real complicated, does'nt it.

Do you [illegible] in Arkansas. I have forgotten how you were related to the [illegible] like to know if they are of the Virginia Bunches and any info[illegible] that you can give me on this matter will also be very much appreciated.

My daughter Ben[illegible] plan on sending her to the University of Arkansas next year. We think it is foolish for her to go out of State to school when we now have a four year college right here in Joplin now. The new school opened for summer classes about two weeks ago.

In checking my records I find Jesse Bunch had son born James Bunch about 1802 about the time your great grand father was born. Jesse left Virginia and married in Missouri in 1831 about the same time your great grand father arrived in missouri. James married Emily Young and first child was born in Saline County which is next county to Carroll county. Could there possibly any connection here. I am curious to find out if you think there is any connection here. However I do not have a record that Jesse having a son by the name of George but according to my grandfather Bunch, Jesse had 11 children and I have only a record of only 9 children. Wouldnt this be somthing if your James Bunch and my James Bunch were the same person.

Any information that you can give me on the above subject will be very much appreciated.

Of course you know about Mrs. Lee Park in Washington D. C. as I gave her your name and address and I had a recent letter from her in which she mentioned your name. I cant imagine what the book will be like but hope it works well for all concern. I have given her considerable information regarding my side of the family but didnt realize until just recently they she was writing a book on the Bunch & Park family. I am related to the Park side of the family also. My grand mother Bunch was a Park. Her father was Overton Park who had brother by the name of Guilford, his som Tom, his son Lee is Mrs. Park husband. I am also related to Lee in another way, his mother was Martha Bunch. Martha's grand father was Jesse Bunch and Jesse was my great, great grandfather. Gets real complicated, does'nt it.

Do you still attend the Bunch reunion in Arkansas. I have forgotton how you were related to the arkansas Bunches. I would also like to know if they are of the Virginia Bunches and any information that you can give me on this matter will also be very much appreciated.

Dear Mrs. King:

I was real happy to hear from you again but also sorry to hear that you have not been feeling well. I hope this letter finds you much improved, health wise.

Thank you for the information that you sent me regarding the Parks family but dont believe this information has any connection with my family as it spelled " PARK" but regardless, thanks a lot.

I am trying real hard to dig up information for Mrs. Lee Park regarding my side of the Bunch family but it is getting real complicated, inregards to the information that she is seeking. In the beginning, I was interested only in tracing my direct line but in doing this I got interested in other Bunch families and now find it real interesting in meeting so many nice people by letters.

I know you have done a fine job on tracing down different branches of the Bunch family and was wondering if you could help me on the following info. Jesse Bunch had the following children, Eliza, James, John Carr, Lucy Ann, Harrett, David Anderson, Wm Maloy, Mary Elizabeth and Sarah Sally. Eliza died at the age of 18, James M/Emily young but have no futher record of this family, John Carr M/Nancy Tally and had the following children, Wm Penn, John Tom, Jesse Green, Jane Elizabeth, Samuel P. George W. Sarah A; Nancy A; Belle and Berthena, Lucy Ann M/Burdette, no futher record of this family, Harrett, nothing on this family, David Anderson, I have agood record on this family, Wm Maloy, of cousre I have a good record here, Mary Elizabeth M/James D. Newell but nothing futher on this family and nothing on Sarah Sally who married Minnice. What I am interested at the moment is to try and find the decendents of John Carr, son Samuel P. Bunch. We understand he was married and had 10 children but I have no further record on this family. My Aunt says he moved to Kansas but this is all Iknow. Also another son of John Carr was George W. Bunch who was married and had 4 children but we know nothing more. Jesse Green was married but have nothing more on him. What I need your help on at this moment, is where can I start Looking for the decendents of John Carr, three son's. Samuel, Jesse Green and George W.

I hope this letter finds you feeling much better and will look forward to hearing from you again.

EARLY RECORDS OF GEORGIA: WILKES COUNTY

BOWLES, Judith All property in Georgia and Virginia to be equally divided between Gideon Bowles Bunch and Hannah Crews Bunch, orphans of Pouncey Bunch, late of Wilkes County, deceased, and his wife Sarah Bunch who has in her possession several slaves. Property in Virginia consists of 350 acres in Goochland County. exrs David Bunch of Wilkes Co., and Thomas Hughes of Fluvanna Co. Excs. signed Aug. 21, 1822. Probated Nov. 4, 1822. Benjamin Wooten, Lemuel Wooten, Powhatan Thurmond, Test.

Letter from DeWitt Bunch to Alice Park, April, 1972

"As to the Tanyard in Wilkes Co., Ga. I do not have the source indicated. My record under John just says had 1/2 interest in Tanyard in Wilkes Co., Ga., with brother David. Under Pouncey's listing it says received 1/2 interest in Tanyard from fathers estate, 1820. I found the fol. on page 199, Early Records of Georgia under the heading Wilkes County: BUNCH, Pouncey, dec'd, Inv. shows he owned half of a tanyard. David Bunch, admr. Receipt of John A. Bunch, admr to David Bunch for $5.00 part of a bond said David & Pouncey owed the est. of John Bunch, dec'd. Gideon B. and Hannah C. Bunch one under and one over 14 years old, choose Jas. History of Louisa Co., Va. (1936), by Malcolm H. Harris

It is believed that the Virginia Overtons were dexcendants of John Overton of Easington, in Holderness, Yorkshire, whose son was General Robert Overton, b 1609 and under parliament took up arms and served Cromwell, and finally was sent to the Barbadoes in solitude.
William, son of Gen. Robert, was born in England, Dec 3, 1638 and came to Virginia prior to xxx 1670. He married Mary Waters at Yorktown on the 24 of Nov 1670, on board the vessel in whcih she came to Va. She was a daughter of Mrs. Ann Waters of St. Sepulcher's Parish, London. The Overtons settled on Falling Creek where they had patents for 4,600 acres on the south side of the Pamunkey River in New Kent Co. He owned other land in St. Peter's Parish.

Miss Susan Raybury, by whom he had three children: Viola, John H. H. and Ethel. Mrs. Brown died in 1887, and Mr. Brown was married the second time, in 1889, to Mrs. Martha McVeigh, a native of Georgia, and daughter of B. T. Freeman, who was a native of Georgia. Mr. Freeman was an ex-lieutenant in the Confederate Army, and a member of the Masonic fraternity. He died on February 21, 1873. His wife, Jane (Whitlock) Freeman, was a native of South Carolina. She died on September 30, 1875. Mrs. Brown's first marriage occurred in 1877 to Mr. J. B. McVeigh, a native of Arkansas, by whom she had four children, only one, Addie M., now living. Mr. and Mrs. Brown are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, and he is also a member of the Farmer's Alliance, but has never affiliated with any other secret organization. His father, Danason Brown, with his wife, Mary Brown, are yet living in La Fayette County, Miss., the former a member of the Masonic fraternity, and both members of the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

Rev. William Bunch, a pioneer planter living ing Boone Township, was born in Dickson County, Tenn., on November 14, 1817, and is one of the honored and esteemed citizens. His father, Tarleton Bunch, was a native of Virginia, born in 1783, and he was married in South Carolina to Miss Mary Beaver, a native of South Carolina also born in 1783. Six children were the fruits of this union, one besides our subject now living: Mary who was born in Perry County, Tenn., April 23, 1820, and who is the wife of James Simons. The father was a farmer by occupation and also carried on the blacksmith's trade. He died in Tennessee on August 26, 1852. He was a member of the Baptist Church for forty years, as was also the mother whose death occurred on September 10, of the same year. William Bunch was principally reared on a farm, and in 1843 he began learning the tanner's trade, which he continued to follow until 1857. He was married in Decatur County, Tenn., in 1838, to Miss Jane Mays, a native of Tennessee, and the daughter of Abraham and Rebecca (Rhodes) Mays. Of the ten children born to that union seven are now living: Susan, Nancy J. Mary E., Julian, Martha I., William H. and David H. Those deceased were Louvicy J., Tennessee and George A. The mother of these children died November 7, 1862, she was a member of the Baptist Church. On April 30, 1865, Mr. Bunch was married in Hopkins County, Tex., to Miss Mary E. Eledge, a native of Cannon County, Tenn., born in 1838, and the result of this union was five children: Isaac S. J., Catherine P., Lucy A., Joseph E. J. and Eliza (deceased). Mr. Bunch has been a Baptist minister since December 19, 1859. He is a member of the Masonic order, Sugar Creek Lodge No. 205, and is a liberal and willing contributor to all movements of importance. He is the owner of 320 acres of good land, with 183 acres under cultivation. He emigrated from Tennessee to Arkansas in 1857, settled in this county, and here he has resided ever since, respected and esteemed by all. He is now a member of the National Farmers' Alliance at Glendale, Boone Township, Logan County, and, although over seventy-three years of age, is enjoying comparatively good health.

Rev. Sterling Burton, farmer, Chismville, Ark. Mr. Burton owes his nativity to Tennessee, his birth occurring in that State in 1832, and is a son of Squire and Rebecca (Roy) Burton, natives also of that State. The parents moved to Arkansas in 1852, and there passed the remainder of their days. Sterling Burton was reared in Tennessee, and received a rather limited education in the common schools. In 1851 he began farming for himself, and that he has made a success of this occupation is not for a moment to be doubted, when a glance is cast over his fine tract of land. He enlisted at the breaking out of the war, and was in service until peace was declared, at which time he found himself without means to start again. However he was not discouraged, and went to work with renewed vigor, meeting with the success usually following hard and persistent efforts. He was united in marriage to Miss Lillie A. Weaver, a native of Arkansas, in 1866, and to this union were born the following children: Charles, John, Francis A., Rebecca J., Sarah R., Eugene. Price, Robert L. and Ida. Mr. Burton has affiliated with the Democratic party ever since he first commenced

Tarleton's sister, Nancy, M. Howard, wm. Turner, an ordained Baptist minister

Rev. William Bunch was John Henry Bunch's Uncle, and Alice Bell Bunch's great-uncle. Records in Dickson, Perry, Decatur Co. Tn. and in possession of Gene Tal

Mrs. Alice Schell

Funeral will be Friday at 2:30 p.m. from the Central Assembly of God Church for Mrs. Alice Schell, 514 C St. SE, who died Wednesday in a local hospital after a long illness. Burial will be in the Young Cemetery.

A native of BALLARD County, Ky., Mrs. Schell was born Sept. 11, 1869. She had lived in Carter County 37 years, and was a member of the Central Assembly Church. Her husband, Calvin Schell died in 1916. They were married in 1884 at Greenville, Tex.

Surviving are three sons, Willie, Merced, Calif.; Jim, Newport; Everett, Dallas; two daughters, Mrs. Cordie Booth, 516 C St. SE, and Mrs. Bessie Presley, 514 C St. SE. Also 23 grandchildren, 59 great grandchildren and four great-great-grandchildren.

The Rev. A. R. Hambrick is to officiate. Bearers will be J. C Dotson Jr., Dan Jones, Hayden Newman, Emmett Miller, Vear McMillan and Wendell Hambrick.

This is my grandmother, Alice Bell Bunch
I don't know why paper didn't give her maiden name.

Dear Geneva

I have answered Mrs.Keller, telling her about our Joseph who was in Edgefield ~~Co~~. Dist., S.C. 1800, but in Grainger Co., Tn., 1810, so her Joseph b. 1812 wouldn't fit ours. However, Anderson, who married Grainger Co. in 1809 could have had a Joseph by 1812--I gave her the name and address of the descendant in Ariz., saying that said desc. might have names of chn. of Anderson.

However, since you have so many BUNCH records from so many states, I thought I should mail her info. on to you, just "in case". (I told her I was doing this.)

I'm rather late in answering her, but 15 Dec was not a brilliant time to write, asking for genealogical search.

I have one more book to give to Library or Historical Society, and wondered if you know any place in Nebraska where I should send it. She lives in the western part of the state, so Kansas City and Wichita libraries, who have the book, aren't really any good to her.

We've had mild weather so far, so we are so much ahead—for no matter what happens now, this much of long, cold January is GONE.

Yours

Irene B. Keller

DearMrs. Parks:

I understand that you had a book published,"Parkes and Bunch on the Trail Wet~~t~~s." We are making a diligent effort to place our Joseph Edward Bunch, b. 1812, So. C.He was living in Mc Minn Co. Tenn. in 1836. I forgot to say he was a practicing physician. He md. Mary Pugh,2 Jan. 1839, Mc Minn Co. His children b. Tn. was John Henry,b. 1836, according to census, and my gt. gr-~~mother~~ father; Martha J., b. 1838, Tn. 3.-Mary E. b.1840,Tn. -4.Nancy, B.1842,Tn. -5. Sarah, b. 1844, Tn.- 6. Samuel T. ,b. 1847, Tn. Then after their move to McCracken Co. Ky.-7. Frances,b. 1849-50,and Josephine, b. 1852. Then after that part of Kentucky changed to Ballard Co., no. 9, Margarett was born,1854.I do not have much about them after 1864, Joseph did not pay taxes in Ballard,and I have lost him again. In 1860, John H. md. Winnie Catherine Scott, and moved to Gainsville/ Greene Co, Ark. Children b. there was Mary Louella,b.27 Aug. 1861, and George John Thompson,b. appx. 1863. They was only ones who lived until my gr-mother b. 11 Sep.1869, just after John was ambushed, robbed and murdered en route to Ballard Co.,after selling his property in Ark.Possibly could have been Greene Co. Mo? The details are very fuzzy in memories of John's children.The boy d. in 1879, so the only ones to carry Bunch sur-name in our branch would be Samuel T.

Ohio

both b. Ky.

Any and all information will be SO appreciated.I have worked long and hard, without much effect. C. H. fires,Ballard Co. Perry Co. Tn. and,I just run into dead-ends. Any clue might help! I would like to have a copy of your book. Where do I find it?

Yours sincerely,

Irene B. Keller

P.S. I am enclosing an ancestor chart; and I am also searching sur-names, KELLER, MOORE, WALLACE, HAMILTON, SETTLE, TAYLOR, SOPER, ALDRIDGE, JOHNSON, JOHNSTON, COOK, BAKER, CROW, MOSBY, PURDY; We will appreciate any info. But esp. BUNCH.

Dear Mrs. King:

Your name has turned up a couple of times now as a person, who has done much research on our Bunch family. I am convinced that we of the Bunch family, in the U.S. are all related!And my ambition is to write a Bunch family history,in memory of my sainted grandmother,who was a real Lady. The sad part is that she tried so hard to get records of her birth, and to hear from someone of her Bunch and Scott families,after 1880. Thats when her mother took her to Texas.And her mother did not live long after wards.There is not much to go on,except her,and my gr-aunts,good memories. Granny lived to be 94 yrs.old,and died 1962.I will enclose a chart,so you will see how I fit into the family.My program is to get as many charts,and family group sheets,of as many different branches of our Bunch,s as possible. Then,hopefully,I will be able to put the puzzle together! I am getting much help,and am corresponding with at least 10-12 Bunch desendents,and getting info on the other surnames of my family as I go along.But, my main efforts are the Bunch genology.

I will give you all the info which I have,and it dont seem like much,altho I have really worked. However, I only started seriosly last yr., when we retired.But, since then,I have averaged 6 Bunch letters per week.

My gr-mother,Alice Bell Bunch,(sta. on chart),dau. of John Henry Bunch, and Winnie Catherine Scott. John,son of Dr. Joseph Edward Bunch,a practicing physician,of Mc Cracken C.Ky.,then in Ballard Co.Ky. after that area changed to Ballard 1852.You can see Joseph,and Mary,s statistics on chart.Other children

2. Martha J.,b.1838, Tenn.(probably Mc Minn Co) md. a Dr. Coleman ofCalloway Co.?
3. Mary E.,b. 1840,Tenn., md. ?- Ready(in 1860,living in Dr. Bunch Household W. son, Joseph Ready,b. 1859.
4. Nancy, b. 1842, Tenn, md. N. C. Mc Leon,1858,Mc Cracken Co. Ky.
5. Sarah,b. Tenn.
6. Samuel T.,b. Tenn.,md.Catherina(Kate) Ross,14 Nov.1874,Paducah,Mc Cracken Co.Ky.
7. Frances,not yet named 1850 census,b. Mc Cracken Co.Ky.
8. Josephine,b.1852,Mc Cracken,or Ballard(this area was not ch. when other area of Mc Cr. ch. to Ballard,changed between 1852-1854) Josephine may have md. Henry Sweet,4 July,1868,under name of Julia Bunch.
9. Margarett, b. 1854, Ballard Co.Ky.

Info is so setchy from Ballard Co. on account of ct. house fires.And Mc Cracken is very uncooperative. I have tried hiring a searcher there.I have sent numerous letters,s.a.s.e.,without results. Dr. Bunch pd. taxes on land on Mayfield Creek.I know the exact location.Close to Lovelaceville,where my gr-mother was b.- James Scott, owned a farm there also.Could you advise me on whether to hire a searcher out of Frankfort,Ky. Hist. Soc.,or still try for someone in Lovelaceville area of Mc Cracken,and Ballard Co,s.?There is much genology in acquistion,and disposition of property.Dr. Bunch raised horses.He was connected with Nelson Bunch from Perry Co,Tenn. Also, Joseph bought land in Perry Co. in1846, and I imagine this is about the time he moved from Mc Minn Co.Tn.He bought the land from J.F.Holbrook,and Sarah Ann Talley,who was then Sarah A. Holbrook.Also mentions land in name of John Talley on n. bank of Buffalo River.(winesses Tom Whitmell,and Tarleton Bunch.(Tom Whitmell md. into our Hunter family.I think the Tally,s are related to our Joseph Bunch.

It has been most difficult,as there was two Joseph,s,only 2 yrs, difference in age.And,they turn up same places,and at the same time. I am sure they are cousins.

Please do send me your pedigree chart. Also, if it is not asking too much, I wouldso like to have family group sheets on yourself, parents, gr-parents,and greats. I don,t usally ask so much right off,but it does save time,and I know you are interested. I am so grateful for all the good people of our Bunch family! I love them all.

Unless our Samuel T. had male offspring to pass the surname down,he was the last of our branch to do so.John,s only son ,who lived beyond birth, died at age 16, in 1879.~~His~~ John's only surviving children was ,1.Mary Louella,b.1861,Gainsville,Green Co.Ark, and my gr-mother.M.L. md. Richard A. Johnson,and I have good records.

After Our John H. Bunch was ambushed,murdered,and robbed ,after selling his property in Ark. in 1869,(just before my gr-mothers birth,he had already moved his preg. wife and children to her parent's home in Lovelaceville Dist. of Ballard Co.) Catherine re-married James"Jim" Morgan. She had 4 children by him,all of whom d. between ages 2 to 7. In ca. 1879, they moved to Collin Co. Tex. My gr-mother and George had lived with their maternal gr-parents until then.Dr. Bunch reared M.Louella until 1879,and she said he d. about that time in Ky.She remembered going to school at a place called Hickory Grove. Dr. Bunch seems to have quit paying taxes in Ballard Co. in 1864,however,as the fires destroyed so many records,he might have still been in Ballard until his death. My gr-mother can only remember seeing him one time, when he visited her,and brought Mary Louella.Visited her in James Scott,s,or Catherine,s home close to Bardwell,Ky. So,seems to indicate that he did move from that particular area.

I appreciate any, and all help, and I promise I will pass on all info thats relevant to other br. of our Bunch family. My aim is to keep our memories alive,and get all records printed,and put in strgetic places,so it will help All Bunch searchers.

Yours sincerely,

Irene Keller

My Dear Buncn Cousin:

I hope you won't be offended at me for addressing you as Cousin. I know we are ALL related. I even claim the children that Henry Bunch had by his slave. He at least acknowledged them, and educated the males.

We are 17 mi in the country, and I will get you a copy of the 1850 census of McMinn - I do not have the 1860, but until I get it, I will write ou the Bunch's 1850. My big problem has been that there was two Joseph's and only 2 yrs difference in age, children the same age, etc. I believe they were cousins? Anyway, in1840 census McMinn, and our Joseph's children were all b. there beofre 1847 - then we got his, and Mary Pugh's mar. rec. there in 1839. And the other Joseph's wife was Sarah. Our Joseph very definitely was in Perry Co and McCracken Co in 1847's.

There is a possibility that the Joseph Bunch mentioned in Paul and Nancy Bunch's settlement in 1840 in McMinn Co is the other Jos. However, we think according to the census, our Jos. mar. there in 1839. Our thinking is that the other Jos. did not move there until sometime in 1840's. On the other hand, maybe our Jos. went to McMinn to get mar. only. 1 He had relatives there. And there was Pugh's listed in the census. But, only one Joseph listed in 1840 census! There was a J.D. Bunch listed in Perry Co., and I believe this is sot our Jos. as my gr-aunt was fairly definite about his name being Joseph Edward, tho the Edward has never been in the census. In 1850, his part of Co. had been changed from McCracken to Ballard. They are in 1860 Ballard. Then after 1863, we can't find any more tax records for them. Then they are gone in 1870 census. I have got to look for them in Graves Co. My gr-aunt, who Jos. and Mary reared until she was 17 remembered going to school at a place called Hickory Grove. Also, Samuel T. was mar. in McCracken Co 1874, to a McC. Co girl, Kate Ross, he gave his residence as Graves Co. I don't know whether I told you, but Samuel was also a Dr. Mary E. mar. a Ready in 1860, she was living in Jos' household, and with a son, Joseph Ready, b. 1859. Nancy mar. a N.C. McLeon, at 16-17 yrs of age. But in 1860, she was listed as Nancy Bunch, also in Joseph's household. Then Martha Fanny mar. a Dr. Coleman, and was living in Calloway Co in 1880. Just seems like with so many Drs there ought to be records! But, almost every court house claims fires, and it is impossible to get records. Do you have the complete census for McCracken Co 1850. Will you check it for my James Scott family?

I called the operator, checking the DeWitt Bunch address. She has not got a Bunch at the address you gave me. There is a D. Allyn Bunch listed at Snyder, NY. Do you think he is the same person?

I think I forgot to mention that one census gave our Joseph's birthplace as Va. I think this indicates that whoever was giving the info had heard some talk, was in doubt themselves. 1 It indicates that Jos' parents at least was from Va.

I do not have any info on the Bunch's of Perry Co, Tenn. I have thought there is a connection, as Nelson Bunch, was was in the 1850 census of Perry Co was connected with Jos. Bunch in Ballard Co. Also, Joseph bought some land in Perry Co 1846, about the time he was, or just before the move, to McCracken Co. There was a Tarlton Bunch, one of the witnesses. I believe this was our Joseph. Do you have anything on Tarlton? Thomas Whitwell was a witness, and we are connected with him on our Hunter side. If you find anything on Ancderson, please let me know. However, there was nobody named for him, and I believe our Bunch's most always had namesakes/. And there was a lot of Bibical names.

I do sincerely thank you for all the good information. It will all fall in place some day! I just hope it will while I have good enough health to put it alls together in a book-form. I do appreciate everything, and if I can help you, I will do so.

Yours with Appreciation,

/s/ Mrs. Herbert Keller

Dear Mrs. King:

I am going to bother ;you again! I've been reading over some of my old letters on the Bunch family and I'm trying to re-check some info. Also, I would like to ask one BIG favor. Mrs. Park had just one copy of her book left. I asked about buying it. (She wanted to give it to a well-located library) and I sent address of our regional library here - also the state library in Cheyenne and Denver. I haven't heard from her yet; and I get impatient. You see, after I do the searching my XXX big plans is to write a history of my family w/all allied lines. It's a tremendous job, and I'm 61 years old. Anything can happen, and I feel an urgency to do all I can. while I can. I will sincerely appreciate your making me copies of the Bunch portion of your book, and I will pay whatever the cost. If it's out of print, that's the only way we will be able to share the data in the book.

Now, let me tell you the new developements on my Joseph Bunch. I had a searcher in McMinn Co andher opinion was that the Joseph Bunch in McMinn Co was not mine. He was 2 yrs younger, a farmer, and his wife was Sarah. Also still in McMinn in 1850 after my Joseph moved to McCracken and Ballard Cos, Ky. So, I remembered an old letter from my gr-aunt, where she said his second name could have been David. I went back to the census, and there was a J.D. Bunch, Perry Co., Tenn 1840. And, living w/him (sic) was Totton (Tarleton) Bunch 50=60 yrs. Also, a letter friend sent me a note where she had found where Joseph Bunch p rchased land in Perry Co 1846 from Wm. Talley. The Joseph (J.D.) in Perry Co had children the right ages, etc in 1840, and I believe he is the only other Bunch in Tenn 1820-1840 who could be our Joseph.

And, I believe sincerely that Tarleton (/Totton) Bunch is Joseph's father. And, I have a copy from a biography of William Bunch, Tarleton's son, b. 14 Nov 1817, Dickson Co., Tenn. I"ll send you a copy if you do not have it. It's taken from Goodspeeds W. Ark book, and gives a sketch of Tarleton's family still living in 1890, when the book was written. We are 17 mi in country and don't go into town much in winter and our copier is broken. So, I'll give you some of the info.

Tarleton Bunch, a native of Va., born 1783, Va, m. ca 1808, S.C., Mary Beavers, b. 1783 also. 6 children (the no. of ch our Tarleton had in 1820 Perry Co. census), only one of who was still living besides Wolliam, who is the subject of the biography. Tarleton was a black smith and a farmer. He d. in Tenn 26 Aug 1852 and his wife d. Tenn 10 Se t 1852. They were members of the Baptist Church for 40 years.

William Bunch was born 14 Nov. 1817, Dickson Co., Tenn. Tanner and a farmer. in 1859 he was ordained a Bapt minister, lived on a farm, married to Jane Mays1838, Decatur Co., Tenn. dau of Abraham and Rebecca (Rhodes) Mays, b. Tenn. 10 children - 7 still living in 1890: Jane XXXXXXX died 7 Nov 1862 and Wm. re-married to Mary Eledge, and 5 more children, all named in the bio. Wm. owned 320 a. of good land in Logan Co., Ark, where he migrated from Tenn in 1857. In 1890 he was 73 yrs old and in good health in Logan Co., Ark.

The other children of Tarleton's and Mary Bunch still living in 1890 were Mary, b. 23 April 1820, Perry Co., TN. She md. James Simmons, TN.

There was a Nelson Bunch in 1850 census Perry Co, TN, and also XXXX w/the the Joseph Bunch family in 1860 in Ballard Co. I believe this is Joseph, William, and Mary's brother. Then in 1817, Tarleton had some land dealings with a Wm. Turner in Humphrey Co. This Wm. Turner is believed to have md. Tarleton"s sister, Nancy Bunch. Have I utterly confused you?

I would send money for copies, but I would rather have you tell me whether you want to rather than push you into it. But, if you will ~~am~~ make them, I will reinburse you.

Sincerely,
IRENE.

PS
I did write to the DeWitt Bunch who pub. the Bunch Family record. I checked the address you gave me, and was told that there was no Bunch in Buffalo, NY. She gave me a D. Allyn Bunch, 175 Berryman Dr., Snyder, NY. I have had no luck hearing from him, tho I wrote him 25 Feb. DeWitt is one of our Bearden family surnames. And, everywhere I find Bunch's, I find Beardens! Bunch family in Louise Co. 1660 and Bearden's in Caroline Co, and on it goes. Lots of similar first names. Als the Winn's.

In reading your letter over, you ~~Z~~mention an Anderson Bunch, Perry Co TN 1840. I believe this Anderson is a brother of our Tarleton. If so the Joseph Bunch, in SC 1800 and in Grainger Co., 1810 would be our Joseph's grandfather? Do you think this is a correct deduction? You can see why I ~~###~~ am very anxious to have ine information in Mrs. Parks' book.

I do sincerely thank you for bearing with me, and for the census sheets ~~/~~Everything helps.

IK

I do not have the 1860 McMinn census. I'll watch for it.

Dear Geneva:

Thank you sincerely for your ~~four yours~~ letters. It is very good of you to take time to be concerned for my Genealogy needs, at a critical time in your lives like illness of your husband. I do hope he is much improved. I hope he is home again. Its so hard to commute to hosp. And, you, (as well as us) live in country. We are 17 mi. from Scottsbluff; 10 mi. from Minatare, which is only a wide place in the Rd.!

I am now absolutely positive of our John, and Joseph's identification. You know, you are allowed one Question, 1 ten yr. span, about 1 person, at Tn. St. Library. One of Nancy Burch's des., (Nancy was Tarleton Burch's sister) and I keep one question there all time. She lives in Mich. and also thinks Anderson, William, (the Wm. killed in War of 1812, Tn.) Tarleton, and Nancy, who was b. 1894 (I have exact date somewhere) was the children of the Joseph Burch, (and Mary Anderson) b. 1749, Louisa Co. Va.; When Joseph and Mary went to S.C., our Tarleton, b. 1783, Va., married Mary Beavers, a native of S.C., and stayed in S.C. until appx. 1812; he was in Dickson Co. Tn. 1817; and in Perry Co. Tn. 1820, where he lived until his death, ~~app~~ 26 Aug. 1852. Perry Co. Court-house destroyed during Civil W., w/ most of records. However I do have lots of deeds, and the division of Tarleton's property in 1856, by William and our Joseph Burch, sons of Tarleton Burch. If there was a will, it was destroyed; but this plainly states that Joseph is selling William his part of his father, Tarleton B.'S estate to his brothers, William. They are the only ones mentioned. However, there is records of land dealings between Joseph (our younger Joseph, who is g'son of the Joseph b. 1749, Va.) and William Howard Turner, who was Tarleton's bro-in-law, and Nancy Burch's husband. Wm. Howard Turner was an ordained Bap. minister. So: The older Joseph, b. 1749 had children that we are pretty positive of: 1. Anderson, b. 1780 – 2. Tarleton, b. 1783; 3. William, b. ca. 1786; (killed in war of 1812); 4. Nancy, b. 1794; (A Joseph Bunch, and his wife, between 80-90 yrs. of age, was living in Dickson Co. Tn. in 1830, where our Tarleton was in 1817; and where his sister, Nancy (Bunch) Turner lived 1815-1850. I believe this was the Joseph, b. 1749; And, I believe he probably d. Dickson Co. Tn. I'm going to try to get a will from Dickson Co.) — Our Tarleton had children: 1.* Joseph, b. 1812, S.C.

2. Nelson, (I'm basing Nelson on him being in Ballard Co. Ky. w/ our Joseph Bunch, in 1860.

3. Nancy, who m. a Mays. Their children was living w/ Tarleton Bunch in 1850, Perry Co. Tn.

4. William, b. 14 Nov. 1817, Dickson Co. Tn. – m. Jane Mays in 1838, Decatur Co. Tn. – A tanner, farmer, and Baptist minister. died Logan Co. Ark.

5. John?

6. Mary, b. 23 Apr. 1820, Perry Co. Tn. – m. James Simon, Perry Co. Tn. (I believe the 5th. child was John. No proof, except there was a John Bunch, living close to Tarleton in census.

The only des. of Tarleton that I can follow exactly is our own Joseph, who I believe was Tarleton's

I do not have your Bunch fam. records. We thought I could get them from Mrs. Parks' book. J.L.

Do you have Miss Eleanor Bobo's address? The telephone operator tells me that she does not have any Bobo's in Lyon, Miss. I apologize for asking so much!

1st. child; b. 1812. I do know from William's biography his children's names. I've written the library in Booneville, Ark.; also some of the Bunch des. that still live in Logan Co. Ark. No results, but I am persistent! I hope to hear from Wm.'S desendents yet! I think I sent you names, dates, and places, for our Joseph Bunch's des.? If not, here they are, and my info is meagre, and from my darling gr. mother's memory mostly. She was not edgecated, being reared by her maternal g. parents, the Scotts. Her sister, Mary Louella, b. 27 Aug., 1861, Green Co. Ark. was very well edgecated being reared by our Dr. Joseph, and Mary Bunch.

Dr. Joseph Bunch, b. 1812, S.C., - m. Mary Pugh, children: 1.* John Henry Bunch, b. 1836, Perry Co. Tn. - m. Winnie Catherine (Carolyn) Scott (dau. of James Scott and Melvina (Christian) in 1860 Ballard Co. Ky. - John was ambushed, murdered, and robbed in 1869, after selling property in Ark. His step-mother-in-law, Luthie Ransom, went after his body in a farm wagon, and he was buried in Ballard Co. Ky. on James Scott's farm.

2. Martha Fanny b. 1838, Tn. - M. B Williams 1st. no. 2. Dr. R.S. Coleman, who was a friend of the Bunch family, from Stewart and Henry Co. Tn. Our Mary Bunch living in their home 1880, Calloway Co. Ky., where Dr. Coleman was a noted Dr. and surgeon.

3. Mary E., b. 1840, Tn. - had a son, Joseph Ready, living in Joseph's household in 1860. (Mary E. Ready)

4. Nancy, b. 1842, Tn., m. N.C. McLean, 1857, McCracken Co. Tn. This marr. annulled.

5. Sarah, b. 1844, Tn.

6. Samuel T., b. 1846-7-Tn. — Married Kate Ross 1874, McCracken Co. Ky. Samuel T. was a practicing physician in Graves Co. Ky. — per my g. Aunts' and grandmother's memory; I cannot get records from Graves Co. on acct. of fires. He is not in 1880 soundex of Ky. However, he may not have had children under 10 yrs. of age. Our Joseph d. appx. 1880, and we believe he d. in area of Calloway Co. Ky.

7. Frances, b. 1849-50, McCracken Co. Ky.

8. Josephine, b. 1852, " " "

9. Margarett, b. 1854, Ballard Co. Ky. This area ch. to Ballard Co. ca. 1852. (If you find any of my Bunch's after 1860, please let me know!

I started out intending to ask you about the Anderson family records; who published the book, and is it available? I couldn't believe the familar names! I've always said there was a connection in my Bunch-Bearden-Winn families! I believe I've found it! The Winn's have been carried down as given names in our present-day Bearden's — also Minor. The progenitor of our Bearden's is supposed to be Frances Bearden and Sarah Blassingame, Caroline Co. Va. Their son, John, married Lettice Winn, dau. of Minor Winn, Sr. and Margaret O'Connor. There has always been John's, Benjamin's, Frances, Susannah's, Mollie's Sarah's, Richards, David's, Edmonds, in our Bearden fam.

Do you happen to have copies of any of the old legal documents from Va., N.C., S.C., Tenn. Ky., Ark. and Mo.? I will pay — In fact, I would like to enclose a check; but I will not push you. I've written to Mrs. Parks, but have not heard from her about copies of her book. However, she said she was placing her books where they will send Xeroxed copies to Bunch and Parks searchers. I'm so very eager for this info — and if you can tell me where the Anderson book and info is? Our Bearden family also married w/ the Cap. John Smith family, and their des. are still in S.C.

Sincerely,
Irene — (A Bunch Cousin)

P.S. I forgot to tell you about our black Bunchs. Henry Bunch was a Rev. W. soldier from S.C., and I'm sure he is connected. Rev. Albert Bunch, Rt. 1, Marshall, Mo. gave me this info: "Our link came thru Henry Bunch, late 1700's. His son had two children by his lawful wife (white), and six children by a slave mistress. He sent his black sons to Ohio for an edgecation, and freed them. His legitimate son was also edgecated. Unfortunately, his daughters (white & black) were not given benefit of an edgecation. His sister thought this was a scandal, and said so in her letters, which still survive." There was a Dr. Ralph Bunche (Black), of the U.N, until his death. He was a direct des. of Henry Bunch, (white). There is a black family, Bunch, in Paducah, Ky. to-day.

I. K.

P.S. If both you and Mrs. Parks should send me copies from her book, I'll pay for both, as I'm making two copies of everything. I will sincerely appreciate. Mrs. Parks said she had tried to place copies of her book in libraries, where they will send excerpts to searchers.

Dear Mrs. King:

I do thank you again for the information which you sent my way.I do wish I had known you and Mrs Park's while she was searching for information for her book.I have found an apathy after a book is once done.And,I would so like to publish one with our Joseph,b.1749,lineage included.I believe Mrs.Parks was right in her deductions on Joseph^5's son,Anderson,b.ca.1781,S.C.-But,if Joseph^5 had a David,which I believe he did,(Our Tarleton could be Tarleton David)then or there was a son between Anderson,and Tarleton?(David?) Anyway,the other desendent of Joseph^5 is as convinced as I am that Tarleton,and Nancy Bunch,b.1783 and 1793 respectively, was children of Joseph.^{5} And, we came to this conclusion long before seeing,or knowing there was a book by Mrs. Park's,or one by another Bunch des. We based our conclusions on the fact that Joseph,and Mary Bunch was in the Dickson Co.Tenn. census with our g.grandparents,in 1830-ages were right.1820 also.-William Howard Turner,a primative Baptist minister(his father also a minister) w/ a long pedigree- m. Nancy Bunch 5 Aug,1813,Dickson Co.Tenn.-he was in war of 1812, and we get the info from her pension application after his death,4 Mar.1861,Dickson Co.Nancy d.14 Mar.1872,also Dickson Co.-- Now,Tarleton was in S.C.in 1800w/ his parents.In 1810,our Tarleton must have been m.as he was 27 yrs.old,and my theory is that he either stayed in S.C.,or went back there to marry Mary Beaver,who lived in S.C.-he was in S.C. for my g.g. grandfather's birth 1812.-But he was in Dickson Co.Tenn.for the birth of William,1817.And,in Perry Co.Tenn.for the birth of Mary,1820. He stayed in Perry Co.until he d.1852.And,there is a David Bunch Cem.in Perry Co.Tenn. My own g.g.grandfather,Joseph Bunch^7(According to Mrs. Park's numbering sys.)was reared from time he was appx.5 yrs.old in Perry Co.Tenn.-having gone there by way of Grainger Co.,and Dickson Co.w/his father Tarleton^{6}Bunch.Dr. Joseph^{7}moved to McCracken,later his area changed to Ballard Co. Ky. appx.1847.He had 6 children b. Perry Co.Tenn.-and he went over into McMinn Co.to find a wife.He m.there in 1839. He had relatives in McMinn,and Graiger Co.'s.His wife,Mary Pugh,comes from an old and distinguished family in Va.- - We cannot find a will for Joseph^{5}or Mary in Dickson Co.as many records have been destroyrd.But,we are certain that this is the son of David^4. The dates are as exact as can be in census before 1850.Everything checks. And,we can follow Joseph^5's lineage through Tarleton,and Nancy (Bunch) Turner-also Anderson,through Mrs.Evelyn Moore.-Another coincidence is that two of Wm.Howard and Nancy(Bunch)Turner's children M.Shelton's.-re. A.B.J.Turner m. Nancy Shelton-Joseph Turner m. Martha Shelton.- I found many allied names in the family group archives in Salt Lk.w/ our particular lineage through Joseph,b.1749;-I hope to find some more of his desendents.

Do you have any idea of who the Joseph Bunch was in Mercer Co.Ky.in 1800? Also,the Joseph Bunch in Cumberland Co.Ky.1800?-I believe our Joseph^{5}was on the tax rolls in Ky.1800,and owned land in Ky.at that time.-

By the way,I sent for the Pension application for William Bunch,Grainger Co. War of 182.If anyone of his des. are interested.Cost me $10. I did not intend to order,

~~State of Georgia Gilmer County In the Name of God Amen~~

~~I Jacob Bearden of said state and County~~

I just asked if they had it, and they sent it, along w/a bill. I will be glad to make copies for other Bunch desendents.-I had gotten the copies of the Bunch book, by Mrs. Park from a letter-friend.-But, I found it, and much more in Salt Lk. while I was there.

I will be so glad to hear from you, w/ any information which you would like to add to another publication. Also, if you have anything more at all on Joseph ^{5}I would so like to addd to my records.-- 'I knew the Taylors in Loveland, Col.-But, I did not know she was connected w/ my Bunch family. We lived in Loveland all our working life. Until 1977 when we retired. I read in Loveland paper just recently whre a Bunch des. died there.

In family group Archives in Salt Lk. there was many Anderson's, Woodson's, and Winn's intermarried. I hope to fit them into my family tree,

I do hope your husband is much improved. My prayers are w/ you, and yours.

Yours w/ much appreciation,

P.S. I would so appreciate copies of any old Bunch records or pictures. Or, any of the census, which you have for Joseph^5 + Mary Bunch. (Or David (I'm not sure about David.) his sons.) There was Tarleton, Anderson, a David in Perry Co. W/ Tarleton and his son, Joseph^7. I'm trying to discern whether these people was Tarleton's bros. or his sons. He had only six children and I'm sure of Joseph^7, Nelson, William, and Mary, who m. James Simon.

Dearest Geneva: 19 Sep. 1980

In reading over your very welcome letter, and information, I cannot believe I have waited so long to answer! Its been a hectic summer, and I can't wait to live a normal life again! I guess you, Alice Parks, and I (and husbands) are at the age, to have health problems. I heard from Mrs Parks', and recieved the book from her; and I must get her check in the mail. I guess I have at least $35 invested in it now, as I sent the one person $10 for copies; but I am glad to have the info. I haven't even had time to look for allied families w/ surnames I am searching, in other portion of the book. My sister and I was both sick in Salt Lk., and we wasted 2 days trying to decipher our g-grandfather's will. It was written during Civil War, and w/such poor ink. But, I am running across so many allied names w/ Burch and Bearden family. And, there are so many Benjamin, John, Williams, Jacob, Sarah "Sally", Mary "Molly" first names that are similar. Of course, these are common names, but I believe there was more intermarrying than we can find records of, between Winn's, Bearden's, Burches, Harris, Langstons, etc.

My husband has been ill for the last year. He finally had surgery this summer, and had complications. We was planning a trip south, Ga., Tenn., and Ala; Ky, esp., but he dont believe he will be able to go this year. Its a dream we may never realize. But, I need to do some more searching in "River" Co.'s, Tenn. We have based our connection w/ Joseph, and Mary (Anderson) Bunch, on the fact that there was a Joseph Bunch, and wife, in Dickson Co., Tenn. in 1830 - living with, (or next door) to Wm. Howard, and Nancy (Bunch) Turner. They was the right age to be the Jos. and Mary mentioned in Mrs. Park's book. Also, we know for sure that our Tarlton, Wm., and Nancy, was closely connected w/ Grainger Co. Bunch's. My g.g. Grandfather, Joseph^7 E. D. Bunch, did go to McMinn Co. to get married. I have several Bunch documents from McMinn, if you want copies, let me know - such as settlement of Paul and Nancy Bunch's estate. There was a Joseph Bunch in McMinn Co. that was 2 or 3 Yrs. Younger than my Joseph^7. I thought at first he could be ours; only I knew for sure that Joseph^7's wife was Mary. And, this Joseph's wife was Sarah, and children different names. So, I kept looking. And, I dont believe I've told you that our Joseph^7 married Mary Pugh, who was from the very prestigous family of Gen. Eaton, and Pugh. Her branch migrated from the same area of Va., to Franklin Co., Tenn. I havent gone into her background much; but the Pugh's and Eaton's intermarried w/ Coleman's, and Williams, also from same area of Va.

(3) Do you happen to have the records of the things that R. H. Bunch, of Chicago found out about our family. or, are they included in Mrs. Park's book? I believe he is deceased now; and you and Mrs. Park/s prob. have his material.

I have an eye problem. I do very little driving, and to search census microfilm's really bothers. I had some eye-damage, and glasses don't help. So, your offer to send census reports is most welcome. I've needed to find Joseph and Mary Bunch in 1790 1810, and 1820. I believe Mrs. Park's told me that they was in Grainger Co., Tn. in 1810. I must re-read her letters. But, in 1810, my g. g. g. grandfather, Tarleton Bunch, was 27 yrs. old. I'm sure he either had already married Mary Beaver, in S.C., or went back and married her (to S.C.) before 1810. That's why Mrs. Park's did not find him w/ Joseph + Mary in 1810 census of Grainger Co. Tn.; and the James Bunch, whose War w/ Mex. Record you sent, could very well be ~~Joseph^5's son also~~. Tarleton^6'S son also, as I believe they were in Dickson Co. soon after my Joseph^7'S birth. We found records there as early as 1814 for Nancy (Bunch) and Wm. Howard Turner. But, Dickson Co. C.h. was destroyed by tornado; Perry Co. C.h. destroyed by fire during Civ. War. Records there are scarce. But, we are finding bits of info from Humpreys, Henry, and other close Co.'S. One of Joseph^7'S dau.'s married a person from Stewart and Henry Co., who was also a Dr. (Dr. Robert S. Coleman.) also from the same area of Va. — I know for sure that Tarleton was b. Va.; his grandson, Dr. Samuel^8 T. Bunch, stated, when he got his marriage license in Paducah, Ky., 1874, that his father was b. Va. — Census says Joseph^7 was b. S.C. — but Samuel T. knew the our Bunch's was from Va. And, this was most definitely the son of Joseph^7; Witnesses at his marr. to Kate Ross, was Dr. Coleman, his bro: in-law. — I'm also looking for any records of our Joseph^7, and his wife, Mary, after 1863. They quit paying taxes in Ballard Co. then. The only clues to their lives after 1862-3, is that my g.-Aunt, who they reared, said she went to school, and church, at a place called Hickory Grove, Ky. I've found a Baptist Church, called Hickory Grove, S.W. of Dexter, Calloway Co., Ky. — And she said our Joseph Bunch died before 1880. In 1880, our Mary Bunch (his widow), was living w/ her dau.'s family, Dr. and Mrs. R.S. (Martha Fanny (Bunch) Coleman, Calloway Co. Ky. So, I believe this is the area that my g.-Aunt remembered after 1863. There is also a Hickory, Ky. in Graves Co., which is just No. of Mayfield, Ky. And, Samuel T.^{8} stated that he was a Dr., Graves Co., in 1874. But, I haven't been able to find any records of their lives in Graves, or Calloway, between 1862-1880. If you have suggestions, I will be so appreciative. My own grandmother, who stayed w/ their maternal g: parents, until she was 10-11 yrs. old, said Dr. Joseph Bunch visited her and her bro. there, (Ballard Co.), but he would never sleep in the house. He slept out under a tree, w/ blankets that he brought. James Scott had a farm, and the Scott's was not educated. They sent Granny's brother to school, but Granny never went a day. Her bro., Geo. John Thompson Bunch, d. age 16, in Ballard Co. After that, their mother, who had married James Morgan, a Baptist preacher, took Granny from the Scott's, and moved to Gallin Co., Il. ~~She~~ Her mother died soon after, and Granny did not ever hear from the Scott's, or Bunch's again. She was 11-12 yrs. old; but had vivid memories. She, and her sister, Mary Louella, called "Ella", was very close, being the only survivors of their family. Winnie Caroline ("Catherine") lost at least 6 children, prob. 7; 3 by John Henry Bunch; and 3 by J. Morgan. My g-Aunt, who survived, weighed just over 2 lbs. at birth. And, Granny never weighed over 100 lbs. in her life. She remembered big washings of overalls that she did in James Scott's home, before she was 10 yrs. old. J. Scott reared several grandchildren, w/ the help of a 2nd. wife, Ruthie (Ransom). Granny thought that Ruthie was also her Aunt.

I've rambled on. I'm sorry. - I haven't decided what format my publ. will be. I'm starting to make notes, and think more about it. I want to do it while my health is as good as it is. So far, I've gathered all the info, documents, and family gr. sheets I can get on Bunch, and allied families. Mrs. Parks covered so much; Since rec'ing her book, I've thought about asking her to help w/ ~~sa~~ 2nd. publ. Covering the rest of the Bunch's, which she did not know about. I'm open to all suggestions and help I can get. And, esp., on Joseph and Mary's family.

I've run across lots of Bunch's just over the line in Ga., (from S.C.) also. Most are Tanners + farmers

My sincere thanks to you again for the fam. Gr. sheets on Anderson - Overton. Also, the info for James Bunch. I believe he is a son [illegible]5 of Tarleton6 and Mary (Beaver) Bunch, and a bro. of Joseph E. D., Wm., ~~and Han~~, and Mary (Bunch) Simon. I've based Nelson Bunch also as a bro., on the fact that he was in Perry Co. 1850 - and pd. taxes in Ballard Co. in 1858, where Joseph7 was.

I have old tintype pictures of Samuel T. Bunch. And an old picture of James and W. Caroline (Scott-Bunch) Morgan's family, when my gr-mother was about 9-11 yrs. old, app. 1880, just before her bro. died. Lots of pictures of Aunt "Ella" when Joseph7, and Mary Bunch had her.

Your info, Louisa Co., was very helpful. If you have anything on Eatons + Pughs, I will also appreciate. I feel like things are falling in place, gradually.

Sincerely,
A Bunch Cousin

Mrs. Parks did not pay, but I got the idea that she lost her husband? She said she had been busy as an executress of his will.
J.K.

P.S.

In looking up Pope Co. Ark., I find it next to Logan Co., where Wm. Bunch, ~~Father's~~ Joseph7's bro. moved to in 1858. And, my own g.-Grandfather, John8 H. served in Civ. War from Independence Co. Ark. - Mary9 Louella "Ella", and Geo. John Thompson9 was b. Greene Co. Ark., so Aunt Ella said. However, in 1870 census of James Scott's home, they gave their birthplaces as Mo. - there is a Greene Co. Mo. also. But, I am inclined to take Aunt Ella's word for it, as she said Gainsville, Greene Co. Ark. Anyway, lots of our Bunch branches went to Ark. + Mo. Their father (Granny's + Aunt Ella's) was murdered in Ark., but it must have not been too far from Ballard Co. Ky., as his step mother-in-law, Ruthie (Ransom) Scott, took the farm wagon, and brought his body back to Lovelaceville, Ballard Co. for burial. He had already moved his family back to Ballard Co., and this must have been in Aug. or 1st of Sep., as he had just sold everything, his crops, etc. in Ark., land too, according to the stories, and was carrying the money - all their worldly goods. His wife + family was left destitute. And, my grandmother was b. almost as soon as he was buried.

I am getting ready to go help my mother celebrate her 86th birthday, and I'm not organized at all.

I.K.

Dear Geneva:

Winter is in the air here, and we pulled our tomatoes, and beans yesterday. We did have a beautiful garden, and I've preserved more than we will ever use, as usual. This climate is perfect for 7 mos. of the yr. But, the winters can be fierce. However, we have the snowstorms, and the next day can be bright and sunny. We have only been here on the lake for three yrs. We lived, worked, ad reared our family in Loveland, Colo. from 1939-1978. It is ironic that I knew Jenny Taylor, thru another friend. And, just recently, 3 mos. ago, I saw in Loveland paper where some Bunch's was in Loveland for a funeral. I meant to save the paper, but it got thrown out. Thats before I knew Jenney had the Bunch record book, or that she was related to Bunch's. I think Jenney is deceased now. I have contacts in Loveland, and I dont know why I did not find out if she was related to my Taylor's. But, I wasn't that interested until we retired. The Bunch family has always fascinated me, because Granny had such a vivid memory. And, she tried so hard, after she reared a family alone, to get records, and find some of the Bunch's + Scott's in Ky. If you know of any Bunch desendents still

(2) in Loveland, Colo., please do let me know.
My search for my branch seems fruitless.
My grandmother's only brother, George John Thompson Bunch, died, age 16, in 1879. There was only her and Mary Louella, (Aunt Ella) who survived. Their father, John H., was murdered when a young man. So, in the family John H. was born in, there was 7 Girls, and two boys - ie - John H., and Samuel T., who m. Kate (Catherina) Ross.
I can't seem to find Dr. Samuel T. Bunch after 1874, Graves Co., Ky. I'm wondering if he went over in Ark. or Mo., as so many of our Bunch's did? Anyway, if he had Male desendents, I think I would have found them by now? Please help me watch for him!
My G-grandfather, John H., did go to Ark., and (or) Mo. - Aunt Ella said she was b. Gainsville, Greene Co., Ark., and John joined Conf. service from Independence, Ark. 1862. However, in 1870 Census, Ballard Co., Ky. it is stated that Ella, and George was b. Mo. There is a Gainsville, and Greene Co. in Mo. also.
But, Aunt Ella, and Granny thought that John was murdered in Ark. He had sold his crops, and all their belongings, land included, and was on his way to Ballard Co. Ky, where he had already taken his pregnant wife, and young children. He was murdered close enuff to Lovelaceville, Ky., that Ruthie (Ransom) Scott, took the farm wagon, and brought his body to Lovelaceville for burial. And, I do know at that time.

(3) the Bunchi's had lots of relatives in Ark. + Mo.

I've looked over your information repeatedly.
And, I would like very much, to have your impressions as to whether the Joseph Bunch,
+ wife, next h.h. to ~~Nancy~~ Wm. Howard ~~Ya~~ Nancy (Bunch) Turner, Dickson Co., Tenn.
80-90 yrs. old 1830, was the one and same Joseph, and Mary, in Louisa Co. Va.? You have spent many Yrs. searching; Was there any other Joseph Bunch living, 1830, who was 80 to 90 yrs. old?
W/ a wife 70-80 yrs. old? both b. Va.
Tarleton, b. Va. - Sam'l T. also stated his g.-f.
born Va. All the older Bunchi's, Perry, Dickson, Humpreys Co's, b. Va.

Also, a letter-friend sent me a copy of pg. from "The Baptists of Tenn": I know the Pughs, who intermarried W/ Eaton's Louisa, Fluvanna Va.
did go to Washington, and on to Franklin Co's, Tenn.
Also, the Harris' intermarried W/ Bearden's, Tenn., N. + S. Carolina. — In "Hist. Gen. of Woodson's, and T. Connections", she sent just enough to make me more curious. - Issue of Robt. Woodson^2, (John^1) and Elizabeth Ferris - John^3, Cousin to John Woodson^2, in his will, 20 Aug. 1684 - b. ca. 1658, Curles, Henrico Co., merchant, marr. Judith Tarleton, dau. of Stephen Tarleton, New Kent Co.;
a looking-glass, formerly belonged to Charles Van Der Veer Woodson, Prince Edw. Co. which bears insc.:
"This Glass belonged to Stephen Tarleton, my g.-
Grandfather, and d. 1687 - the present fr. put on it 14 Dec. 1794" signed, Charles Woodson. This was Pg.

(4) 24; and she did not send any more. But, pg. 30;
Tarleton^4, b. 1681, Henrico Co. m. Aug. 1709,

You can see why I would like to acquire more info. from these books. If we make the connection w/ Mary Anderson (Joseph's wife), then we also make connect. w/ the Woodson's, Napiers, Fleming's, Tarletons, etc. Whether my g. g. g. Grandfather Tarleton Bunch, descended from them, will require much work, and some speculation, I'm sure.
I am very much thanking you for your help;
and soliciting your continued cooperation.
I'm beginning to make notes, and think of the form a publ. will be, (when and if!)

Please do let me hear from you!

Oh, Yes! according to 1820 census, Tarleton and Mary (Beaver) Bunch, had 8 childrens living in their home. I believe 2 died - and was not mentioned by Wm. Bunch in his biogr. Or, was? they nephews?

Sincerely, Irene

Geneva, I wrote this several days ago, but we was called from Denver, and had to go down there before I got it mailed. I've just read it over, and I sound terribly disorganized!

Either you, or Mrs. Parks said you had the census schedule for Joseph^4 Bunch, and his family, for 1800-1810. I wonder if you will share that with me? The only census I have for him is 1830, Dickson Co., Tenn. It will help me place his children, hopefully. We are trying so hard to get records from Dickson, Humphrey, Henry, Wayne, Stewart, etc. And, I want to find Joseph^4 and Mary in 1820, especially. If they stayed in Grainger Co. until the 1820's, then I figure they had children in Grainger Co. also. — I have really studied the census for 1820-30-40-50 - Perry Co., Tenn. And, I've sent for some more, Dickson Co. And, I am speculating now that the signers of a Perry Co. Tn., petition in 1819 was all brothers. There was Tarleton, David -, John T. -, and Joseph Anderson Bunch. I don't believe, from (the census) that anyone of these 4 signers, had children old enough to sign in 1819. Of course they could be cousins; but we believe they was bros. Its hard to designate Tarleton + David's children, as David had 2 M. under 10 - 1 M. 26-45 - 2 F. under 10 - 1 F. 26-45 - (1820) — (over)

1820: Tarleton had 3 M. under 10 –
1 M. 10-16 – John Bunch
1 M. – 26-45
3 F. under 10
1 F. 10-16 – 1 F. 26-45 –

I have deduced for sure that the h.h.'s (same no.?) 1840, are Tarltan's and Mary (Beaver) Bunch's children: — Wm. Bunch – (later in Logan Co., Ark.)
Betsy Bunch – (She is probably Tarltan's son's widow? In 1840 – Betsy Bunch had in her h.h. 1 M. under 20 – 2 F. under 30 – so she was b. ca. 1810-1820 – the F. 10-16 in 1820 –

1840: J. D. (Joseph David) Bunch) my g. g. grandfather
1 M. under 5 (John Henry, my g. grandfather)
1 M. under 30 – (Joseph D., b. 1812)
1 F. under 5 – (Martha Jenny, b. 1838)
1 F. under 30 – Mary (Ruff), b. 1817 –

Then in next h. h. is Elizabeth Mays w/ same children who are living in Tarltan's h. h. under name of Mays in 1850 census. So, I've speculated that Elizabeth Mays is Tarltan's dau-in-law. If so, Tarltan + Mary had lost both a son + dau. by 1850. And, William probably married Elizabeth's husband's sister, as he married Lucy Jane Mays in 1838. —

In 1850 – Perry Co., there is a John, b. 1804, S.C., who could be Tarltan's son – the one b. 1804-1810. — There is another John D. – b. 1811, Tenn., – I believe this John belonged to Tarltan's bro., David, as Tarltan only had a John?
There is also a Thomas Bunch, b. 1811, Tenn., and I believe he could be John D.'s twin, as Tarltan don't seem to be in Tenn. until after 1812. — I'm speculating to you, but I've ordered more census schedules for 1840, Perry, Dickson, and Humpreys Co. Tenn., hoping they will help me determine all the Bunch's ages, who was in those Co.,s at that time. I do know from the index, that Nelson, John Joseph David, and William was h.h.'s in 1840. And, I must determine, from ages 1820-1830, which ones belongs to David, and which to Tarltan Bunch. (also Anderson, or Joseph Anderson, as he signed his name).

I believe Betsy's husband was a Bunch. Either that, or she had a child out of wedlock; In 1840, her h.h. was same no. as Tartlan's and Joseph's; and she had a son, b. 1820-1830. Then, next-door, there was Elizabeth Mays, W/ children the same age of the ones who was living in the Tarlton Bunch h.h. in 1850. So, I'm speculating that ~~another son~~ Elizabeth ~~w~~was Tarltan's dau., who married a Mays, possibly Wm's wife's sister (Lucy Jane Mays, dau. of Abraham + Rebecca (Rhodes) Mays) So, I am fairly sure, (from census) that:

1. Betsy, Either M. a Bunch, who d. before 1840, or was dau. of Tarlton Bunch, who had a dau. this age.
2. John, b. ca. 1804, S.C., (making Tarlton + Mary (Beaner) Bunch m. by 1804.)
3. Elizabeth, ca. 1809, M. a Mays.
4. *Joseph D., b. 1812, S.C., M. Mary Pugh
5. Nelson, in 1840 census, 2nd. h.h. from Tarltan; in tax rolls for Ballard Co., Ky. in 1860's.
6. William, b. 1817, Dickson Co. - d. Logan Co. Ark.

7. Mary, 1820, m. James Simon

8. I've speculated that the 8th child was James, whose rec. you sent (war of 1812) However, this makes me short one Male + one Female, as Tarltan had 4 M. + 4 F. according to census of 1820. So, I have to compare more census schedules from 184 1850. I am fairly sure of John, b. 1804; The S.Ca. area in S.C. is not that far from Wilkes Co. Ga. And Tarltan had a son b. 1804-1810. — I'm sure of Wm. and Joseph on acct. of them saying they was settling their father, Tarltan Bunch's, estate in 1856 So, I must get more info before I make a decision between Nelson + James Bunch. — My speculation is that Betsy, Elizabeth + Mary was Tarltan's dau's. leaving me one dau. short.

There is lots of Sheltons, 1840 census, Perry Co. In so if David Anderson m. a Shelton, they was prob. in Perry Co. in 1840. — I'm sure you have the 1820 census, Perry Co. - there was a James + a David in Giles Co. 1820. Also, 1824 tax schedule, there was a Solomon Bunch, Maury Co.

I forgot to say that our Tarltan was in Dickson Co. in 1814, leading me to believe that he was father of James, as I have not found either Anderson, or David in Dickson Co.

I'm sorry I sound, (and am) so disorganized. I'm thinking as I write. I do solicit your help. All information helps. And, I esp. would like to have copies of any census schedules you have or any record of Joseph^5 Bunch + Mary. All I have is the 1830 census of Dickson Co. Tenn. Yours w/ appreciation, Irene

Sorry, I'm about out of paper! But, I must tell you, that in Mrs. Park's book, (Park sec.) I found name + address for /a des. of Margaret Wallace, who was a sister to my husband's great-g.father - I'm sure, as also from White Lick Dist., Madison Co. Ky.
Many - many allied names from this area.
So, I am very glad I got the book! - Did I send you our ancestor charts? I finally got some typed, but no copies yet - 17 mi. in town + don't go in often.
But, names I'm searching: (all Southern)

1. Keller - Va. - Oh. 21. Baker - Garrard, Ky.
2. Bearden - Caroline Va. S.C. - N.C. 22. Pugh - Va., Tenn - Ky.
Va. - N.C. Georgia

13. Raney - S.C., Tenn, Ga. Ky. 33. Purdy - Va. - Md.
14. Hunter - Va. - N.C. - Ark. 34. Yates - Va. - Md.
15. Morehead - Ill. - Ind. | I thought there was 42 - Can't think!
16. Miller - Ind. - Tex. | but now, there's Anderson, Woodson,
17. Morgan - Ky. - Tex. | Napier, etc. - I do believe the
18. Beavers - N.C. - S.C. | Dr. profession came down thru
19. Bennett - N.C., Ala. - Tenn Ga. | Woodson - Napier connection - Also the
20. Partwood - Ky. | Tarleton given name.

P.S. In Mrs. Park's book, she talks of the Tally's - my g.g. Grandfather, Joseph Bunch, bought from J. T. Holbrook, and Sarah Ann Tally, now Sarah Ann Holbrook, 32 A. of land, mentions 40 A. in name of John Tally, on bank of Buffalo Rvr., Witnesses: *Tarlton Bunch, Tom Whitnell (Whitnell is an allied name, my Hunter family,) Perry Co., Tn., 1845.

I believe the petition you mentioned, was one signed 1819, by Tarlton, David, John T., Joseph Anderson Bunch, all bros. except John T., and I haven't exactly placed him. Tarlton's son, John, would have been only 15 yrs. old.

There is a David Bunch Cem., located on Cedar Creek, Linton, Tenn. - also, a Bunch Cem., Perry Co., Tenn. - Some of J. Anderson's issue are bur. in Carr Cem., Maury Co. Tenn. Seemingly, Joseph Anderson had 12 children, as Perry Co. News obit. 17 Oct. 1913, has: Howard T. Bunch d., age 75, b. Monroe Co., Tn., youngest of 12 children; only a few mos. old when parents located on very spot Howard died. In Conf. Army 1862-1864 - disc. for hearing. One son survives. (named for Howard Wm. Turner?) (Ones) J.K.

Another Question: Do you know anything of the Wm. + Nancy (Moore) Burch's lineage? She evidently comes from the same Moore family, which my husband decends from. Nancy is a Moore family name - (John, also); Our Moore's was in Va.; travelled to N.C., W/ Daniel Boone (In fact, came over on same ship that D. Boone's parents came on.) Named a son Daniel Boone Moore; g. g. grandparent Moore was Daniel Moore; down to present time. Settled in Madison Co., ~~Ky~~. Any help on the Moore's most appreciated!

Sincerely,

Irene

Someway, this letter was returned to me, altho I had your address right. I'm going to send this again, W/ the hope that you will ~~[illegible]~~ recieve it this time.

Dear Geneva,and Family:

I am going to take this means of wishing you,and yours a MERRY CHRISTMAS, and a HAPPY NEW YEars1,and may the best always be yours!-we just got home from a visit to my mother,Garland,Tex.,where it rained most of the two weeks we was there.-we came home by way of Wichita,and had a family re-union on Thanksgiving w/our daughter's famiy there.They are in Church work,and recently moved,from n.e. Mo.-We are really glad to have them closer to us.She had 17 for dinner,but has a huge Living-room,where we could all sit down to dinner together.They have an 8-bedroom house,so we all stayed there.It was a joyous occasion!and,they will all be here for Christmas.I am glad we have a motor-home,where we can put part of them,but I am looking forward to it.The two grand-children,who go to David Lipscomb Christian,Nashville,Tn.,will also be here.And,the two newly married Grands,w/their new mates,will be the 1st.Christmas,w/us,so we are looking forward to that.One couple still live in Loveland,Colo.,where we reared our children.The others,except the one in Wichita,lives close to us.-We have 3 Children,and 7 grandchildren.

I'm wondering if I will ever get the searching done,but I can see much progress in the last year.I hope you wont mind me asking you some more questions!I have read,and re-read your letters,and I have so appreciated!-now the Questions:

1. Has anyone ever found a Marr.record for Joseph,and Mollie(Anderson)Bunch?
2. I find a John Bunch,b.1804,S,C.-in census of Perry Co.Tenn.-Could this be Joseph's son?-You sent me census for 1800,S.C.for Joseph,but all I have to go on for 1810,is the info in Mrs.Park's book.And,according to her info,There was only one, she was ~~and~~ a Female b.after 1890.-So,not having the 1810 census,Grainger Co.Tn.,I am assuming that this John,b.1804,was the 1st.child of Tarleton,and Mary(Beaver)Bunch,as they had 1 M.,and 1 F.born before 1810,S.C.-no.2 seems to have been Elizabeth,who m.a Mayes, (Bro.to Wm.'s wife,Lucy Jane Mayes,whose parents were Abraham,and Rebecca (Rhodes) Mayes).-Then,after 1810,Tarletan,and Mary had 3 M.,and 3 F.between 1810-1820.I think I have placed Nelson as no.3,being b.1810.-4. *Joseph Edward David,my g.g.grandfather, 5. F. ,I believe she was Betsy,based on census,b.1814.-6.F.,b.ca.1816- 7.William, who I am sure of,because of the settlement of Tarleton's estate,w/Joseph E.D.Bunch.- 8.Mary,b.1820,m.James Simpn.They are in census,Perry Co.1840-1850.-I do have most birthdates,places,and issue.Elizabeth was alone 1840 census,and her children was living in Tarleton and Mary's h.h.in 1850,Perry Co.Either Wm.was wrong in his bio. statement that Tarleton had only 6 children,or two d.young.-Or,Tarletom,or Mary was m.before,and the 2 b.before 1810,was half-bro.& sister to Wm.However,census of 1820 shows 4 M.'s and 4 F.'s in Tarleton's h.h.- I am absolutely as positive as anyone can be that John,Elizabeth,Joseph E.D.,Betsy,William,and Mary are Tarleton's children,and I base Nelson on the fact he was on tax rolls of Ballard Co.Ky.-also in census of Perry Co.Tn.1840-1850.-Either he was Tarleton,son or Joseph Anderson,'s-son or David's son.It is hard to differentiate between them,as they all had M.'s same age. I am investigating to see what Bunch's was in Dickson Co.1814,when James was born. (over)

David was in Dickson Co., 1813-1825, as he was in war of 1812, Dickson Co., so the James in Mo. Wm was his son maybe? Tarltan was there too- or soon after 1814.

I believe Tarleton's no.6 child,a F.,married a Shelton-nothing to go on, except the fact there was Shelton's all around Tarleton's family in census. Of course sh emay have died,befre reaching marriageable age.She,and Nelson are the only ones I am not fairly positive on.If Nelson belomged to David, or Joseph Anderson,then I believe that the James,b.1814 Dickson Co.was the other M.of Tarleton's,as Tarlton was in Dickson Co.soon after 1814.

Question 3. Do you have anything to help me substantiate,or deny that Joseph, and Mollie (Anderson)Bunch's issue was:

1. Joseph Anderson,b.1781,Louisa Co.Va.-m.Sally Bunch,Grainger,Tn.-in Perry Co.Tenn.,1819(signed petition)1840 census.
2. Tarletan,b.1783,Va.-in Dickson Co.Tenn.1814-census of 1820-1830-1840-1850, Perry Co.Tennn.-m.Mary Beaver,ca.1804,S.C.-d:1852,Perry Co.Tenn.(Census verifies his children).- Joseph, Jr. in Dickson Co., Tn. W/ wife, 1830- Do you know where they was 1820 census?
3. David,b.1785,Va.-
4. Betsy, b.ca.1790,Va.-(Speculation that Betsy was name of this dau,from census of Gibson Co.,Tn.1830-in Perry Co.1840.She could have been a Bunch widow,but because of her proxmity to Tarletan,and his bro.'s I believe that Betsy never married, unless she m. after 1840, at 50 plus age.
5. Nancy,b.1792-94.,Va.-m.William Howard Turner,d.14 Mar.1872,Dickson,Tenn. (We have Nancy,s lineage,and lots of data,thru her des.'s.

I have found no substantiation to the theory that Joseph had a M.child, named Andrew,but if Anderson was not found in 1810 census,perhaps he was called Andrew? - Another thing I would like to clarify,the David in Grainger, 1810,Could he be the same David,b.1785,who had only children b.1810-1820,in Perry Co.census,1820?-If so,then something happened to the 3 m.issue he had in 1810 census of Grainger Co.This David could have m.young,ca.1804,and had 3 children,b.1805-1807-1809-10-and was divorced.-Or those 3 m.'could have all died. But,if he was the same David,I am of the opinion that he was div.-I hate to think that way,but it did happen.His issue could have been w/his 1st.wife?I just don't believe they all died!-and they was not married,even then boys did not m.before 15.

Question 4. Have you speculated in your searches for your James Bunch,as to who the James Bunch was,b.1895,S.C.-marrid Nancy ?-in Anderson Co.Tenn.1850?-I do not have the 1810 census for Grainger Co.Tenn.,but in Mrs Park's Bk.,pg.231,she indicates that Joseph only had one child,b. after 1790,a Female,who I have placed as Nancy (Bunch)Turner.-If this James did not belong to Joseph,then there was other branches of the Bunch Family in S.C.at same time that our Joseph was there!

I will so appreciate copies of any census records that you have.And,I do solicit help im placing all person's in the family they belonged in.Mrs.Park/s did a tremendous,and a very worthwhile work,but there is a very few that we have not placed as yet. - On another sheet I will show you the way I have worked out Mary Anderson's lineage, as she was sister of Elizabeth Dabney(Anderson)Winn.

Happy holidays, Irene & fami

Geneva, look at page 6 of "Anderson Fam. Rec. 5." - Our Matthew does not seem to be son of Robert + Elizabeth (Clough) Anderson. The dates do not fit our Matthew. - I worked it out that our Matthew was a bro. to Robert, of

Dear Geneva

Regarding Joseph^5 (David^4) pp. 230, 231, Park/e/s and Bunch(etc.)

I had another letter from Mrs. Keller, in May, in which she lists the chn. of Joseph b. Va. 1749 as :

Tarleton(Tatton")	Anderson	William	Nancy	Another dau?
b. Va 1783		Killed in War 1812. (of 20 Feb)	m. Howard Turner.
Joseph D., M.D. b. ca 1812 in S.C.

And I have re-read your letter/about Joseph's supposed (by us!) chn., Anderson and Andrew. (Supposed-m. Molly Anderson ca 1780)

What we know about (our) Joseph's chn: (from 1800 Edgefield Dist., S.C. and 1810(McClung etc.) Grainger Co., Tenn. (Both, King.)

Three sons--two b. by 1784; one b. 1785-90. On 1800 Cen.
Two daughters--one was b. 1785-90; 1 b. ca 1790/91?
(Both daus. with parents, 1810 Grainger Co., Tenn.
(All sons gone from home before 1810 Census.

The name, Anderson, is logical-the mother's maiden name--tho' Anderson was used in Bunch family,(s/o John^5) before Joseph's marriage. And Joseph^5 did have 2 daus. But I'm not willing to give up David-named for father of Joseph^5-for "William". (And Census shows Joseph^5 with only three sons.)

I can't remember why we thought Anderson was Joseph's son. Is there any reason why "Tarleton" can't take the place of Anderson, as oldest son?? (If married 1780, Joseph^5 could have had a ch. ca 1781.)

She gave no authority for above "brothers and sisters" of Tarleton. I made a chart, showing all the information she gave you and me, through the May letter of this year, and will copy it on Tuesday for you and for her-to correct me if I am wrong in my understanding.

The facts given/for (p. 231) "Andrew", as to his ~~birthdate and~~ marriage date (figured from birthdates of chn.) coincide with that for "Anderson"--so if the name Andrew should have been Anderson, there is no difficulty there. (But there were, still, only 3 sons listed for Joseph^5.) And the age--birth range--is a little different. ~~And~~ But we didn't have a marriage date for "Andrew".

I spent four weary hours on this, yesterday--really the first time I could have done that, and I'm still tired this morning, but making the chart was the only way I could see what it was that Mrs. Keller was saying.

With love

Alice

P.S. That Solomon in Knox Co. Ky is NOT David Bunch's Solomon. His was in Maury Co, Tn. Did I send you his chart? (I can't find it!)

Dearest Geneva:

I have had a housefull of company. my time to work on genealogy, or (and) answer correspondence is limited. But, I have found a little more info + data. Its slow; but I keep digging!! One thing, I've found evidence that my James Scott, and Melvina (Christian) Scott, who was the parents of Winnie Caroline "Catherine" Scott; who m. my g. grandfather, John Henry Bunch, — I believe that ~~my J~~ my James Scott, b. ca. 1806, was the son of William + Priscilla (Bunch), of Bedford Co., Va.; if you have any data at all about the Scotts, of Bedford Co. Va. I will appreciate any info. I believe that Wm., and Priscilla (Bunch) Scott, stopped in Tenn., ca. 1805-1830, before going to Hardin Co., Ky. Some of James Scott's children also went to Hardin Co. Ky., and James Scott may have d. there, ca. 1902.

Also, on my husband's genealogy; his I will send you a chart; perhaps we can help ea. other on the Baker; Johnsons, etc.

from Ky. I know for sure that my (our) Job Johnston (Johnson) was in Laurel + Garrard Co. Ky. in early 1800's. My husband's ~~has~~ grandmothers has ~~a~~ 94 yr. old cousin still living in Madison
Co., Ky. She says look for the Soper's,
Johnson's, Aldridges, etc. (Baker's) in Laurel
Co., Ky. early 1800's. later in Lincoln, Garrard + Madison Co.'s.

I wanted you to know the new developements. My grandmothers may not only be a des. of Joseph^5, but she is (seemingly) a des. of James^4, thru his dau.,
Priscilla. I'm not surprised that John H.,
(b. 1836) + Winney Caroline (Scott) Bunch, was
4th. cousins. There was so much intermarrying!

Please, if you have info, or data for any of our sur-names, do exchange w/ me. We may dig up more info yet!

Yours w/ love,
Irene (Bearden) Keller

P.S. Excuse the messy charts - I just don't have much time. Have you found anything more to indicate who Joseph^5 Bunch's issue was? Or,
(and) Tarletan Bunch's issue?
I. K.

In trying to identify the Bunch's in McMinn Co., Tn., where my g.g. grandmother, Mary Pugh, was born, (dau. of John Pugh, tried for insurrection against the est. Church, N.C.; would have been hung, but his Baptist Brethren got up a petition.), fled to Tenn.) can you help any? There was a Paul Bunch, old enough to be David's youngest son. A Nancy Bunch, both left wills, McMinn, Tenn. If you can help in identifying any Bunch, who has not yet been — Mrs. Parks is publ. another book, w/ corrections, etc. I do so much solicit any + All help.

I. K.

Do you know who the Wm. Bunch was, who was in War of 1812, Grainger Co. Tenn.?

The James Buck, who applied for bounty land, Pope, Ark., must have been Tarleton + Mary's son. I haven't placed any other Bunch in Dickson Co., 1814. Tarlton definitely there 1815.

LIBRARIAN HISTORIAN FRANKFORT, KENTUCKY

Dear Sir:

We are tracing our geneology and are trying to find information about the ancestors of Alice Belle Bunch, born September 11, 1869, at Lovelaceville, Ballard County, Kentucky. Her father was John Bunch, her mother was Cathern (or Catherine) Scott.

The only information I have concerning John Bunch is that his father was a doctor. Do you have records of a Doctor Bunch at or near Lovelaceville, Kentucky between ~~thde~~ the years 1869 and 1900.

Cathern Scott's father was James (Jim) Scott. Her mother was Ruth Ransom. Catherine Scott's second husband was James Morgan.

Children of John Bunch and Catherine Scott were:

Mary Louella Bunch, born 27August 1861, died, Spring 1915; George John Thompson Bunch, no birthdate available, died at the age of sixteen years of pneumonia;
Alice Belle Bunch, born 11 September 1869, living.

Children of James Morgan and Catherine Scott:

Daniel Jackson Morgan, Died at the age of seven, no birthdate;
William Morgan, died at the age of twoyears, no birthdate;
Minnie Mae Mitchell Morgan, believed to have died at the age of three.

Do you have any records concerning any of these people? If you do not have any, can you direct us where we might find them?

We are enclosing a stamped self-adressed envelope and we will also pay any charges if you can help us. We will appreciate anything you can do.

Very truly Yours,
Cora B. Collier

Keep

Louisa Co., Va. Will Book 9, p. 205.

To wife Judith: certain land; certain negroes. (They were m. ca 1783)

To "my son Sam" the following negroes--

All other negroes to be divided equally amongst my daughters Judy Jones, Polly Hope, Elizabeth Eastham and the chn. of my ~~(dec'd?)~~ dau. Clarissa Bunch.

Louisa Co. Marriages:

1. Thomas Jones, m. 11 Nov 1816 Judith Bunch, "over 21, d/o of David".
2. Richard Hope of Fluvanna Co. m. 21 Dec 1819 Polley Bunch, "d/o David".
3. David Eastham m. 11 Nov 1825 Elizabeth Bunch. Samuel Bunch signed. This could be Elizabeth's brother Samuel.
4. Suprey Bunch (s/o Pouncey, David Jr.'s brother) m.(2) 11 Dec 1811 Clarissy Bunch. Samuel and David Bunch signed--Samuel her brother, David her father. Her youngest child was under 16 when David Jr. wrote his will.

(Judith d. before 3 Oct 1839, when sales of "estates of David and Judith Bunch, dec'd" were held).

David refers to his tract of land in Fluvanna Co; his sons-in-law are mentioned by name.

Witnesses were Burwell G. Bunch, James Hughson, and Garland Walker.

Several children of Suprey are identified as his in Louisa Co. Marriages-- the first ones are the children of his 1st wife, but Henrietta Bunch, m. 13 Jan 1840 Garland Walker may have been the dau. of Suprey and Clarissa; David Bunch signed.. Since Clarissa's father referred to her "children", David could have been another child, Henrietta's brother. There is a record of David P. Bunch marrying Jane Jones on 9 Dec 1844--this may be Henrietta's brother David, who was named David Pouncey ? for his two grandfathers--Clarissa's father David and Suprey's father Pouncey.

Did you see my note on the envelope, suggesting Sally Malloy could have been a widow – maiden name Bowles, sister of Judith?

12 July

Dear Geneva

I had to see the dentist this a.m., & since I was going downtown I ~~also~~ did several little errands I had, left over from before – hospital days – When I got back I had FAT MAIL, including your letter – Well, if you don't feel "set down" by the South Carolina episode – as I thought you would be! – I might as well cheer up, too.

I had told Lee that if it were North Carolina, I could see Tenn. as the next stop, but South Carolina?

I'm glad you have so many records from everywhere - something to fall back on, + make falling easy.

Item I. Too bad - Samuel Bunch (m. Marino) died 1869, and "the year 1869 was missing" - from the files of the Bureau of Vital Records at Richmond.

Item II. Yes, Virginia, there was a Richard Bunch! West Va. says,

Certif. of Death of Zachariah Americus ("Amistinus") Bunch : he was b. Louis
Co., Va., (the record said Botetourt) 24 Feb 1848; father, Richard Bunch, b. Va. (county omitted); maiden name of mother, Sarah McClain, b. Goochland Co., Va. Signed - Martha G. Bunch. He d. 14 Feb 1926 of pneumonia.

The other, named (Sarah) Elizabeth McClain was called Elizabeth.

Will work on your papers, + write again later. I want to can chickens, too - + string beans, + corn. No more! P

This is for you to ~~dicide~~ decide about -
I may just SKIP Richard B.'s marriage + clue ??

Correct - only Zach. M. was 12 years old, living with his dec'd father's parents, Cen. 1860, so he could hardly have been ignorant of his father's name.

Dear Mrs. Parks.

Received your card saying that you have proof that there was two Zochariah's (death certif. of Richard) as shown on your charts. I have studied all the information furnished by you and others and I still do not except this as a fact. In fact this could be a clue to some of our troubles. Martha Garland Walker wife of Zochariah Americus gives the name Richard B as the father of her husband. She could also be the source of the information furnished by her grandson Leland Frederick Burch.

Americanus son of Samuel O. died when Zochariah was just a baby. his mother remarried and its doubtful that his father was discussed often by his mother.

Martha wife of Zochariah was the daughter Garland Walker and Henrietta Burch. Henrietta had a brother Richard B which would have been mentioned many times [had other brothers, too] and (no proof) could have raised ~~[illegible]~~ Zochariah through part of his childhood. I have nothing on this Richard B (brother to Henrietta). But all other data listed for Richard B. except for Parents also apply to and match the information shown for Americus F.

As far as the other information I am holding off until I can find out more about Winston who I have thought to be David Winston son of David.④ I know Winston was born 1759 and died 1830 and his wife was Eliza. However you may be right on this one.

Sincerely

Dewitt Bunch

I think this refers to David and Judith —(sorry I didn't make cc of my letter to him). I know I didn't mention "Winston"

WILL OF T. BUNCH

R.H. Bunch (MSS) p.108

GRAINGER COUNTY: TENNESSEE , File 47.

The last Will and Testament, of Thomas Bunch, now departing this life this sixth (6th) day of July 1798.

Being of perfect mind but low in state of health, do ordain this to be my Last Will and Testament.

First, I recommend my soul~~t~~ to God its original giver.

Secondly, Out of the State now in my possession I request that all my Just debts may be paid.

Thirdly, it is my desire that my dear and beloved wife, Jenny, should have the residue of my estate during her widowhood to deal with and direct in a prudent like manner, and should she marry again the estate so left to be equally divided between my three children, Sally, Prior Bunch, and one yet unborn, and I do hereby appoint and Ordain James Ore, my sold Executor of my estate to deal and do with as the law directs, and this my last Will and Testament in Testamony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my Seal the day and date above mentioned as my last Will and Testament.

Dear Mrs. King:

I really enjoyed our phone conversation on the Bunch family. I have tried for 3 months to get your name from the Central New York Geneological Society. I'm excited about the information on Samuel Bunch, that your going to send me. It seems my puzzle is about to go in place. Also thank you, for giving me Mrs. Alice Park's name.

I would like to meet you. Also I think it would be nice if we could get the Bunch Ancestors together for a chat.

When I visited Charlottesville, Va., I was very surprised to find some old photographs. The Bunch family's, characteristics are the same even now a hundred and more years later. I myself think, this is because of the double blood line. (which happened often), making double first cousins.

A little background on me: I'm 32 years old. I've worked on the Bunch lineage for the past 3 years. I'm married to G.R. (Randy) Stubbs and we have a little girl 7 years old named Brandy. We live in South Knox County (Knoxville), Tennessee. We are building our first home (finally) since we've been married, 8 years ago.

There was very little told me on the Bunch family. My Grandfather died when I was 4 years old. His name was Carl Thomas Bunch Sr. He was Chief of homicide detectives, here in Knoxville. His father died when he was a young boy, so he knew little on the Bunch's.

I have always had a strong wanting to know of my family's heritage. I have 150 pages written on the Bunch's, so far. Mostly these ancestors had many children. So as you see this fills many pages. Again, I would like to meet you. Thank you, for helping me.

Your Cousin,

Teresa Bunch Stubbs

Dear Ms. Richards:

In reply to your letter of 30 July 1986, I am enclosing some material from the records of the late, Mrs. Garland (Geneva) King, concerning the family of William Bunch, father of Judy Bunch McDorman. Mrs. King, a cousin of my husband, researched Bunch records for almost 30 years and those records were given to me at her death.

Geneva's work sheets are quite hard to copy since they have faded much over the years, but think you can still use them.

The Bunch Family book by Edward Johnson Bunch (1903-), is an unbound, unindexed manuscript. The first part was written in 1966, with an update done in 1970. It is just a narrative of that branch of the Bunch family in NC and contains no information that I can locate concerning Judy Bunch McDorman. The majority of the manuscript contains obituaries and letters, with very few sources. Edward Bunch apparently Xeroxed a copy to send to Mrs. King.

I have checked through material and letters and the last correspondence I can find between Mr. Bunch and Mrs. King was in 1970, at which time he resided at the following address:

Edward J. Bunch
200 N. Canterbury
Charlotte, NC 28211

The lineage sheet which I am enclosing was taken from the manuscript of Edward Bunch, but again, contains no locations or sources.

When I received your letter, I called my cousin, Verna Rosacrans, of Moxee City, WA., to give her your name since she is a descendent of Judy McDorman, but she told me she corresponds with you at this time.

There is no charge for the copies I am enclosing, but ask that you repay with a family group sheet of the family of Judy Bunch and John McDorman, so that I might assist someone else who inquires about this family. Mrs. Parks refers all names to me now to assist with Bunch information. It would be most helpful to have any information concerning Judy.

Will look forward to hearing again, I am

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mrs. Nunnaly,

I received your name and address from Mrs. Alice Parks when I received her book on the Parks & Bunch families.

I am related through
Wm. Bunch^5 (dau. Judy Bunch), David Bunch^4, John Bunch^3, John^2 and John^1. I was especially interested in any additional information on Wm.^{5} Bunch children especially his daughter, Judy, who married John McDorman. Mention is made of Ed. J. Bunch's book, The Bunch Family but no address is given for this Mr. Bunch. Do you know how I might obtain this book. I know the lineage of Judy Bunch McDorman down to myself, but have not found out too much else.

Thank you,
Dianne R Richards

Dear Mrs. Nunneley:

I really appreciate your reply to my letter and the information you provided. Unfortunately, I believe there is an error in Mrs. King's material regarding the marriage of Delilah Bunch.

I am enclosing a copy of a marriage bond which I made while in Grainger County, Tennessee, which indicates that William Bunch was a bondsman for Claiborne Burnett, and that Claiborne Burnett married Delilah Bunch on 4 August 1809.

I also have a book titled History of Tennessee, 30 East Tennessee Counties, published by the Goodspeed Publishing Company in 1887, which contains the following statement: "C. J. Burnett...was the fourth of eight children..of Claiborne and Delila (Bunch) Burnett. Mrs. Burnett was a cousin of Col. Bunch, the first man to scale the breastworks at the Horseshoe battle, and she was a daughter of David Bunch.

I am also enclosing a copy of a newspaper article published in the Claiborne Progress in Tazewell, Tennessee, which gives considerable background on the Bunch family. From my reading of this, it appears that the David Bunch I am searching for may have been one of the children of David and Mary Bunch (I am enclosing a family group sheet for this couple). Unfortunately, this article gives no details about the marriage or children of David Bunch. I am still hoping to prove that this is the David Bunch who is my direct ancestor and the father of Delilah Bunch.

Finally, I am enclosing some typed notes representing the information I have gathered about David Bunch.

I will appreciate any help you can give me in my search. Perhaps some day, on one of our trips east, my wife and I could pay you a visit and you would permit me to browse through your material on the Bunch family.

Sincerely,

Fred T. Foster

Dear Mr. Foster:

Thank you for the family sheets concerning David Bunch (1722-1776). This helped me locate the David in which you have an interest. I have copied sheets from the notebook concerning this David and his son, David (1759-1834/5).

I really wonder if David (1759-1834/5) can be the father of Delilah for the following reasons:

> Old David died 18 April 1776 in Louisa Co., VA. His will was proven 14 October 1776 in Louisa Co. He left his son, David, 50 acres, among his other bequests. We are sure old David had a son, David.

I believe the following applies to the son David:

> David Bunch died Louisa Co. VA. His will was dated 24 October 1834, > proven 9 February 1835 (Will Book 2, pg 205, David his wife Judith) > David Bunch - taxpayer, 1782
> 1810 tax list
> 1820 and 1830 census

The Grainger David was active on jury duties, road duties, etc., during the same years that the Louisa David was in VA on tax lists and census records - so two Davids.

Enclosed, are copies from Alice Park's revised edition (1982) of the Park/e/s and Bunch on the trail west. I urge your consideration about the idea Geneva King had concerning the David of Grainger Co. (pg 211). She believed that this David was a son of William. If so, the David of Grainger would be a cousin to David (1759-1834/5) of Louisa as their fathers were brothers.

I think a good search for information on this William (son of John^{3}) and his wife, Phoebe might be worth the effort. William was in Louisa in June 1760 - his wife, Feabea, witnessed the will of Gilbert Gibson, Planter.

Haven't helped I know and surely dashed your ideas as to the father of Delilah. Where did she live after her marriage in 1809? Will check the areas for other Bunch connections. This may lead us somewhere.

The copies cost 10¢ per page. It bothers me a little that I work at the library and still have to pay 10¢ - seems employees should get "at cost" which is about 4½ - oh well, guess the machine cost a little.

Will close for now. Please do send your thoughts and any other ideas concerning this David who was the father of Delilah. Note again, page 211 for the line of Col. Samuel.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mrs. Thomas:

I received my July-Aug issue of the Genealogical Helper today and noted your query on page 148 concerning a William Henry Bunch with a brother, Hillary. I have a large collection of Bunch material, the work of the late, Mrs. Garland King of Nowata, OK. Geneva King supplied much of the Bunch material for the book, Park/e/s and Bunch on the trail west. This was compiled by Alice Crandall Park and published by Gateway Press in 1974, with a revised edition published in 1982. Geneva was a distant cousin of my husband, and at her death and as she had requested, the 30 years of research on the Bunch family was given to us.

Although you did not mention any locations or dates for the above mentioned Bunch men, the following could apply:

James Bunch (1789-1867) married Frances Flanagan (1789-1866)

ISSUE:

Hillary Bunch (1813-1877) m Elizabeth Jones
Reuben F. Bunch (1816-1884/5) m Mary Feris
William Bunch (1818- ?) m unknown
Elizabeth Bunch (1820-1912 ?) m George W. Haislip
James Bunch (1824-1892) m Mrs. Hannah McFall Kellum
Suprey Bunch (1821-1872) m Margaret Bell Clark

According to the records of Geneva King, all of the above children were born in Fluvanna Co. VA. They went to the following states: Hillary to Ohio; Reuben probably stayed in Virginia; William may have gone to Iowa and then Arkansas; Elizabeth-no locations given; James to Peoria, Illinois; Suprey to Mississippi.

I am enclosing two blank family group sheets. If you will fill them out with any information you have on William and Hillary, I will check all of the records and try to help. Do let me know how you are related!

My husband's line came from Virginia to Tennessee to Arkansas. He descends from John Bunch who came to Virginia before 3 Mar 1656. This John Bunch was assigned 450 in New Kent Co. VA on 18 Mar 1662 and then begins the Bunch family in America.

Will look forward to hearing from you and will be happy to help your research.

Sincerely,

Mary R. M. Nunneley

SAMUEL BUNCH^4 son of John Bunch^3

As to the order of births of children of Samuel^4 - your list is similiar to mine. I will copy my list for you with my comments on each.

1. Rebecca Bunch^5, b.	c1748/9	- you have everything on her that I do.
2. Judith^5	c1750	- Nothing more on her that is definite. However, Quaker Records, 8-22-1783, Mary ..conived.. daughters marriage. Can find no marriage record this date for dau. of either Mary. (Guesswork).
3. John	c1752	- I still think the John of Grainger Co belongs here - but no proof.
4. Ann	c1754	- Wonder if this is the "Nancy", condemned 1787 at New Garden N.C. MM & reported to Cedar Cr MM.
5. James	c1756	-(Went to Tenn., then to Knox Co., Ky?) If so, had children born 1800-1810. Possible range of children, 1783-1810. A James was in REV War in SW Va, under Joseph Martin, 1777. Seems likely it was this James.
~~6. Samuel Jr~~
6. Samuel Jr	c1758/9	Probate record in Louisa. I think must be this Samuel. Will Bk 3, p.549, 10 Feb. 1794, and page 554, 10 Mch/14 Apr. 1794. Wife Sally named Adm & Appr. of estate. Inv. No children mentioned.
7. Mary (Molly)	c1761	You have everything on Mary that I do.
8. George	c1763	?This the George in Knox Co., Ky, 1800 & 1810? (I think he is MINE.)
9. Charles	c1767	Was in Grainger Co., Tenn, by 1797 Of record there 1797, 1798, 1804, 1812 in Deeds & Minute Books. However, not listed in 1810 census.

Before I forget, I think I gave you some wrong information. Did I say that George Bunch m. Sally Sargent, dau of William Sargent - that they were MARRIED by Martin Gentry? If I did, that was wrong. Martin Gentry was the SECURITY ON THE BOND. Witnesses were James Harris and John Harris. Married 18 July 1788 by Rev. John Lasley.

1810 Census, Knox Co., Ky.

JAMES BUNCH	2 males 0-10	2 females under 10
	2 males 10-16	3 females 10-16
	1 male16-26	1 female over 45
	1 male over 45
GEORGE BUNCH	2 males 0-10	1 female 0-10
	2 males 10-16	1 female 26-45
	1 male 16-26
	1 male 26-45	(I don't know which is Geo. If born 1765 he is
	1 male over 45	26-45 - if earlier he is over 45)
SOLOMON BUNCH	2 males 0-10	3 females 0-10
	1 male 26-45	1 female 26-45

(Solomon was b. c1783 in Va. (1850 census, Whitley Co., Ky) He might have been son of James - but think more likely he belonged to some of the Tenn. family).

As you see, James & George both had sons of exactly the same ages - and BOTH HAD SONS NAMED GEORGE. I THINK I belong to George b. 1763/5. I think I have finally found all of these boys but one who was in the 0-10 group. But still don't know who belongs to whom. One of these days am going to check tax lists in Clay Co. & Knox Co - and maybe can find out more that way. No wills or deeds. I have about run Clerks in Knox & Clay nuts.

SAMUEL BUNCH, THE QUAKER died Louisa Co. Va. 1783

Son of John Bunch, who died prior to 1742. Not mentioned in the deed recorded in Louisa Co. Va. 14 Mch 1742, which names 5 sons of John (d. prior 1742) as John, William, Henry, David and James. But the son John, left a will in Louisa Co. (Book 2, p. 243) in which he mentions "brothers Samuel, David and James"

Samuel Bunch appears in the records of Louisa County, Virginia, as follows:

1767	Samuel Bunch granted 400 acres of land in Louisa County.
16 May 1748	Samuel Bunch & family received in Membership (Quaker Records)
21 Oct 1752	Samuel & Mary Bunch served on committees this year (Quaker Records)
1758	Samuel Bunch Grantee, Wm. Hudson, Grantor. Deed Bk __, p. 283.
11 May 1765	Rebecca Bunch, dau. of Samuel, disowned, married out of unity, by a hirely priest & contrary to commands of her parents. (Quaker Records)
8 Jun 1765	Samuel Bunch cleared self of being involved in marriage "out of unity" of his daughter Rebecca. (Quaker Records)
1767 Land grant
14 Jan 1771	Samuel & John Bunch - road repair work settlement - Samuel ordered to pay John 200 lbs of tobacco as evidence of 10 days at. (Book of Old Orders, 1766-1792, p. 455)
Jan 1773	Samuel & Pouncey Bunch, mentioned in deed. (Bk B½, p.431.)
24 Nov 1774	Samuel Bunch & Richard Morris mentioned in deed. (Deed Bk 3, p.24)
8 Jun 1774	Samuel Bunch named as "brother", will of John Bunch. (Will Bk 2,p.243)
30 Jan 1782	Samuel Bunch made his will. Proved 9 June 1782 (Bk 2, p.474-5)
10 Oct 1779	Samuel Bunch Jr disowned, engaging in military service. (Quaker Records

14 Jul 1787	Molley, dau. Samuel, disowned, non-attendance.
25 Aug 1787	Mary, dau Samuel, of Louisa, disowned.
1777	Samuel Bunch appears on List of Tithes, Frederickville Parish, Louisa Co (2 Tithes - ~~45 acres~~ 450 acres)

Children of Samuel Bunch and Mary his wife:

1. Samuel Bunch (Could this be the Samuel who died intestate c 1793, Louisa Co., Va.,; leaving widow Sally?)
2. George Bunch (probably the George who married Sally Sargent in Louisa Co., Va, 15 July 1788; and sold land there in 1794; probably went to atea of Grainger Co., Tenn. Believed to be same George Bunch living in Knox Co., Ky in 1800 and 1810.)
3. Charles Bunch, probably the Charles Bunch who married Mary Bellamy in Louisa Co., Va 9 Jan 1792; later sold land in that co. in 1794, and possibly the same Charles who is mentioned in early records of Grainger Co., Tenn. This couple are believe to be the parents of:
    1. Nathaniel Bunch, b. 23 Apr. 1793 in Va. ~~2. Charles Bunch~~, M. Sarah Wade Ray 15 Nov. 1810 in Overton Co., Tenn; migrated to northwest Ark.
    2. Charles Bunch, b. c1796, #; mar. Katherine Carlock.
    3. Susan Bunch

5. Judith Bunch
6. James Bunch (believe this to be the James Bunch who went first to Tenn & was living Knox Co., Ky 1800 and 1810)
7. John Bunch (Could this possibly be the John Bunch who was the first of the family in Grainger Co., Tenn?)
8. Rebecca Bunch, mar. ______ Meredith prior to 11 May 1765.
9. Sann Bunch

JAMES BUNCH^5 of Knox County, Kentucky, 1800 & 1810

This James Bunch is believed to be the son of Samuel Bunch^4, the Quaker, of Louisa Co., Va. James was born possibly about 1750.? He may be the James Bunch who was a soldier in southwest Virginia in 1777, and the James Bunch who was granted land in (now) Hawkins Co., Tenn., by the state of N.C. in 1780. The name of his wife is not known. He was living in Knox Co., Ky in 1800 and 1810, and probably deceased by 1820. George Bunch, believed to be a brother of this James, was also in Knox Co., Ky in 1800 & 1810, and each had 5 sons listed in 1810 in exactly the same age range. Nothing has been found to indicate each family. On the basis of what is NOW known, the children of James were possibly:

1. Dention Bunch, b. c1783, m. 6 Sept 1804, Madison Co., Ky., to Isham Boling.
2. Betsy Bunch, b. c1785, m. 20 Sept 1804, Madison Co., Ky., to Boling Baker. Living Chariton Co., Mo, 1830, enumerated next to Stokeley Bunch.
3. William Bunch, b. c1787, Tenn (Age 63 in 1850 census, Walker County, Georgia). Married 28 Jan. 1812, Clay Co., Ky., Ann Benge, d/o David & Lucy Benge. Was in War of 1812, and Cherokee Removal 1838 (Nat'l Archives Records). Known children:
    1. James Bunch, b. c1814, Ky.; m. Susan Tygart; lived Walker Co., Ga.[a]
4. George Bunch, b. c1794; m. 1st, 23 May 1812, Martha Morris; 2nd, 11 Mch. 1819, Nancy Maupin, both mar. in Clay Co., Ky. Known children:

"Upon return of the army to Long Island of the Holston, Col. Christian reorganized same, and for protection of the frontiers, left 600 men at the island under command of Col. Evan Shelby and Major Anthony Bledsoe ....stationed at Long Island and directed Capt. Joseph Martin to proceed to the Rye Cove about fifty miles from the North Fork of the Clinch River with eighty (80) men. The rest of the army was mustered out of service. Capt Martin immediately began the march to the Rye Cove. Upon this march he had to pass through a very dangerous gap, called Little Moccasin where the trail went through a very narrow and deep gorge of the mountain and where the Indians had killed a great many white people. When Captain Martin began the march through the Gap, he had his men in fine order and strung out single file. Just as the head of the column emerged from the narrow file, the whole column was fired upon by the Indians from the top of the ridge, where they were strung out in a line as long as Capt. Martins. As soon as the Indians fired, they ran off, having failed to kill any of Martin's men. But one man, James Bunch, a member of Martin's company, had five (5) balls shot through his flesh, whereby he was rendered incapable of getting a livelihood by labor, and was allowed by the General Assembly of Virginia thirty pounds for his present relief and half pay as a soldier for three years. The Indians having all fled, Capt. Martin proceeded to Rye Cove, where he remained until the first of May, 1777, when he was ordered back to Long Island where he remained until the treaty of peace was concluded between the Indians and the whites, on July the first."

HISTORY OF THE LOST STATE OF FRANKLIN
by Samuel Cole Williams (1933)

Pages 331,332,333,334. Sketch on JOSEPH :MARTIN

Biography written by Stephen B. Weeks "Joseph Martin and the War of the Revolution in the West."

Joseph Martin, of English ancestry was born in Albermarle Co., Va., in 1740, the son of Joseph and Susannah (Childs) Martin. In yrs of boyhood wild and ungovernable...truant from school...apprenticed to a carpenter he ran away with Thomas Sumter, afterward a general in the Revolution, and in 1756 joined the army at Ft. Pitt. Father died in 1760, Martin came into a respectable inheritance and married (1762) Sarah Lucas.. young couple ;moved to Orange Co., Va.

In 1763 made an effort to found settlement in Powells Valley at what has since been known as Martin's Station, on the Ky road 20 miles NE of Cumberland Gap. The plan abandoned a few months because of hostility of Indians. In 1773 moved to Henry Co., Va, and participated as Lt. in Lord Dunmores War, tho not in battle of Pt. Pleasant, Oct 10, 1774. Made 2nd attempt to establish colony in Powells Valley in 1775, as agent of Henderson's Transylvania Co. Failed. Oct 9, 1775, the Va. Co. of Safety made Martin Capt of Militia and he served as such under Col. Wm. Christian in Campaign against the Cherokees in 1776. k At the close of the campaign Capt. Martin was stationed during the winter & spring of 1777 at Rye Cove, on the Clinch River. In April he was transferred to ~~a~~ garrison a fort near the junction of Big Limestone creek with the Nolachucky River on the frontier of Washington Co., N.C. He was in command of troops at the Treaty of Long Island in 1777.

In Nov 1777 he was commissioned by Gov. Patrick Henry agent to the Cherokees in behalf of Va. As such made home and headquarters at Long Island, which continued to be one of his homes for many years. Engaged in efforts to keep Cherokees at peace, Martin was not on expeditions in 1780 to S.C. & Kings Mountain. On Mch 1781 made Lt.Col. of Mil/itia of Washington Co., Va. Martin, along with Isaac Shelby, represented Sullivan Co in the North Carolina Legislature and was Senator in 1783.

In Jan 1783 was appt by Gov of Va as one of 3 Comm. to treat with Southern tribes, John Donelson being another, and in Nov. a treaty was effacted with Chickasaws at Nashville. In May 1783 NC engaged services of Martin as her Agent among Cherokees & Chickamaugas.

In 1787 was Rep. of Sillivan Co in Carolina Assembly, which body elected him Brigadier-General of Washington District. He was Comm Dec 15 1787 and promptly set about negotiating for a cessation of the struggles to establish the State of Franklin. Rep. Sullivan Co in the Convention of 1780 and in the Senate and Conv. of 1789. He aspired to the Governorship of the Terr. South of the Ohio and had support of Patrick Henry but also strong opposition on the part of the inhabitants. Removed to Georgia about this time; there short time. Returning to his home in Va. he was comm. Brigadier-General of the 12th Bridage of Militia by Gov. Henry Lee. ~~W~~Was honored with a seat in the Legislature of his state as long as he thought he was fit to serve. He was a comm. for the survey of the Ky-Va state line in 1795 and for the location of the Tenn-Va boundry line in 1802. Seems not to have figured in public life thereafter, and died Dec 18, 1808.

~~Man~~ Was of rugged vigorous intellect. Possessed considerable diplomatic skill in handling Indian~~s~~ and frontier problems, though more than once conduct colored by self-interest. Many enemies among border leaders, but retained his hold on the people of the counties of his residence. Had the confidence of the Cherokee Indians by whom he was given the name of Gluglu. 6 Ft tall, weight above 200 lbs, reserved & curteous and of great energy & force. * * * * * * * * *

Mrs. Garland B. King
Nowata, Oklahoma 74048

Dear Mrs. King:

When North Carolina decided to honor the claims of the Cherokee Indians, they took back part of the original granted land and the land was then reissued. This must have been the case regarding the land grant to James Bunch, because I looked at grant no. 2225 and we have it as being issued to George Alexander, he being the assignee of Samuel Hays, a Private in the North Carolina Continential Line. The land was located in Sumner County.

Your check in the amount of $1.00 is being returned to you and I am sorry that I could not be of help to you on this matter. However, let us know if we can be of further assistance to you.

Sincerely,

Florence Langford

NAR FORM MAY 61 288

GENERAL SERVICES ADMINISTRATION
NATIONAL ARCHIVES AND RECORDS SERVICE

EXPLANATION OF ORDER FOR PHOTOCOPIES

Please use the other side of this form to order photocopies of records relating to a person who served in the United States or Confederate Armed Forces. We can furnish photocopies relating to the following subjects:

a. United States (not State) pensions claimed on the basis of service before World War I;

b. United States (not State) bounty lands claimed on the basis of service before 1856;

c. United States military service performed after 1774 and more than 75 years ago and Confederate military service. (NOTE - We do not have information relating to military service rendered before the Revolutionary War.)

Send us the completed form with one dollar. If you send more than one form at one time, your remittance should be for as many dollars as you send forms. Each order will be handled separately; so you may not receive all your photocopies at the same time. Be sure to enter your name and address on each form.

If we find a pension or bounty-land warrant application file which we believe relates to the person in whom you are interested, we will send photocopies of the documents we think most likely to be of interest to you. If no pension or bounty-land warrant application file is found, we will furnish copies of the military service record if one is available. If we do not find a file that appears to pertain to the person in whom you are interested, we will refund your money.

The military service records rarely contain family information. Furthermore, the record of a man's military service in any one organization is wholly separate from the record of his service in any other organization. We are ordinarily unable to establish the identity or nonidentity of men of the same name who served in different organizations. If you know that a man served in more than one organization and you desire copies of his military service record, a separate form and one dollar fee should be submitted for the service record in each organization.

Additional copies of this form will be sent to you on request.

Dear Geneva,

I have been getting some new information together and I wanted to pass it along to you.

I managed to obtain this new data from a relative of George W Bunch & Phebe Fox Bunch. I was able to Correspond with a son of Rose Etta Fox and James Riley Bunch (Geo & Phebes 1st son) (Rose Etta had been married before & so had James Riley - in fact James & Rose Etta were 1st Cousins.

First of all, George W. Bunch had 2 sons by his first wife, David and Stokley Bunch, I am sending a family group sheet to show you the corrections and you can add to whatever you would wish. I am in correspondence with some people that are working on the Fox family direct relatives that helped me with this and will send me more later on.

I am interested in your health and what you are doing.

I received the form back from the soundex but the info wasn't to be found that I wanted. It was worth a try. I appreciate the form you sent and learning of this possibility if only to help someone else.

I would love to hear from you when you have the time.

Love,
Dixie Lambertson

Dear Geneva,

You are a fountain of information! I am so grateful for the work and efforts you have spent making up copies for me and believe me, I know none of this can be done without some cost on your part.

I am enclosing a check for $3.00 and, what ever else is involved, please just let me know.

I do have Hattie Johnson's book (in fact 3 copies) of "The other Side of the Mountain."

I would like to have a photo copy of the marriage records of George Bunch & Martha Morris 1812 & George Bunch & Nancy Maupin 1819.

Yes, Geneva, I am a member of the Mormon Church. I would be delighted to represent the Bunch family and the next time I get to Salt Lake I will do what I can to set the records straight. I was at Salt Lake in August + November last year which was the only times I have been there since 1961 and I wasn't a member then. My husband is a very warm, understanding man (and tolerant) but he isn't a member so I do not have the full freedom to exercise my yearnings to go there as often as I would like. - I would let you know when I plan to go the next time and maybe I could help you on the Knapp line.

I wonder if you might have any explanation as to Why George Bunch was 31 in the 1850 Macon County Missouri Census and he was 44 in the 1860 Linn County, Oregon Census - Now it Shows Phebe Bunch as 23 in 1850 + 34 in 1860 which is reasonable because of a birthday taking place + follows through with the youngsters.
I have been inquiring as to the place George + Phebe were married but haven't come up with the town + county or state.
I wrote to all of the places + people you sent me and this will help me to bring more of my work up to date. I don't know what I would have done without your help. (Besides being years behind)

Have you ever tried to obtain a ship log of travel for around that year from either Scotland or England (1635) arriving in Virginia. If not, I will see what I can find out.

Tell me about yourself! How many years have you been working on genealogy? What prompted you to begin? Have you ever sent any work in to Salt Lake? Are you L.D.S., too?

Once again, I will express my gratitude and since I have "temporarily" run out of questions I will close.

Love,
Dixie

My Dear Geneva,

I cant begin to tell you what your letter and all of the information has meant to me. — You have saved me endless years of research. There is always much to do, but I can re-evaluate my work and continue on.

I have copies of some of the family group sheets from the archives but have been led away from them I have relied on The Bunch Family History" to provide me with leads and have spent my time proving through records my information. You have provided me with a real breakthrough because I did not know anything about George Bunchs' family. I didn't know who his parents were so you can imagine how much this helps.

Do you possibly know where John Bunch (born 1635) came from? You mentioned he came to Va in 1652, are they originally from Ireland? England? Do you know the Shire? (If it is where he was from?)

I am going to enclose all of the information I have. I hope it will be of some help to you.

Would you let me know how I can get the book that will soon be published - just let me know and I will mail you the money plus postage.

I am very sorry to hear you and your husband haven't good health. I would so love

You Clarified David Bunchs' birth by a 1st marriage between George Bunch + Narcissa Moxley. I recently ordered an 1860 Oregon Census as I have many relatives in Oregon to look for many things. It has not come yet, so it must be on loan, I will have to wait a little longer.

After George died in 1867 - Phebe remarried a man named Andrew Anderson. I looked up a 1870 census + found them and they still had some of the younger children at home. In fact the census showed Rachel Melvina as Richard M. age 6 male - same age (6 years) so I know it was wrong.

Here is a copy of the Oregon Donation Claim George + Phebe had in Oregon loaned me the Family of Bunch History to copy. She is a very warm and wonderful person. My husband & I plan to visit with her again sometime next summer.

I would love to correspond with you, anytime you might have, I would be grateful to hear from you

God Bless You,
Dixie Lambertson

to meet you. - You would have a Geneologists dream come true to go to Salt Lake. I plan to go next spring, The Lord willing, and do more follow up work. I went in Aug + November of this year - We are about 600 miles + its pretty easy to drive in one day but we have lots of winter weather + I Cant always get away any time I want, I would just be in heaven to move there + devote my time to learning all I can about Genealogy. I am struggling to teach it in Sunday School as there is so much to learn.

As you can see, I am from Rachel Melvina (Amanda's Sister). I met Hattie Johnson + she

December 4, 1974

Dear Mrs. King,

I am writing to inquire about the binder that was compiled on the "Bunch Family" that was sent to Hattie Johnson.

I have information that could be added to that book and I wanted to also find out if there has been any current information found that you could share with me.

I am a relative of Hattie Johnsons and I am trying to tie my line in with yours which I feel I am only a step away from doing so.

I am enclosing a sheet with information on it. I would like to offer any help I can, please feel free to ask.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Paul Lambertson

I have been to the Archives in Salt Lake City and have found many more names that I haven't established any relationship to George & Phebe.

Mrs. Amanda Noah of Allegany is a southpaw, but that doesn't interfere with her aim. This pioneer has trapped, hunted, fished and worked hard almost all of her 94 years. — World photo by Grace Thill.

'Well, I Had To Kill The Bear Afore It Killed Me,' Relates Hardy Pioneer

By GRACE THILL
Women's Editor, The World

In a cozy home perched on a hillside at the end of the road on the East Fork of Millicoma River lives a tiny mite of a woman who typifies the old saying, "Dynamite comes in small packages."

Mrs. Amanda Noah, a native of Josephine County who celebrated her 94th birthday anniversary in January, has been an expert marksman, trapper and hunter throughout her busy life of rearing a large family under the difficulties imposed by a pioneer life.

One of the favorite tales of her family is the one in which Mrs. Noah was out in the woods hunting. As she came to a log chute, used by loggers to move logs down hill, she rested a moment with her chin resting on crossed arms atop the chute. To her surprise, a bear's snout reared up on the opposite side. She brought her gun up, shoved it over the chute and fired.

Kill It First

"Well, I was right on top of that bear, and I had to kill it afore it killed me," she casually dismisses the incident.

The nearly a century-old story of Mrs. Noah begins Jan. 16 1868, when she was born in Josephine County about 14 miles from Grants Pass near the Oregon Caves. She was the daughter of George W. Bunch and Phoebe Fox Bunch, who came by wagon train across the plains to the Oregon Territory in 1852.

She married Theodore Devoe at the age of 16 years. To them were born four children, Mrs. Maud Cook, now living in Arcata, Calif.; Mrs. Emma Sylvester, Coos Bay; Walter Devoe, Allegany; and Pearl, deceased. She was left a widow with four small children when her husband died in an epidemic in the East, where he had gone to find work.

Mail Driver

During the years that followed, she and her children lived with her mother. Mrs. Noah helped her stepfather drive the mail team from Jacksonville to the Coquille Valley.

She came to Coos County in 1896 and two years later married Fred Noah, who died four years ago. The four children of this union are Mrs. Hattie Johnson, Bridge; Fred A. Noah, Lakeside; Lewis J. Noah, Millicoma River; and Mrs. Amanda E. Bellington, Empire.

Mrs. Noah was a good hunter and trapper, taking many furbearing animals and several bears while her husband was logging. She hauled all supplies for the log camp and loaded hay for the log teams. She ran a string of traps and raised a large garden each year to provide the family's winter supply of food.

Zula Is Favorite

Her keen hunting eye never lost its sharpness. At the age of 85, picnicking along the Millicoma with her family, she fired at leaves drifting on the surface of the water and hit three out of four. Her favorite gun is an old 38-40 that she affectionately calls "Zula."

Four years ago she still was making her own way by peeling chittum back. On one trip to town to sell her wares at Farr's, she was noticed by a customer. Amazed to find a woman of her years actively engaged in such hard work, he paid $10 for the packet of bark which was worth only a fraction of the price.

Trunk Is Hiding Place

A memento of her family's trip across the plains, an old trunk which had been in her possession, now rests in the Coos-Curry Pioneer Museum, Simpson Park, North Bend. The trunk was handmade, covered with buffalo hide and lined with paper. It belonged to Mrs. Noah's Grandmother Fox, who died near the Snake River in Idaho, en route to Oregon. When fearful of Indian attack, Mrs. Noah's mother would hide her younger children in the trunk.

Mrs. Noah's father was captain of the wagon train, which did not make the trip unscathed. She retains a vivid memory of her father's tales of the journey, including an attack on the train by Indians.

Graceful Retirement

Now retired from her active physical life, Amanda Noah greets her guests with a gracious welcome. The beauty of face displayed in her wedding picture has not been entirely lost to the years, and her humorous wit still twinkles in her eyes. A dainty woman, she wears her hair in a upsweep coiffure, held in place with rhinestone adorned combs, and circlet earrings sparkle on her ears.

A warm invitation to return is given the departing visitor, as Mrs. Noah waves farewell from her porch.

The sound of wind sweeping through the tree tops and the roistering Millicoma River with its rain-swollen current form a perfect backdrop for this pioneer woman who is part of the history of Southern Oregon.

la Takes 6 Babies' Lives In New York present, a hospital spokesman reported. He said it would take possibly 48 hours before a full report is made to the coroner.

Three of the infants who died were boys and three were girls. Two were eight months of age and the others born during the past two weeks.

In 1959, the city-owned hospital came under investigation when a woman cancer patient died from an alleged overdose of radiation. The hospital was then known as Binghamton City Hospital. Two staff members were suspended at the time, but later reinstated after a public hearing.

An official of the Broome County Medical Society said today the hospital has undergone a complete staff change since the radiation incident.

Show No Symptoms

The first death attributed to the faulty formula was that of the four-day-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker of Binghamton. The infant died Friday. Another child died later in the day and four others on Saturday, officials said.

A hospital spokesman said it had not been fully determined whether all ten infants now under close observation had been fed salt instead of sugar in their formulas.

"While they are ill, they have shown no signs or symptoms which are peculiar to sodium intoxication," he said.

The infant victims, in addition to the Walker child, were identified as:

Randy Allen Mower, 3 days, son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Mower of Corbettsville; Kathryn Fleming, 8 months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Fleming of Port Dickinson; Glenn Stewart Jones, 8 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jones of Binghamton; Lisa Marie Bealo, 7 days, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bealo of Binghamton; and George McPeek, 7 days, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerard McPeek of Binghamton.

Editor's Note: This story is written in long-ago language—because no other can describe better Sara's resignation, Phoebe's quiet courage and the yearning of Big George's brave and determined heart for some timber and a patch of damp earth.

THE OTHER S

A MIXED CROWD of perhaps ninety or one hundred men, women, and children jostled one another as they tried to find more comfortable standing room near a speaker who stood slightly above them on a rough board bench. He was a colorful and picturesque figure standing there so straight and tall, dressed in a white shirt, stiff starched collar, black bow tie, and striped vest and pants. His black hair, sideburns and handlebar mustache glistened blue-black in the sun. In one hand he held a black plug hat. It waved to and fro as he gestured excitedly with arms spread wide above his head. What he was talking about was a promised land across the desert plains.

Most who listened were farmers, their wives and children. The men stood bareheaded, holding in toil-roughened hands their dirty, sweat-stained work hats. Many wore faded and patched blue bib overalls over figured, home-sewn shirts. All wore barn boots. Women were dressed in calico prints of Mother Hubbard style, with black cotton or knit stockings and high buttoned shoes. Children were shushed quiet while the people listened intently to Mr. Green's oratory. At times his voice rose, almost to a screech, and then it would drop low; when low the men seemed to lean forward in their eagerness to catch every word.

"Ladies and gentlemen, I tell you only of facts which I know to be true about Oregon. Folks, all red-blooded Americans would wish to settle there if they could but see and know the advantages of doing so. Gentlemen, heed what I have to say and go, folks, go. Go while the land is still unsettled, so that you may select a place of your choice to pioneer yourselves a home.

"You have nothing to lose and much to gain. Go where mountains are covered with tall timber, where there are rivers and streams, where lakes both big and small lie teeming with fish, where game is for the taking, and fur bearing animals can be caught for their pelts.

"Go where the coastline stretches for miles and there's plenty of rich soil waiting to be turned into farms. Yes, folks, go and pioneer yourselves a home. I know your question is—are there not hostile redmen to be encountered, are not the desert plains hazardous to cross, will not we suffer from lack of fresh water? Well, my answer is yes.

"Yes, folks, you may encounter both friendly and hostile Indians. The desert is long and hot. But no man should hesitate or refuse to fight for that which he wants. Folks, if you encounter friendly Indians, then you must keep them so; fulfill their demands, if possible. If you encounter hostile Indians and they come fighting, men, you must meet them fighting. You must fight like hell. I say do not try to cross the desert in a small group, but organize. Gather together and form a body so large that, come what may, you can overcome and withstand any hardship or obstacle. You must be well prepared, have many guns and much ammunition. Teach every woman and child old enough to load, sight and fire a musket. You will need good oxen and horses and sturdy wagons. You will need many men with strength and determination, and above all you will need men with guts, plenty of guts."

Among those listening stood a tall, lean, work-hardened man. His dark hair waved slightly where combed back from a high forehead. Grey eyes glistened and his square jaw set more firmly as he listened to Mr. Green's speech. His name was George W. Bunch.

By his side stood his wife, Phoebe, her sunbonnet barely reaching George's shoulder. Phoebe's pretty face mirrored worry and concern as she studied her husband's intent expression—for she knew, without a spoken word, that George would go to the land across the plains. She knew he would, come hell or high water. The worry was for her mother, Sara, who stood nearby holding to the hands of Phoebe's and George's two youngest sons. Their eldest son, David, stood beside his father.

PHOEBE could not keep her mind on the speech. How could she leave her widowed mother behind to worry and grieve for her and the boys? It was a settled fact in her mind that George would go, for had not she heard him say many's the time after a hard day's work under the hot sun that he would give anything to own a place where there was mild climate and water? His words had been, "What I'd give, hon, for a place where a cool stream flowed, so I could lie on my belly and drink long of clear water, and have trees where I could lie on my back in the shade to rest."

George longed for a place where he could plant seeds in damp soil and see them grow to be harvested, instead of standing by helplessly watching dust storms or hopper pests destroy what little crops he could raise. He had even declared that if he had a stream of swift running water, he would be so glad for it that he would open all the spigots and watch the water run riot and cut rivulets through his land—and laugh as it did so. Yes, Phoebe knew George would go to Oregon.

It was not until Green finished the speech and hopped down from the bench platform that George seemed to realize ing from the cluster of buildings he knew were deserted. Edging his way in closer his blurred eyes caught sight of women in hoop skirts and men wearing embroidered vests and slouch hats.

Right off, as he came to the Bale of Hay Saloon, he was well aware of recognizable sounds coming from a long dead past. Yet, as always, he was quick to take full advantage of any opportunity that came his way. So without further thought, he pushed his way through the swinging doors, crossed the floor bowing to the ladies as he passed, stepped up to the shining brass rail and with a slight tremble in his voice said, "Gimme some Old Crow."

Without knowing it, old Si Slater had stepped plumb in the middle of the full realization of Charlie Bovey's dream. It was home-coming week for Montana Pioneers who had selected Virginia City for their annual convention.

TODAY, WHEN you step out of your car and stroll down the wooden sidewalk in the restored section of town you feel like you are walking through the pages of history come-to-life, so realistic is the scene. The show-window of a small jewelry shop invites you to come in and see the latest timepieces just in by stage from the East. Next door, a peep through the curtains of a dressmaker's shop reveals a fitting of a high-fashion gown with bustle and stays. In the barber shop, the setting is correct in every detail, down to the cut hair on the floor, posters of burlesque queens on the walls, and a stack of Police Gazettes.

For those interested in early-day transcontinental travel, a visit to the Wells, Fargo office puts you right back into that time. Outside, the stage is all hitched up with horses rarin' to gallop off. You can take a ride around town and up to Boot Hill on regular scheduled runs, to get the feel of rocking leather suspension.

Inside the Express office, the floor is stacked with leather-bound trunks and suitcases, special packages of vital supplies, packs with gold pans, picks and shovels attached, along with steel strongboxes. At the counter, two dancehall girls in traveling clothes are trading a poke of gold to the mustached clerk for a ticket to their next engagement.

Back in the far corner, a Pony Express rider, fringed buckskin jacket and all, is busy making out his report which includes sighting two small parties of Indians in the distance, along the trail.

When a woman walks into the general store, she steps right into her great-grandmother's high-buttoned shoes for an 1870 shopping tour. Everything is arranged as it was about a century ago.

You can imagine yourself getting together a winter's supply of staple foods, then looking over some hand-operated appliances and luxuries such as a fluting iron, fancy hanging kerosene lamp, spinning wheel, butter churn, or a talking machine.

Meantime, the man of the house can be picking out a new corn planter, an ox yoke, some steel cut nails, horseshoes, harness, a wagon jack, scythe and pitchfork—and a gold pan just in case he got the urge to try his luck.

A look at the price tags reveals that they were not far off from present-day costs. Everything was high and hard to come by. Goods had to be freighted by ox teams hundreds of miles from the head of navigation on the Missouri or from round-the-Horn steamers at San Francisco.

Going on down to the end of the block the trail leads into the re-stocked Bale of Hay Saloon where you can take on some refreshments and relaxation. Before you get there, you are almost knocked over by the blasts of sound coming through the windows and swinging doors. Charlie has filled the front room with a wild assortment of coin-operated music makers. Included are player pianos, hand-cranked street organs, music boxes and and a four-piece orchestra monstrosity which does its stuff for a twenty-five cent piece.

In the rear adjoining room the long elaborately decorated mahogany bar serves straight whiskey and pop, and at the drop of a nickel you can have a private front row seat at thrilling melodramas as you peer down into the eyepiece of an old "Nickelodia," forerunner of the flickers.

But for a real taste of live play-acting with its pathos, suspense and thrills engage a seat at the Opry House where the Virginia City Players put on regular shows. You can hiss the villain or cheer the hero as the plot unfolds. These hair-raising, tear-jerking plays usually are packed full of belly-laughs for today's audiences. Long-time favorites such as, "Ten Nights in a Bar Room," "The Demon Barber of Fleet Street" and "Miriam's Crime" packed many a house way back yonder and still do today.

NO STAGED dramas, however, are the scenes of frontier days which Charlie Bovey has brought back to life. They are the real thing, uncovered from obscurity and put back in place piece by piece. There is no feeling of being in a museum when you step from lower Wallace Street into a building properly furnished with the things which great-grandfather took as a matter of course.

Much praise and honor has been heaped upon Bovey for his vision and restoration work. Many former skeptics now allow that, "Bovey has done more to preserve Montana history than any other man before him." Many pioneers wrote their names in history by helping to win the West; Charles Bovey got his there by helping to preserve what they built.

that his wife stood by his side. Grasping her hand tightly, he smiled and asked, "Did you hear what Mr. Fancy-pants said, hon? That's for us! Yep, that's for us. I'd go to hell for good land and a home for my family, where I could see my horses fat for once, where their ribs would be covered and not stand out beneath the skin like washboards the way they do now."

No further words were spoken as they made their way through the crowd to where their wagon and horses waited. George helped Phoebe, Sara and the boys up into the wagon, then loosed the tie ropes from the scrubby cottonwood tree, climbed upon the front seat beside Phoebe, flipped the leather lines, called "Haw, giddup!" and they were moving. As horses and wagon slowly circled the milling audience, George noticed small groups huddled together here and there. He knew they were discussing the possibilities of a wagon trip across the plains and wished he had tarried to talk with them.

As the wagon rumbled along home over the rutted, dusty road, Sara spoke to those on the front seat. "Well, children, what did you think of that city slicker's tall speech?"

Phoebe, glancing at George, answered, "I don't believe he is a city slicker, Mother. I think he is a well read and experienced gentleman, and, if what he says is true, that land across the plains must indeed be a wonderful place.

"But don't you go worrying, as no one is going to go traipsing to a new land until they know the facts and what they be about. People with sense will think a long time before taking Mr. Green's advice."

George seemed to grow inches taller as he squared his shoulders and sat more straight. Then he spoke, not just to Phoebe, but to all in the wagon. "I'll tell you for certain, no one needs to think long to know that if that Oregon country is half as good as he says, it's a sight better place to be. And I'm going to do a heap of thinking about it and just maybe some doing, too. If that country has timber and lakes then there's got to be rain and water. Where there's land and water, then, with work, one can grow seeds. So it sounds good to me. You bet your britches I'm going if others do."

That night, long after the family had gone to sleep, George and Phoebe lay wide-eyed and whispered about the new land and if they should risk their lives to try to go there. Warm tears fell upon George's shoulder as Phoebe confessed, "I do want to go, but we can't leave Mother behind. She would want to go and I will need her when my time comes."

George knew Phoebe was afraid and he was quick to compromise. Sara might go along, he promised, if she could be made to understand she must leave her belongings and take only the most needed clothing. Space and weight would be a problem.

When Phoebe told her mother the next morning of their decision and asked if she wished to come along, Sara, who was sweeping the floor, dropped the broom, then sat down, crying, "Oh, God, have mercy upon us. I was afraid of this."

For a long time the two women remained silent. Then Sara said in a low voice, "Well, child, if it is to be so, of course I want to go, but it's going to be hard for one so old."

IN THE days that followed—perhaps to dull the despair she felt at leaving her old home—Sara tried to do more than her share toward preparing for the journey. She carded wool and sat at the wheel long hours spinning yarn and rolling it into huge balls to carry along. She wove warm scarfs and knitted sweaters and socks for each of the family. Sara stood by as George slaughtered their flock of ducks and chickens; then she gathered up and washed the most downy feathers and fashioned soft tick mattresses of them.

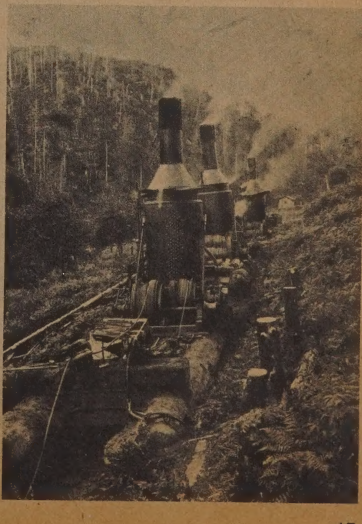
George was so busy he spent little time at home. Traveling about he met with groups of men wherever and whenever possible to discuss fixing covered wagons and trading stock. Farmers traveled from far and near by surrey, wagons, buggies and on horseback to meet at town halls, country stores, home gatherings, barn dances or in parks—just anywhere a group could assemble. They discussed how best to prepare food so that it would keep in a hot climate; how best to carry the water supply; what was essential to take and what they could get along without; how many horses and wagons would be necessary for each family.

The men located as many good guns as possible and traded for or bought as many as they could. A gun club was formed and the members practiced shooting until it was said they could "hit a gnat's eye at fifty paces." Young folks and women were taught to shoot. Ladies who had always been so timid and afraid of rifles that they would scurry away with fingers stuck in ears lest they hear the loud report, now stood staunchly, lifted the heavy muskets, sighted and discharged them. Even when knocked backward or to the ground from the kick of the fired muskets, they got up determined to shoot again.

Early spring was the time selected to start the journey. The whole community was busy getting things in order. Men sold their homes, sold or traded cattle and horses, bought new wagon covers and made them fast to the beds of their heavy wagons. They cut and sewed heavy canvas to fit the frames, making them into homes for travel. Hooks, pegs and nails were driven into the outside on which to hang numerous needed articles.

Beefs were slaughtered, and meat dried or smoked and sacked. Pigs were killed and the pork made into hams, bacon sides, salt pork and sausages. Grease and tallow were poured into wooden tubs. Fruit was dried on racks beneath the sun.

Below, the sheep shed built in 1865. At right, steam donkeys on the move out of woods.



Corn and beans were left to mature and harden on the stalks and vines, then packed dry in rags. Carrots, parsnips, turnips and rutabagas were shredded, dried and sacked. Spices of all kinds were put into packages. Tubs of honey, sacks of wild rice, brown sugar and white, were a must.

Oxen and steers were taught to wear the yoke, pull together and obey orders. Horses were tied fast to the tail ends or wheels of wagons for a time so they could get used to seeing the white canvas covers. Hammocks were fashioned of rope and canvas and made fast to swing at the top of the wagons for use as the youngsters' beds. Light wooden frames were tacked together, set lengthwise inside the wagon beds and made fast there to hold feather ticks and wool mattresses for adults.

Women molded long tallow candles, boiled tubs of lye soap, packed compact boxes of medical supplies of the day such as quinine, turpentine, alcohol, camphor gum, whiskey, goose grease, ginger root, tansy, sage, cascara bark, pine pitch, horehound, flax seed, asafoetida, coal oil and pine tar. They gathered up bleached squares of cloth, strips of linen and linsey and flannel, an assortment of knitting needles, hairpins, curling irons, lamp wicks, corset staves, shoe buttons, button hooks, safety pins and straight pins.

As departure time grew closer, George Bunch tried to prepare Phoebe, Sara and the boys for what they might encounter while crossing the plains. And he cautioned them about what to do in case of Indian attack. Phoebe could not visualize hostile Indians bent on mutilating good people and said as much. She laughed at the idea of Indians scalping anyone, saying, "George, I don't think they would do it, as they too, are human. I am not afraid of Indians but I fear the wild animals and rattlesnakes. And most of all I worry about how we will carry water enough for our needs."

THE TICER family lived not far from the Bunch property. The two families had been inseparable friends for many years. Both were poor but honest people. The Ticers, having had a long streak of bad luck were poorer than the Bunches who, over a number of years, had saved up a little money. Both men had heard Mr. Green's speech but had talked little about it.

Now the Ticers and Bunches met and George asked, "Well old pard, are you getting ready for the trip?"

Ticer looked sad as he shook his head and answered, "The Lord knows, George, I want to go, but I just can't make it. I guess there's no use me getting my hopes up 'cause I just can't make it. My family's too large and my horses too poor and George, I ain't got a red cent to my name. Mommie and I, we've talked it over and we know we can't go now, so we prayed to God that someday we might make it there and join you somewhere."

George was sorry for his friend, but if Ticer said he couldn't make it, he couldn't. So George went about his usual duties farming and tending stock. He shod all the horses and trimmed their manes and tails. It was near spring, time to start the trip, before they realized it. Soon there were but two months left before departure time.

The Bunches were early risers, being up each morning before complete daylight. One morning as George sat at the kitchen table beside two flickering candles waiting for his breakfast, both he and Phoebe were startled by someone's heavy footsteps on their porch crossing to the kitchen door.

There was no knock but the door was opened, and there framed in the doorway stood Ticer. His eyes were red-rimmed and his face showed signs of a sleepless night.

Without even a greeting, he said, "George, oh George, you just can't do it!"

George realized his friend was grieved and worried, so rose from his chair, crossed the kitchen and stood facing his visitor. The two toil-worn old friends stood there for a moment and tears dropped to their chests. Then to cover the embarrassing situation, George slapped Ticer on the back, saying, "Well, hell, come on in! Sit and have a bite and we'll talk it over."

Mother Amanda Noah, aged 94 years, (author's mother) seated beside old cast iron stove and rocking chair used more than a century.

Amanda Ellen, youngest daughter of Phoebe and George Bunch. Died at age 94 on June 26, 1962.

So the two sat at the breakfast table across from each other and after they had eaten Phoebe's griddle cakes and hot coffee, George promised to help Ticer financially and told him, "I'll get you a new wagon, four horses, canvas for wagon covers and will help you fix up your wagons."

Ticer was worried about the short time left to prepare, so George, Ticer and their friend Williamson got busy at once. The Ticers worked night and day and were ready to take their place along with other friends and relatives when the wagons rolled.

Among those traveling together were the Bunches, Ticers, Porters, Foxes, Parkers, Smiths, Hollands, Browns, Nelsons, Goulds and Williamsons. The day of departure was a day of sadness for all. Ladies' handkerchiefs were soggy from tears as handshaking, farewell kisses, and goodbyes were bade to those who stood left behind. They waved and watched as the caravan moved slowly away from the Missouri soil. It seemed unreal, like some sort of dream, for never before had any of them seen such a large group of persons together at one time or so many wagons and horses. To those watching the white canvas-covered wagons moving away in an uneven line with the early morning sunrays upon them, it resembled a long chain of glistening jewels stretching into the distance. They stood sadly until the train was obliterated by the billowing dust clouds rising behind.

HORSES not used to the bobbing white canvas and all the noise so near their ears were nervous and hard to manage. They snorted and lunged at times and could not be kept in a straight course. The ox teams at first refused to budge and had to be encouraged with the goad stick. Then, once they did move, they moved fast, one pulling in one direction, the other pulling opposite, unmindful of the drivers' orders. So the first few days' travel was one of disorder, hard on both beasts and men.

May Bunch posed for a Marshfield, Oregon, photographer in 1886.

Progress was slow, for both the horses and oxen went where and at what speed they wished until they were thoroughly tired out by their own behavior and seemingly realized they should pull together and obey commands. The milch cows and other animals made fast at the rear ends of wagons began to lead as they should instead of making it difficult for both themselves and the horses by bracing themselves against their lead ropes.

Family sleep wagons were much lighter than the supply wagons, so horses were changed from lighter wagons to the more heavily loaded twice daily. The scouts and horseback riders who rode alongside the moving wagons often pointed and chuckled with amusement as they studied the many bobbing, bumping articles fastened to the outside of the wagon beds, some hung on wooden pegs, some on nails, others on wire line or hemp ropes. This array consisted of washboards, copper boilers, lanterns, picks, pitchforks, shovels, hand axes, handsaws, cross-cut saws, jack screws, chains, brush knives, scythes, horse collars, extra harness, rubber boots, raincoats, rolls of canvas, tea kettles, water buckets and cast iron kettles.

As the wagons rolled, their iron-rimmed wooden wheels sent small particles of gravel flying to each side. Dust billowed high in the air and drifted back so that those traveling at the rear suffered from the dust and were forced to tie damp cloths or 'kerchiefs over their noses and mouths. The oxen traveled more slowly than the horses so the horse-drawn wagons were forced to stop now and then and wait for the ox teams to catch up before moving on.

The first few hundred miles were covered with little serious difficulty because fresh water was plentiful. There were scrub brushes and grass for cattle feed. Around camp each evening children romped and laughed as they played "drop the hanky," "tag," "hide and seek" or "leap frog." Men and women who had carried along musical instruments brought them forth and everyone joined in singing. Wagon travel seemed to be an exciting event for children, but it was a time of adjustment to a new way of life for the women, although not too strenuous an effort for the men.

OVER THE next few weeks, travel conditions and the rate of advance didn't vary much. There had been a few childbirths and some of the children had been sick with colds, sore throat, earache or toothache, stomach disorders or some other minor ailment but no serious sickness or deaths had occurred. But after a month, the situation seemed to change almost overnight. The terrain became rocky and hard to travel. The flat land lay mile after mile with no green grasses or shrubs to be seen, just tumbleweeds and sagebrush. One could gaze as far as the eye could see, and see the land level. It was a hot desert plain where everything was burned dry and dead, and in the far distance a lavender mist met and blended with a gray sky.

The sun's rays were merciless on the caravan, blistering arms and faces of the weary travelers. Cattle walked with mouths open, sweat dripping from their moving bodies. Horses and oxen tired and slowed their pace. There were frequent rest stops for the teams and cattle, but no relief for those riding beneath the canvas wagon covers. Not even a tiny breeze could get through. Babies beat with tiny red fists, screaming; children wiped tears from flushed red cheeks and begged mothers to "Go home, Mommy, please go home." In their misery they did not seem to realize that to go home was an impossibility.

The dust which now rose continually and must be breathed was part alkali. Worry and the heat caused mothers to become quick tempered. Even the younger persons showed the strain of travel and hardship. Men tried to be brave, face the sun, and not show their discomfort. But their concern about their stock, their families' short water supply, and slow progress showed plainly.

Graves and tombstone of pioneers George and Phoebe Bunch

Most men walked as much as possible to save the strength of the animals pulling the wagons, and they continued to walk beneath the hot sun even when their feet were so blistered they limped as they made their way along. Water was carefully rationed and so was the grain.

During the night, the coyotes howled, and there seemed to be rattlesnakes between every layer of rock outcropping and beneath each sagebush. Children were taught to look well before stepping, and were kept near the camp. Dogs were trained to bark if snakes, porcupines, or other animals came near.

There were no trees or heavy brush for firewood to be found anywhere, so women made their way cautiously among the rocks picking up and placing buffalo chips in their aprons. The dried foods had held out well but the people yearned for fresh meat. Snares were fashioned to catch jack rabbits and some were caught, but it was discovered they were wormy and not fit for food.

Scouts had discovered no sign of the redmen as yet—neither had they found sign of buffaloes or water. For days they had been searching for any indication of a seepage or underground spring. At night while people tried to get needed rest, their horses trampled round and round, and snorted to free their nostrils of crusted alkali dust. Cattle milled and pawed the dry earth within their makeshift corrals. Eventually, some of the stock had to be butchered to supply badly needed meat, and the blood, even though taken warm, provided a bit of moisture and helped conserve what little water was left.

One day in the late afternoon, scouts rode in to report the first indications of Indians. They had come upon the site of a massacre. The signs were old but told a frightening story. Wagon tracks and a bit of cloth from some woman's or child's dress had been discovered. They followed as best they could the faint wheel marks in the desert ground. Then there before them lay scattered about the skeletal remains of humans and horses. The people appeared to have been scalped. There were six wagons—some upright and some overturned—but no signs of saddles, bedding, clothing or other usable objects were left. The Indians had fared well for it was believed there had been more cattle and horses than those few which had been killed. When this news spread through the caravan, the women looked stunned. Only then was the danger of the redmen being considered a fact.

According to the scouts, this gruesome scene was directly ahead, so the wagon masters ordered a change of route. Stern notice was given to keep all fires small, and to make no undue noise while camping at night. Extra scouts were put on patrol. Some were assigned to watch for Indians, others to continue the search for water. All men loaded their muskets and placed them where they could be handy in an emergency. The women and children became very quiet, expectant and listening; each time a coyote howled or a dog barked, they grew tense with fear.

One young woman became so frightened and upset, she gave birth to her baby two months prematurely and, as hard as Dr. Barnes and Sara tried, they did not succeed in saving its life. The tiny body was wrapped in a shawl and by candle and torchlight it was laid to rest beneath rocky soil not far from the camp. The sad sick mother rode on in the covered wagon over the rough trail the next morning.

THIS NEXT day seemed to be one of good luck for the caravan, for a scout found a water spring. It was little more than a seepage in a low sink, but a hole was dug which soon filled with water, and near the dampness grew tall tufts of coarse grass, green weeds and sagebrush. About the same time, some of the other riders sighted fresh buffalo sign. For the first time in days the Missourians felt they could relax and enjoy camp. If buffaloes were near then the redmen must be at a distance. Indians killed and frightened buffaloes so that signs of both were not fresh at one place long.

Camp was made for several days. Men rode out early on a hunt and brought meat back to camp on the backs of their ponies. It was a time of rejoicing for all as the huge iron kettles hung over the fires and bubbled. The aroma of buffalo stew filled the air, and children clapped hands, skipped, and squealed with glee as they watched their fathers scrape away the coals and remove a huge chunk of buffalo meat roasted to a turn. From the layers of paper and crusts of mud, the meat rolled out steaming and was torn apart while almost too hot to touch.

Much meat was smoked or roasted for future use. Horses and cattle drank their fill and browsed, even of the sagebrush. So all were rested and filled when they proceeded on their journey, and there was enough fresh water on hand for some time.

During the following weeks, camp was made on open plains with as short a stop at night as possible. Children were tiring of the day in, day out, week in, week out, month in, month out traveling, and were restless and fretful.

Just before water was rationed again, a stream was located. Between rocky outcroppings, scrub cottonwood trees, willows and buffalo grass grew in a ravine. The stream was small but afforded plenty of fresh water, and there was a good camping flat nearby. In order to get the wagons here, the drivers had to detour around rock ledges and zigzag around deep sink holes. One scout gathered wood and dug a waterhole while the other returned to the caravan to guide it to the camping spot. Traveling near the sink holes was a dangerous undertaking as the ground seemed to have given way from the natural hard dry surface and just dropped straight down to depths of six to ten feet. Some of the sink holes were ten to fifteen feet across.

It was while making their way over this uneven terrain that Phoebe was caught with severe pains. Dr. Barnes was called and predicted to George and Sara, "I believe she will deliver by midnight."

That evening he sat in the wagon beside Phoebe while Sara cooked the evening meal; then Sara took over while Dr. Barnes went to rest. Through the rest of the night she sat with her daughter while George and the boys slept soundly nearby.

Sara did not call Dr. Barnes. She cared for Phoebe in this childbirth as she always had before. In the early morning she grasped George's shoulder and gave him a shake.

"George, you sleepy head, wake up! You're the father of a nice baby girl and Phoebe wants your congratulations."

The baby was named Eliza Jane and was well and strong; Phoebe, however, did not recover soon. For days she lay pale and listless as the wagon juggled and bounced along the rough ground. It was many weeks before the young wife regained her health.

AFTER WEEKS of travel, some of the children became feverish, then others, and finally there were nine, in all, sick. Some were very bad and lay with flushed faces, their throats swollen near shut and so sore they were unable to swallow. Dr. Barnes diagnosed it as being diphtheria.

He called on Sara for help, and for days the two kept busy climbing into and out of one wagon, then another, to attend the sick. Before going near the ailing children, Sara always got out her medicine box and took from it a bag of asafoetida. From this she broke off some small pieces, tying each in a little piece of cloth to which she fastened a string loop. These she placed around the boys', Phoebe's, George's and her own neck. In the old days it was believed that the gum would prevent those wearing it from catching a disease, as it was thought the fumes from the ill-smelling asafoetida killed germs. Possibly this was but an old granny hokus-pocus belief, but nevertheless most older people of that day relied on it.

In spite of all Dr. Barnes and Sara could do, the children kept dying. Of the six left, four were in very critical condition and so Sara asked Dr. Barnes if she might try a remedy of her own. Might she swab their throats with kerosene or, called then, common coal oil?

Dr. Barnes looked at Sara for some time, then said, "Well, Mrs. Sara, if you think it might help and you can get permission to do so from their parents, I see no reason why you cannot use it. For those children will die, anyway, so you may as well try, but I do not believe it will help."

Only the parents of those four who were considered in a dying state consented. Sara whittled small sticks and tied linsey straps at one end to make some crude swabs. These she dipped in a glass of coal oil, using a different one on each child. Three times daily, this swabbing was repeated and on the third day three of those treated were recovering. Their throats were not so swollen and sore; the fever had subsided. The fourth child, small and sickly by nature, passed on.

On the fifth day, the three children who survived were able to swallow nourishment. The wagontrain moved westward leaving many small graves unmarked by the wayside.

AS PHOEBE gained strength, Sara weakened and became ill. She had worked too hard to help others and now seemed unable to withstand her own sickness. Sara did not complain but lay quietly on her feather bed day after day, while the wagon joggled along.

The scouts again rode in with news of fresh Indian sign not far away. This last massacre was so shocking and repulsive, it was difficult to describe.

Two scouts had been riding a mile apart when one sighted something white protruding above the sagebrush. He rode in the direction of his companion, hailed him, and they both made their way to where the object was sighted. There they found partly decomposed corpses and animals, with bits of clothing and belongings scattered over a wide area. Several wagons were here and there, the frames broken and the canvas covers gone.

One wagon bed was turned upside down, its wheels in the air. Over and around it, bees and flies buzzed. The scouts shuddered as they viewed the horrible sight, for beneath the wagon lay the bodies of children and women, some having been scalped. It was believed the Indians may have taken other women along with them. The train had been completely stripped of anything of value so the scouts left the gruesome scene in haste.

This news frightened even the most fearless of the pioneers. Orders to drivers were given: they would again change course in order to by-pass the massacre site. That night, wagons were drawn to form a circle, and camp was made. The evening meal was eaten in silence. Reverend Nelson was joined by all in earnest prayer that they might be spared the fate of those other unfortunate settlers.

Since this was the second group of wagons sighted and, like the first, appeared to have been traveling alone, it was believed the two may have at one time been together in one large caravan. They may have had different opinions of which direction to travel, breaking up into two small units, neither of which was strong enough to fight off an Indian attack.

The Missourians wished to travel on and leave this territory as far distant as possible, but fast progress was impossible with such poor weak animals to transport them. Many cattle fell by the wayside and had to be shot, left there for coyote food. Wagon masters decided to lighten the loads by discarding everything possible, even some heavier work tools which would be needed later on.

With this in mind, George Bunch climbed into the sleeping wagon where Phoebe sat nursing their baby, Eliza, and Sara lay sick upon her bed. He looked about saying, "We have to lighten our loads. The horses are giving out. Look over our belongings and discard every article we don't absolutely need."

George picked up his extra pair of worn boots and emptied a small wooden box of its contents. Then he spied Sara's old trunk, and pointing toward it, said, "Hon, empty everything out of there, tie what you need in a shawl or blanket, and we'll chuck that old trunk. We don't have to keep that."

Seated between children is Eliza A. Bunch who was born in covered wagon while crossing the plains.

Hearing this, Sara, sick as she was, rose to a sitting position. Her eyes flashing, she protested, "No! No! George, you can't throw away my trunk. It's of seasoned wood and not very heavy, and I want that to go along. Phoebe's father made it by hand! He killed and skinned a buffalo, and tanned the hide himself to cover that trunk.

"My husband made that trunk for me! It carries only my clothing and that of your children, George. I want Phoebe to have it as a keepsake in remembrance of her father and me. You can discard my heavy coat and my shoes, instead, for I will need them no more."

Phoebe looked at Sara and asked, "Mother, why do you say such a thing? You will be needing both your coat and shoes."

"No, children," Sara shook her head, "I will need them no more. You may not believe what I tell you, but I know I speak the truth. I shall be with you no longer by the end of the week and, George, your wagon will be that much lighter. Carry the trunk along but do promise me, remove the till from the trunk and place it over my face before you leave me on the plains."

George and Phoebe thought Sara did not realize what she was saying, but George granted her wish and let the old trunk ride on. On the last morning of the week, Sara's words came true; she was found sleeping—her last long sleep. Somewhere out there on the desert plains beside the Oregon Trail Sara was placed in a shallow grave with but a cross marker at the head.

After Sara was laid to rest, the caravan moved on without further sickness for weeks, then adults and children alike came down with diarrhea and cholera. Some of them died.

ONE NIGHT while camped by a small but swift flowing stream, a scout rode in saying excitedly, "Indians are coming and they are riding fast in this direction!"

Another scout galloped in behind him and yelled reassuringly, "There are only six Indians and I see no more following!" So three men stood ready with loaded muskets to intercept the redmen.

When they were but a short distance from camp, they halted and one held high in the air above his head a makeshift white flag. It was fashioned by fastening a light grey rabbit skin to the end of a pole. They were signaled to come on into camp.

As the Indians approached, a tall one riding the lead horse smiled, exposing a row of even white teeth, and spoke, "Good, good. Hello, hello. No, no."

He repeated those three words over and over, proudly grinning as he did so. It was soon discovered he could speak no more of the white man's language, but he seemed to understand some things spoken to him. From motions and grunting, the scouts understood that the Indians wished to exchange meat for blankets, pots, pans or saddles; and wanting to continue friendly, the white men agreed.

The Indians did not immediately leave camp but stood pointing and making signs that they desired to be fed. They were given tin plates filled with food which they gobbled down, then passed their plates for more. It took far too much of the scarce supplies to fill those brown bellies.

THERE were three of us—a border ranchman, his pastor, and myself. We had stopped at the goat camp after a long day's ride on horses. The goat-herder's fire was very cheerful as it blazed against a natural windbreak of black chaparral brush, and the odor of kid ribs roasting over it made us forget the norther.

A man is like a dog. After he has eaten he is loath to stir from warmth.

"Tomás," said the border ranchman, "I want you to tell my friend why you left Mexico for this country."

Tomás was pinching the end off a shuck cigarette filled with black-leaf "Lobo Negro" tobacco. He took a coal of fire in his fingers to light it. He adjusted the frazzled serape about his neck and shifted his squatting position so as to be a little more out of the cold wind.

"Patrón," he said, "I see you are taking a cough. I gathered today some of the roots of the anacahuita. It will be well to make you a little tea."

I had not noticed the cough. The old Mexican got a tomato can from which the top had been melted, unwrapped a flour sack that swathed the roots, broke them into the can, filled it with water, and spent fully two minutes adjusting a heap of coals to set it on.

A coyote began howling not far away.

"The coyotes," remarked the pastor, "have for three mornings now sung on top of the hills after sun-up instead of in the valleys before the sun came out. It will rain."

Soon the tea had boiled.

"It would be better," remarked the border ranchman, "if it had some lemon in it."

"Tomás," he said again, after expressing his thanks, "I want you to tell us why you left Mexico to come to Texas."

"A coyote," the goat-herder dallied, "has killed a black kid. It has always been known that coyotes will not molest a goat that is black. Something strange is waiting to happen. Perhaps it will snow this winter."

But at last Tomas got his tale going. This is what he told.

DEEP within the Sierra Madre, in the state of Chihuahua, on what is known as the Arroyo Colorado, Tomás as a young man lived and worked for a merchant named Joaquin Villareal. The store was the only store of the village—a mere groupment of huts. Around it were great forests running down into the canyons and crawling up to the mountain crests. Scattered back in the mountains lived a few timber cutters, and they all depended upon Don Joaquin Villareal. He furnished them what scanty supplies they had and periodically went out to check the ties they had cut.

Then, maybe once a year, they came into the village and settled their accounts.

Once when the time came to make a checking of the ties, Don Joaquin took sick. He decided to send Tomás in his place. Tomás knew all the men and he knew the country in a general way, though he had never made one of these trips of inspection.

He must, he knew, go prepared with bed and provisions. So with a canteen of water on one side of his flathorned saddle, a morral (a fiber bag) of frijoles and tortillas on the other, and a blanket tied on behind he set forth.

"My mule," admonished Don Joaquin, "will show you the way."

She was a good little mule, but Tomás' trouble was that he did not take enough provisions. He had forgotten how large and sparsely settled the country

After their hunger was appeased, the six Indians still lingered. They stood with big brown eyes watching every move of the women as they cleared away soiled dishes and washed them. Then they turned their backs to the firelight and squatted with their buttocks to the warmth. Thus squatting, wide of knee, rears to the fire, they exposed plainly parts of their bodies which were covered by their breechclouts while standing. Women across the campfire from them took one look, gasped, grasped the hands of their young, and hurried away to hide themselves from such a sight beneath their wagon covers.

The Indians sat warming their naked bodies until the fires were low, then they mounted their ponies and made off.

The next morning they were back, not long after sun-up, ponies loaded with a fresh kill of buffalo and antelope meat. They may have been a primitive people but, when it came to selecting blankets, they well knew the better ones. When they rode away, many warm covers, shawls, and other needed articles went with them.

As the caravan made camp that night those same six Indians again appeared. And again they wanted loot. They were given food and a few more blankets and shawls. As before, they sat squatting by the firelight.

Later on, when they departed, one tall Indian who had by then been nicknamed "Hello Good," held out his hand to shake hands, a white man's habit, so the settlers hopefully figured this would be their last visit. In this they were mistaken, for again on the third night, the Indians reappeared. This time they were a little late. The evening meal was over and all cooking utensils put away for the night.

The Indians seemed puzzled, their faces sullen.They started pointing at different articles such as the saddles, water buckets and lanterns. When made to understand they would get no more of the white men's belongings, one thin fellow riding a red and white pony became angered, and so sudden were his movements the white men had no time to go for their guns to stop him. He rode swiftly among the group of women and children, and as he did so, reached down and caught the dress front of little Minnie Fox. Pulling her up on the horse before him, he galloped away.

All were so astonished they seemed not to grasp the significance of what had happened. Then the men grabbed their muskets and prepared to go to the rescue of the stolen child. The tall Indian, Mr. Hello Good, said, "No, no, no!"

As he pounded his chest, he made it understood he would get and bring Minnie back. Mr. Fox unfastened his watch and chain, showed them to Mr. Hello Good and made signs that if he would bring back the little girl, the watch and chain would be his. Smiling and waving, he rode away followed by the other four Indians.

EVERYBODY was worried over Minnie's fate. Mother and Father Fox walked, circling the fire, all through the night waiting for the sound of horses—just waiting. But it was sun-up before Mr. Hello Good returned with their daughter. She was unharmed but wild-eyed and nervous. Her blonde hair was gathered and tied at the top of her head.

Gauntlet Gloves

scared screams were like a knife cuttin me apart. I ran after them blindly, yelling. I felt utterly helpless.

I guess I went a little crazy. I kept shouting at the horse that he'd get a damned good shooting when I caught up with him—as if that would make him stop. But my trigger finger got mighty limp when finally the runaway horse slowed. I felt Roy over and knew there was no life. Roy was done for.

I don't know why I didn't shoot the horse. A man never knows why he did this or didn't do that at such times. I just loosened the rope, took off the gloves, stuck them in my pocket and took Roy in.

When a cowboy wants to rid the world of a horse he thinks is mean enough to die by running himself to death, he resorts to a beefhide drag. There is no greater punishment for an outlaw horse. The animal just doesn't stop running. He'll go right on off the end of the earth; he won't let up until he's done for, one way or the other.

After seeing what I saw, I got mean enough, mad enough, or off balance enough to give that killer the cure. I blindfolded the horse, pulled a dried-up beef hide off the corral fence, tied the tail of it to that nag's tail, took off the blinds and whacked him across the rump with those gauntlet gloves. He hit the gate going fast, and burst out into the wide, wide world.

It must be a terrifying thing for a booger-shy horse. The hide sailed high, banged down on the ground, popped and crackled. It caught on the sagebrush and snapped loose to go up over the flying outlaw's back, then banged the ground again behind him.

GENERALLY, days, weeks or months later, two dried-out hides are found, still tied together, a skeleton lying nearby—only this time the horse's hide is dried and curled, too . . .

That was the fate I mapped out for Gauntlet—the name he went by after he'd killed Roy. But it didn't work out that way. He had his run without going over a cliff, running a gopher hole up his leg, or doing any one of a dozen other things that generally happens to a boogered nag with the devil on his tail.

I found the horse, head drooped, foam-covered, dirt-caked, foot-sore, and completely done in—nine miles and four hours from where he started. He hadn't gotten there by running a straight line either. Maybe he hadn't run all that time, but he'd wasted very little of it resting—from the looks of him.

I got off my horse, walked up to him and hit the spent animal in the face with my hat. He backed up against the hide, kicked it twice, then stood there trembling. There was no sign of the wicked look left in his eyes. I threw up my hands, whacked my hat on my chaps. He didn't scare. He just stood and looked at me. He was a cured outlaw.

I said, "You bastard! Why couldn't you have looked that way at Roy?"

But he hadn't and now it couldn't be

The Other Side of the Mountain

Her face was covered with some sort of red stain and she was minus her shoes.

No other Indians came with Mr. Hello Good. He was shown many guns and made to understand that should the others return, white men's guns would make big boom and Indians would go to Happy Hunting Ground. So no further trouble came of those Indians.

The wagontrain proceeded, traveling on week after week. One day, scouts riding ahead topped a rise and halted their horses. They sat studying the low ground beyond. There were flickering reflections of sunrays on water and they made out in the distance a small lake or waterhole. Near it were several white objects alike in size.

The scouts believed them to be some sort of waterfowl such as ducks or geese, but after watching for a time and noticing the objects had not moved, they decided to ride down and investigate.

It proved to be just a stagnant body of water in a sort of sink hole, squirming with water lizards and pollywogs and circled by mosquitoes. The white objects were human skulls. They were damaged by rodents, weather and time, but there were no holes or cracks in the skulls as would have been the case had they been killed by white men or Indians. It was decided that their party had become sick from bad water or died of starvation. A mystery unsolved. After scouting about awhile, the riders made their way back across the hill to look for a better camping place.

It was weeks later before they again came to ground where they found water seepage. Grasses and other green browse grew in the dampness, so it was planned to stay there a few days to rest both cattle and humans. Men rushed about preparing a good camp and a deep waterhole.

On the second evening in camp, fires blazed high and crackled noisily. Children ran skipping about this way and that in play. Busily occupied in preparing the evening meal, women's talk and laughter could be heard from all directions. The people felt safe and happy as there had been no sign of the redmen in weeks. Then above all the noises, rang clear and loud—one single gun shot! Men jerked alert, believing someone's musket had been accidentally discharged; then arrows came flying through the air from the low ridge nearby.

The arrows fell and partly buried themselves in the ground here and there among the settlers. Luckily all missed. Men doused fires quickly; women grasped children's arms and, falling to the ground, rolled beneath the wagons there to lie holding to one another in fright. Their husbands took their muskets and concealed themselves as best they could behind small tree trunks, horses, or piles of saddles.

Soon at the top of the ridge a big white horse appeared. Upon its back sat an Indian chief, his feathered headdress fluttering in the breeze. Cease fire orders were given the men with rifles, as they wished to watch and study the Indians to see how many were near.

Seven other Indian riders appeared, as had their chief, and as each came to the top of the hill, they raised their bows and arrows shooting toward camp. This time, as the last Indian rider disappeared from sight, George Bunch stepped out in the opening calling, "Fellows, any of you want to come along? I'm going to get that black devil!"

He ran across the opening between camp and the foot of the hill, and four men followed, the nearest one being his friend, Ticer. As each man cleared the opening to the side hill, he dropped down concealing himself behind a sagebush. All hid, waiting and watching for the Indians to appear again.

It was not long before the big white horse and the Indian chief returned to the top of the ridge and halted. He raised his bow, but the arrow was never loosed, for a puff of smoke came from George Bunch's musket and a shot rang out.

The chief threw his hands in the air and fell, but he did not strike the ground. His body hung dangling at his horse's side as he disappeared from sight. That Indian had been tied fast to his horse.

George Bunch, from there high on the hill, raised his old muzzle-loading musket up above his head as he called to those below, "This is it, boys, Old Kill Nigger." From that day on George's rifle was known by all as "Old Kill Nigger."

My mother owned a powder horn which should now be with the old gun. It was carved by George Bunch who was somewhat an artist. On the old powder horn was shown a man, his rifle, a dog, a tree, a deer and his own initials G. W. B.

AFTER THIS encounter, the caravan moved on fast as possible, and was not again bothered by hostile Indians save for being shot at later in the timbered territory of Oregon. Progress was made, but when water was located more often, rest periods became more frequent. One narrow ribbon of water ran winding its way from a rocky ridge to low land, and beside it grew willows, cottonwood, and other scrub trees. Camp was made here.

Cattle were loosed to forage and wander at will. Children romped and ran here and there with their dogs. Women gave the boys and girls some much needed baths and washed their hair and clothing, while men mended broken harness and wagons, repaired broken stirrups, shod horses, soaked wagon wheels, gathered wood and rested.

Women sent their children to the creek with tin pails for water to do the laundry. Some of the children returned soon; others tarried at the creek, wading and picking up pretty rocks and odd-colored stones. Their mothers, with rolled up sleeves and faces sweating, rubbed the soiled clothing on heavy wooden wash boards with lye soap. They were tired and quick of temper when the tardy children did return—more so, when they discovered the children carried sand, rocks and stones in their buckets instead of water. They scolded, and grasped the buckets intending to throw contents on the ground.

"Please, Mommie, don't dump our pretty rocks," the children cried—and as a result the contents of buckets were tossed into the wagon beds. Then the women handed sand-coated buckets back to their offspring with the threat of using Daddy's razor strop to tan their hides if they didn't go to the creek and bring water—and in a hurry!

By evening, camp resembled a waving flower garden for clothing of every conceivable color was hung on lines both short and long. Spread over rocks and tree limbs—over wagon wheels and tongues—everywhere a piece of wet wash could find a drying space—was clothing out to dry.

CATTLE AND people were relaxed and rested when the caravan rolled on—mile upon mile, week in, week out. The days were some cooler and at nights a slight breeze could be felt. The men knew the winter season would be upon them soon and that they must find some timbered hills and water streams before making the winter's camp. As time passed, they came to and crossed over ridges where here and there grew juniper trees and grasses. Also they came to the banks of many rivers where the water flowed by without riffles. Here the streams were easily forded for the current was not swift. Empty water barrels were sealed and used as floats to get the wagons across. The banks might have made a good campground, but the wagon masters pushed on searching for timber.

It was not until they came to the Snake that difficulty in crossing a stream was met. The steep cliffs posed a problem; not even a human could climb from the top down to the water's edge in places. The caravan was forced to travel miles along the uneven rocky terrain along the high banks of the river before coming to a spot where horses and wagons might cross. The current was swift, the river bed covered with sharp rocks too dangerous for barrel floating.

Men with axes, saws, and will power searched for and felled small trees; from these they made poles for rafts. Heavy ropes were spliced together, tied at each end of the raft, and to a huge stationary boulder at each side of the river. Some of the cattle, tied fast to the tail ends of wagons being towed across, became frightened and broke their tie ropes. They fell into the swift stream and were drowned.

During the crossing, thunderheads floated overhead and the first storm of the season broke. Torrents of rain came down thick and fast and thunder and lightning flashes ripped the air. Children clung to mothers' skirts, badly frightened.

The first hard rain striking the dry canvas wagon covers sifted through, covering all within with a spray of mist. And the change from hot and dry to wet, damp and cool was too extreme. Everybody caught colds. There was earache, toothache and sore throats to doctor—but the wagons rolled on seeking a level place to make winter camp.

AT LAST, they found a choice spot beneath tall timber where the mountain behind would be a windbreak. There was level ground space large enough that wagons could be separated for privacy yet near enough that one could call and be heard if any emergency occurred. All about were stately pines, fir, hemlock and spruce. The rough-barked cedar furnished shakes for any who wished to build lean-tos or tent-like shelters. Rocks were gathered for crude fireplaces; men cut away the underbrush for bonfires. Logs were made flat for use as solid benches here and there within the clearing, so that the entire space around and near the camp wagons resembled a huge picnic ground. Some people dug caves into the hillside, lined the walls with cedar shakes and so fashioned themselves large warm rooms with dirt floors. Weather permitting, bonfires blazed merrily at night and everybody gathered around. They visited, made music, or just sat to watch the log chunks send off their yellow flickering blaze.

The supply of dried fruits, vegetables, and beans had held out well; added now were deer, elk, moose, antelope, pheasant, grouse, ducks, geese and salmon. Women gathered fruit and made berry drop-dumplings in the iron kettles over the fire. Fresh water was carried from a spring. Cattle and horses were loosed to roam where pasture was greenest and they weathered the winter well, as did all persons of the caravan.

When spring came, there were several young calves and colts and children blossomed forth wearing new homemade moccasins fashioned of tanned hide, laced well with leather thongs. During the winter, each day that weather permitted, men worked with saw, axes, picks and shovels making a dirt road up and over the mountain. On its crest there was a space almost bare of trees and brush—open enough for one to stand and survey the surrounding territory. For miles one mountain beyond another was covered with dark green timber.

Men of the caravan had labored long to get the road up to the top and they wondered if it would be as hard making a roadway down the opposite side of this mountain and beyond.

WHEN THE time came for breaking camp and moving on, some of the families seemed reluctant to leave their caves or makeshift dwellings behind. The narrow mountain road, winding, mud-slick and steep, was hard to cover. Extra horses were hooked on to help pull the wagons up the steep grades. Beyond, they ran into swamp lands, almost impossible to cross over. Wagons mired down up to their hubs. The drivers were forced to cut a thick layer of tree boughs to support the wheels. No one knew just where they were, but most believed they were now in Oregon Territory. Passing along the top of a hill, they could glimpse the sea in the far distance.

Another few days brought them near enough to hear the thumping of breakers beating the rocky shoreline. Seagulls sailed overhead and the odor of seaweed and mud flats lingered in the air. Camp the next evening was made overlooking the blue Pacific.

As wagons braked to a halt, everyone climbed out shouting and clapping hands, thrilling to the beauty of miles of white sandy beaches which lay before them. Children ran about picking wild strawberries and Indian paintbrush. As carefree as their offspring, the men took rod and line and fished in the sea.

The caravan wished to follow the coastline and did so for some distance, but eventually had to turn inland because of sheer steep bluffs. Among the hills and ridges ran small fresh water streams. The drumming of grouse could often be heard. And once again there were signs of Indians. Black embers of a campfire or the entrails of a dressed-out deer served as evidence. One of their own horses carried a deep scar where an arrow had caught him from ambush. Some of the wagon covers had been pierced by arrows, too. Luckily no one had been hit, and each time the Indians shot their arrows, the white men frightened them away with their rifles.

AFTER WEEKS of travel, the settlers came to a body of water far too large to cross over. There were many inlets and streams emptying into the bay. It was up one of those rivers that the Foxes staked claims and pioneered themselves a home. They followed the river until they came to level valley land. Here beside a swift flowing small creek they staked claims and founded Foxes Creek, about ten miles above present-day Allegany, Oregon.

The George Bunch, Ticer and other families circled the bay, crossed over at an inlet, and continued down the coast. One evening at camp one of the women decided to do the family wash. She took down a copper boiler and, discovering it leaked, called out to her husband, "Come, Frank, take this and try to patch it." He thought back to last fall when he had picked up an odd-colored pebble from his wagon bed and examined it. He had found it to be a soft substance when scraped with his pen knife. Frank figured it would be good to hammer through the small hole in the copper boiler to seal the leak. He didn't find the same pebble, but found another smaller one and was pounding it flat when his friend Bill came up to visit and watch.

Bill peered closely at the brownish metal and let out a loud curse. "Hell, Frank, that's gold! Holy Hell, it is gold! Where did you get that gold?"

Frank was as surprised as Bill. The copper boiler was forgotten while everybody gathered to ask questions and examine the small gold nugget. Wagon beds were searched and two other nuggets were found. The question: Where did they come from?

Two of the mothers told of dumping the gravel, rocks and odd-colored pebbles into the wagon beds—way back there last year as they were camped beside a small creek. Some of their husbands were so excited they talked of packing a few horses and riding back to locate the creek, but they realized that if only a few men were to go, they would be massacred.

It was decided they would settle, build a home for their families first, then later go back better prepared to stay and prospect as long as they desired. This opportunity did not come soon for there was war with the Indians. Three years passed before a group of men made the search, and they were not successful for they didn't remember by which creek those nuggets were found. To this day it is not known if others discovered gold there and mined, or if the creek were ever found again.

THE GEORGE BUNCH and Ticer families staked land and settled not many miles apart in what is now Josephine County—near Holland and Cave Junction, Oregon. George and Phoebe worked very hard, felling trees, then cutting them into desired lengths and peeling the bark away. They built themselves a large one-room cabin with an upstairs sleeping room.

The log house had but one heavy door which opened onto a small porch with two steps off. Window holes were cut through the other three walls, one to a side. Heavy shutters were made to swing shut and fasten over the three windows.

A rock fireplace was fashioned for both heating and cooking. At one side of the house a corral was built to secure their two cows and four horses. The Bunches had no more than completed the house, corral and well-house at the creek when George was called upon to help in some trouble with the Indians. He bade Phoebe and the boys goodbye and left for war. Phoebe, sorry to be left alone, carried on as best she could in her condition. She was expecting another baby.

The spring house was about 200 feet from the house. In the evenings, the eldest boys carried water from the spring while Phoebe milked the cow. Then they gathered and carried in wood, lit the lamps, and Phoebe would teach the boys to read and figure for a while before putting them to bed.

One night after the children were asleep and Phoebe sat mending, their dog began to growl. She wondered if some varmint might be near. A little later she was disturbed by the dogs' growling again, so she peered from her windows but saw nothing near.

The next morning when she took her pail and went to the corral to milk, there were no cows, horses or calf—all were gone. Beside the horse and cow tracks were the footprints of moccasined feet. Phoebe was gripped by fear.

She hurried to the house and sat wondering what was best to do for she knew that Indians were near. She was afraid to take her children and start walking to the Ticer place lest they all be attacked and massacred. Her house was solid, she knew, and the latches on the windows and heavy door were strong.

Phoebe tied the dog at the porch near the door; she filled all pails and jugs full of water; she fetched in a huge pile of wood. Then the door was barred and she and the children kept within their log house.

David knew some sort of trouble was at hand so his mother explained their predicament and told him what he must do to help in case the Indians attacked. That night, as usual, the children were put to bed, but Phoebe was restless and afraid to sleep. She packed, tamped and loaded the old musket and carried it across her arms as she went from one window to the other peering out through a three-inch crack she had left between the shutters at each of the windows. Phoebe had patrolled until almost midnight and seen nothing disturbing, when she decided to look out one last time. As she stood at one of the windows, she saw a flash and flying sparks down near one corner of the log house. Cautiously she opened the shutters a little more and made out two human forms huddled near the ground. They were using flint trying to start a fire in the tinder-dry shavings and bark along the wall.

Phoebe raised the heavy musket, ran the muzzle downward between the shutters, and pulled the trigger. A puff of smoke and flash blinded her for a moment, but when she looked again for the Indians, they were visible only as two swiftly running figures heading toward the forest. The children awoke and were loudly screaming, David being unable to quiet them.

Phoebe was still uneasy. She thought the Indians might return with guns and shoot through the chinking to injure her children. A quilt was placed at the bottom of her mother's old trunk and little Eliza placed inside. The boys were bedded down on a pallet in the center of the upstairs floor. Phoebe herself kept watch at night and slept during the day. Thus she and the children lived in constant fear of the Indians until George Bunch returned home.

SINCE PEACE had been declared between white and red men, there was seldom any ambushing and work could be resumed. They were busy from early morn to late night felling trees, slashing brush, clearing land. The boys gathered slash and piled it high for burning. Phoebe lit fires and kept them chunked to burn beneath stumps and logs.

Now mother of newborn Sara, she cared for her five children while George planted the ground with grain. The next spring, it grew tall and full, and there was a garden and plenty. George and Phoebe's family grew until there were five boys and five girls, the youngest being Amanda Ellen, born May 19, 1864. (Amanda was my mother.)

To support such a large family, George Bunch worked days at a nearby gold mine, and evenings and Sundays on his ranch. It was his habit to hunt and bring home fresh game for his family each weekend. One Sunday morning he took down his musket, Old Kill Nigger, from the deer antler gunrack, and as he left the house he called to Phoebe, "Hon, I'm going for meat. I won't be gone long."

A few hours later he returned. The children called from the yard, "Mama, here comes Papa and he's got a big deer!" Phoebe glanced out the window. She saw George walking slowly, staggering from side to side. Phoebe stood watching, realizing all was not as it should be.

George came up to the outside of the picket fence which circled the yard and, turning his back to the fence, let the deer drop over into the yard saying as he did so, "There's good meat." Then he folded his arms, resting them upon a fence post, and lowered his head to rest upon his folded arms.

Phoebe ran from the house to his side asking, "What is wrong, George, are you sick?"

His answer was low, "Yes, hon, I'm death sick. I've had a pain in my side more than a week. As I lifted the deer today, the pain came worse. It's like a knife was cutting inside. But don't you go worrying, I'll be all right after awhile."

But George did not get all right. He lay sick for days. There was no doctor anywhere near, and so he passed on, November 8, 1867, leaving Phoebe and ten children. Phoebe, with her tiny baby, sat rocking slowly, wondering, "What will I do?" As she worried and rocked she wiped tears from her cheek with the back of her hand lest the other children see them.

WORRY, work and time help to heal a broken heart and lessen sorrow. Phoebe, pioneer that she was, carried on and did well by her remaining children. Some of the oldest married and went away to homes of their own. Phoebe and the rest tilled the soil, planted and raised crops, sheared sheep, milked cows, churned, and sold butter and milk. They sold eggs and dressed chickens.

Her children walked to the mining camp, gathered up huge bundles of laundry and carried it on their backs to Phoebe, who washed each piece on a wood washboard. She rinsed, starched and ironed the clothes and sent them back to the miners spotlessly clean, the white stiff-collared shirts free of any wrinkle. For this labor Phoebe received but a few pennies.

First one, then another of the children married and drifted on and at last there was but Phoebe and the youngest, Amanda, to carry on. They patched broken fences, plowed, harrowed, clod mashed and planted. From time to time, a Captain Anderson came to the mining camp to bring freight. He drove a heavy wagon drawn by a four-horse team from Crescent City to Port Oxford. He and Phoebe Bunch became acquainted and later married. He was much older than Phoebe, but managed her affairs and helped her financially.

It was hard work and tiring for him to drive over the narrow, winding dirt roadway up the coast and over the mountain route. So often, Amanda, then fourteen years of age, went along and drove the team for Captain Anderson. But at age sixteen, Amanda, too, married and so left home.

When Captain Anderson died, Phoebe moved to a small cabin at Holland, Oregon and lived by herself until she died December 24, 1913.

The old trunk of which I have told was sent to me a few years ago by a cousin. I placed it along with a tin type picture of Phoebe Bunch in the Coos-Curry Historical Museum at North Bend, Oregon. There it may be viewed by anyone wishing to see it. The buffalo cover is rubbed thin and through in places, from the juggling and rubbing against the wagon bed as it rode across the plains. The interior of the old trunk is lined with wallpaper of that day and is now badly faded. Beneath the top trunk lid is a picture of bright colored geraniums which must have been clipped from some magazine or paper and pasted there by Sara's daughter, Phoebe Bunch, for Phoebe used the old trunk until her death at age ninety-two—in remembrance of things past.

ALASKA GOLD

ynopsis: In 1897, a party of young men, ll under age twenty-seven and from idely divergent backgrounds, decided to ake a run for the gold rush by way of dmonton and the water route better nown as the "back door to the Klondike." Part One covered the hardships hese tenderfeet endured while making heir way to Ft. McMurray, Lake Athabaska, Ft. Simpson and finally to Ft. Yukon. Dobbin, one of the party, has written of his experiences in a matter-of-fact way, without heroics but giving due credit for his survival to the party's "courage can" (whiskey) and to the conviction of youth that "Every man, going along living his life, conceives himself to be immortal. Death, the great accident, is something which happens to the other fellow." Dobbin's was a bleak and frozen world—but he kept going because over the next snowy pass, beyond the last village of starving Indians, somewhere at the end of the Mackenzie was gold.

SIX TO TEN MILES A DAY

THE WORDS just quoted well express the utter disregard of accident or misfortune to the average adventurer. We had been buffeted from one side to another so many times just ahead of so many fatalities that we were accustomed to threats of calamity.

We hauled everything out of the boats, made up a camp on the island and stayed there for two weeks until the river all around us had set fast. Now we could reach the mainland.

The agent at the fort had seen us through his spy glass in our first predicament in the ice jam. Knowing of the bad places below us in the river, natives were sent to follow alongshore to be of assistance if needed.

They watched down to the fish camp and mouth of our river, not knowing that we had put into the island. They returned to the fort and reported us drowned and our outfits lost. The outside mail was dispatched from the fort as soon as the ice was safe, taking out the news of our disaster. This was published in the coast papers; these papers reached me the following spring. This item reached the newspapers of the Middle West, where my mother read it. With a mother's intuition she would not believe it. When she heard from me later the news confirmed her convictions.

When the ice set hard enough we mushed to the main shore and down to the main camp. On the way we passed an Indian camp and learned that we were reported to have been drowned. One of the Indians went back to the fort to report the truth.

The old prospectors had already begun to mush their outfits by dogsleds, having to double-trip it, pulling a load up ten miles, leaving that load and returning to camp the same day. Our mishap in the river gave us the task of hauling our outfit to the fish camp by main strength and hard pulling over 20 miles of the roughest trail in that country. After this was done we were to move on to a point 175 miles on up the river with our camp, some grub and dog feed, enough to last us for the return trip.

For three hungry people and two dogs it was no small item. Jay got in and helped his two dogs pull his load, and I got in and pulled mine personally day after day for three weeks. We pulled and worked, averaging six to ten miles a day. The trail left by the other boys would be entirely snowed under in some places; if they had not always followed the river we might have lost them entirely.

About 50 miles from its mouth the river runs through a flat low country for 30 miles or more. Here we found some 20 different channels that had been cut by the spring floods. They all have about the same amount of water and when they freeze up in the fall it is almost impossible to locate the right channel. This stretch of country caused us much anxiety as it is the easiest thing in the world to get lost when the trails are covered with snow. In many places we would follow up the stream where we could see a brisk current flowing under the ice,

STOKELEY BUNCH, OF SULLIVAN CO., MO.

Records of Geneva King, March, 1983

STOKELEY BUNCH, probably, but not proven, the son of James^5, Samuel^4 John Jr^3, John^2, John^1, was born about 1797 in (prob) Ky or Tenn., census records differ. He died in Sullivan Co., Mo., about 1868. He married, 1st, in Ky., Mahala (Aley) Seabourn, born before 1800, the daughter and apparently only child of Jacob Seabourn and his first wife, Annie Price, of Clay County, Ky. Karen Platz believes Stokeley was married to an Abey Baker (1805-1859), the daughter of John Baker (b. 1762) and Mary Reid Baker. She has in her possession copy of a deed made on the 14th day of June, 1856, between Stokeley Bunch and Abey Bunch his wife of the county of Sullivan and state of Missouri concerning a piece of property they purchased in Sullivan Co. She says the name is definitely ABEY. All who read the 1850 census of Sullivan County, Mo, have agreed that Stokeley's wife is recorded as Aley, but her age is given as 45, which would be too young for Aley Seabourn, but right for Abey Baker. In looking back over my original notes of this census, I find I wrote this:

> "Bunch, Aley, b. Ky., age 45 or 55. Age was marked over, so could be 45 or 55".

So, who was Stokeley's wife in 1850, Aley Seabourn or Abey Baker? We can only hope that someday someone will unearth a definite record. Stokeley's wife in 1860 census was named Christine, age 71, b. N.C. She was Mrs. Christine Clark, the widow of Randolph Clark, of Chariton County, Mo., and the mother of Nancy Clark who married Stokeley's oldest son, William Bunch. Neither she nor Stokeley were in the 1870 census of Sullivan County.

Stokeley Bunch and his family were living in Missouri by 1830 and were enumerated in the 1830 census of Chariton Co., Mo. In 1840 Stokeley was enumerated in the census of Linn Co., Mo.; and in 1850 was in the census of Sullivan Co., Mo. It is possible that he was in the same location all this time, as Linn was formed from Chariton County in 1837; and Sullivan Co., was formed from Linn Co., in 1845. He lived a few miles west of Winnigan, in what was then called the Butte community. There is a cemetery near there which is now called the Bunch Cemetery. In the 1860 census his address was "Owosco". Stokeley had these children: (from census records & Karen Platz)

Tuesday . .

Dear Mrs. Gailey:

Received your nice letter this morning, and I am sure you will spend many happy hours in reading. Hope you can find connections that none of us here sent you.

Not feeling to good this afternoon I started looking through the 1942 newspaper files, and ran a~~c~~cross the enclosed material. Joseph and George Billups are in rest homes here in Carrollton. I am told that Joseph's mind is not too clear, and in checking with the funeral home found that in 1954 George could not give the maiden mame of his mother. If it ever warms up, will talk to George. The three brothers were never married.

Robert L. Hale, 410 Methodist Bldg ----------------, Shelbyville, Ind., is working on the Hale family descendants. Sarah Hale married Ingram Standley. Have grave marker inscription of Ingram if you need it.

I certainly appreciate all the material you have sent me, and will greatly appreciate the 1850 census records. All the Bunch material I have found have sent it directly to you.~~n~~ The only one I might help would be Mr. Lane, Waverly, that is if the first wife of James is ever established. If there is any Cherokee money would like for him to get in on it.

Sincerely,

Marie

P. S. Please do not let Mrs. Dalton Know that I have ask anything about the Standley family...Will explain later.

Rites Here Monday For George Billups

George Billups, 76, died sometime Saturday night at his room in the American hotel, Carrollton. The body of the aged man, who had been ill a long while, was discovered Sunday morning.

Mr. Billups was born in Chariton County, in April, 1886, a son of Socrates and Mary (Bunch) Billups. He lived in Carroll County most of his life and had been a farmer in the Wakenda vicinity. He moved into Carrollton after retiring from the farm.

The last of his immediate family Mr. Billups was preceded in death by two brothers. Survivors include two cousins, William Billups, Route 1, Magnolia, Ill., and Mrs. Annabelle Barnett, Mendon, Mo.

Funeral services were at 2 o'clock Monday at the Marshall chapel conducted by Rev. Perry P. Taylor. Burial was in the Wakenda cemetery.

Hacienda Heights, CA 91745

Dear Ms. Straley:

Mrs. Lee I. (Alice) Park of Washington, DC has forwarded your letter of 12 Oct 1989, to me to answer. I have all of Geneva King's material on the Bunch family. Mrs. King was a distant cousin of my husband and at her death in 1984, her husband gave me her records. She had requested that this be done some years ago.

I have checked the Bunch records for Stokeley 6 (James 5; Samuel 4; John Jr., 3; John 2; John 1). I was able to locate a copy of the letter written in 1837 from Jacob and Anna Seabourn to their daughter, Aley Bunch and her husband, Stokeley Bunch. I am enclosing a copy. I also am enclosing copies of a typed work sheet of material Geneva King has gathered on this family. I believe she was working on this family when she died (note date of March 1983 on her typed notes).

In checking through Geneva's records, the most current letter in her files from a Stokeley Bunch researcher was in 1983 from:

Mrs. Mary E. Grisamer
6133 Centralia
Lakewood, CA 90713

You might try to contact this person since it appears that she has done a great deal of research on this family. I would suggest you send her your family group sheets and a self-addressed and stamped envelope for her convenience to reply.

I hope the material I have enclosed will be of help in your research on the Stokeley Bunch family. If you have additional information on later family groups, I would appreciate copies for the Stokeley file which may help others who seek information from me.

Sincerely,

Mary R. Nunneley

Dear Mary

I have made all the spaces wrong-please excuse.

I had the letter from Josephine Straley, which I found very hard to read, but then, everything is very hard for me to read now, so perhaps it won't seem such a chore to you.

She wants a copy of(footnote ttt, p. 239), Park and Bunch book) the letter XXXXXXXXXXXXX/to Stokeley and Allie Bunch, written by Mahala's parents.

My excuse for all mistakes is my very poor vision.

I am amused by her saying, "but please don't print more (books) for one for me". !!!

Actually, I am being urged on by several-all Bunches-to have another printing. I am 88, and am not sure I could manage.

Love

Alice

Dear Mrs King:

I recived the Book of The Parkes & Bunches on Trail west by alice Park and in reading it I found you have Xerox copy of a letter to Stokely and Aley Bunch written in 1837 from Mahala's parents? As I am a decendent of this Stokely Bunch would like to have a copy of the letter If you could send me one or tell me where I could get one from would sure appreciate it.

I am Mary Elaine Riddle Grisamer Dau of James Winnie Riddle & Verna Dillinger Riddle she was Dau of Eva Evaline Alexander Dillinger & F. J Dilling, She was Dau of Robert & Aley (Mahala Alicia) Bunch Alexander and She was Dau of John & Smitha Ann Summers Bunch 2nd Son of Stokely & Mahala Searburn Bunch. This group of people lived around in Morris & Pleasant township Sullivan

County Mo. Our group of Bunches lived around what was a store called Butte, Mo. which is about 5 miles west of Winigan, Mo which is still on Mo. map. There also is a Cemetary there Named Butte also used to be a grade school named Butte (but closed now) it was Know as Bunches school as all kids going was named Bunch. My ~~gg~~ grandfather John J. Dillinger, grandfather Francis J. Dillinger uncle Thomas J. Dillinger taught this school among others. There are still a lot of Bunchs living in that area - I do have a lot of Stokley Childrens Children and who they married. But no dates for them. At least all I knew, and my grandmother Dillinger gave the older ones before she died. I sure would appreciate having 2 copys of the letter and will be glad to pay for them just say how much -

Sincerely yours
Mary E. Grisamer

Dear Mrs King;

I'm sorry I took so long in answering your Letter, and want to thank you for all you sent and I had nothing on the Seaborns so was glad to get that information. I've really had a busy time since you wrote. Been on jury Duty also my Youngest Dau. came down and was married here Last week and I had to make all arraingements shince she live in Washington State.

Yes I do have all the tapes for Sullivan County Cencus from 1850 to 1910 Inc. But I haven't Copied all inf yet. When I first started I only copied what I wanted at time not realizing I would have to go back, Also I was working then so thought I Could save time, now I have been out with my Knee injury for quit a While So am going to get busy again. You will notice I missed Stokly Bunch in 1860 Cencus and John Bunch in 1900. Also I just got 1910 So will be a time before I get to it. Also you said Stokly Bunch 1850 Census wife was Mistake with wife's name Aley? Maybe not? As my grandmother Dau: of John Bunch was Mahaley on Census also Aley, Alicia, and on ob: was in paper, Aley and Death Cert: was Alicia, So just what would you say her name really was. I Knew her as Alicia.. Yes I certainly would like a copy of what you have on Stokly Bunch Desc. and I'm sending you what I have. I only have names and some dates for Des of John Bunch 2nd Son of Stokly My line. Also do you know anyone that has a picture of Stokly as I'm also trying to get as many of my line as possible? This last year my sister got interested so have been helping her on her Husband Fanning Lines of Sullivan Co, Mo and hirs runs into our "Dillinger" family. There are so many of same names it sure hard to keep them separated So may have made a mistake. We were related to Most everyone in Union, Pleasant Hill, Morris Township of Sullivan Co. Mo when I lived there. I left in 1945., Since has Changed. Marris townships was named after my gg grandfather Robertson Marris was one of first settlers in that area along with Stokley Bunch, my gg grandfathers Hardinger Dillinger altho Stokley was in Pleasant Hill Township. Also very near & Related was these Names, Carmacks, Coffmans, Bakers, Goodwin, Marris, Bunch, Dillingers, Becks Clutons, Fannings, Riddles, Alexanders, Summers just a few. So things were really mixed up being all related - All these origanally came from So. States and things were really Bad during Civil War. Some of name that was with the South a while were Dillinger, Bunch, Beeks, Bogarts, Baker, Clutons. Most of these on staid about 6m in 1861 then in Spring of 1862 Came home and was in Mo. State guard to guard there homes from Raiders. One of Cluton fled to Organ & My g grandfather John J Dillinger went back to Ind. to get away from them as they both feared for there life.

I sure hope you can read all I'm sending as I copied it while on Jury Duty as I sat most of my time in Jury Room - I'm sending what I have and later will send the rest when get it Copied.

Dear Alice,

Received in today's mail, your letter and the enclosed material from Josephine Straley of Hacienda Heights, CA. Her letter is indeed rather hard to decipher. If she did obtain a copy of your book from her library, she must have failed to read it...

I have copied several pages of material from Geneva's files pertaining to Stokley Bunch, including a copy of the letter Mrs. Straley requested. The Stokley Bunch family was, I believe, the last work Geneva was doing at her death in 1984. She had completely retyped the records and it is dated, March 1983. Since Geneva descended from Samuel/4, she was very interested in all lines from him, including Stokley. Her file on Stokley has a large number of work papers. I will not copy all of the material for Mrs. Straley for she was apparently unable to determine from your book that Stokley married Mahala Seabourne (and maybe #2 Abey Baker).

I do wish your book could be reprinted for those who were unable to obtain copies of the two previously published editions. I have enjoyed my copy so much over the years and am only sorry I did not buy a copy for each of my three children.

I seldom receive any requests for Bunch information. I suppose everyone slows down on research at times and guess at sometime in the future, the interest will be rekindled as new researchers find a Bunch connection.

Will clos~~e~~d for now. It was so nice to hear from you and am sending a belated,

HAPPY BIRTHDAY,

Mary

Dear Alice - at one time you sent me a portion of youre book Parks & Bunch on the Trail West - 28-oct-88 I'm still working, or trying to on the Bunch line - I'm trying to find a copy of the letter mentioned on page #239 from Mrs King, do you know who has Mrs Kings letters from → Stokely & Allie? or copies of the records you mentioned?

Someone in Salt Lake City trying to help me no "Indian" found as yet - Shes also trying the Seaburn line - Shes like you very knowlegable - We can't find who Stokely married or beyond - Guess I'm on the wrong track.

Did youre Mother have any "print-outs" of her findings? Can't read that at all -

I still "hunt" garage sales every Sat. looking for "Parks & Bunch on the Trail West" but please don't print more for one for me - I got from library & was interesting -

Thanking you much - Josephine Straley

SEABOURN

The following are excerpts from a letter from Mrs. Varion E. Goin, Rt. 1, Box 38, Jefferson, Oregon, 97352, dated April 17, 1968, sent to Mrs. Garland B. (Geneva) King, Rt. 1, Box 256, Nowata, OK 74048.

Yes, I am Anna Lee Goin,..and a cousin of Mary (Casteel) Linn, of Princeton, MO.....We are descended from Sally (Seabourn) Casteel, who was a younger half-sister of Aley Seabourn Bunch....Karen Platz, (of 508 E. College, Shelbina, MO, in 1966), is a direct descendant of Aley Seabourn Bunch and Stokeley Bunch....

Original letter written by her (Aley's) father in 1837...This letter is now (1968) in the possession of my aunt, Mrs. Frederick Wilkinson, PO Box 351, Clinton, Mo. This letter was found in an old trunk that belonged to Sally Seabourn Casteel and her husband, Hiram. They brought the trunk with them from Kentucky to Missouri when Hiram Casteel was forced to leave his native land, Laurel Co., Ky, for preaching against slavery from the pulpit.....It is not known how this letter had become a part of the contents of this trunk....This letter was written in 1837, back in Laurel Co., Ky., where Aley's father and mother and younger brothers and sisters were living with Aley's brother....I feel quite sure that Sally Seabourn Casteel obtained this letter from some of her nieces or nephews after they migrated to Missouri. Sally and Hiram Casteel and younger children migrated first to Illinois in 1857, and then to North Missouri in 1864, finally settling in Mercer Co., near the town of Albany.

It was just in recent years, 1963..that it came to our attention that Aley Seabourn was not the full sister of our Sally Seabourn Casteel. At that time, National DAR notified Mary Linn upon receipt of one of her sisters' application for membership, that Anna Seabourn was the second wife if Jacob Seabourn. This came about from a DAR application filed by a descendant of Frances Seabourn Young, who was our Sally's younger sister.....In Aug 1963 National DAR advised me that the information came from a Mrs. Cora A.L. Determan of Paris, Ky, and that from her records, Jacob Seabourn was first married to Annie Price, and second, to Ann Harris....Mary Linn, being Regent of her DAR chapter was able to obtain photostat copy of Mrs. Determan's records....She, (Mrs Determan) stated that Jacob Seabourn's first child was Mahala Seabourn by his first wife, and that Mahala was married to Stoke Bunch. We do not know where she obtained this information....Early census records indicate Mahala was born before 1800.

I will now list the children of Jacob Seabourn and his 2nd wife, Anna Harris:

1. Robert, born 1802, Ky.
2. George W., born 1807, Ky.
3. Thomas P., born 1809.
4. Frances, born 1810 (Mrs Determan's line)
5. Sally, born March 3, 1812 (line of Anna Lee Goin & Mary Linn)
6. Pleasant L., born 1818.

You will note from the old letter written in 1837 that Jacob Seabourn speaks of each one of these children by name and two of Robert's children, Jacob and James George.....I have marriage and census records on all of these children except Mahala..and now I have her records that you have furnished me.

Jacob Seabourn was a soldier in the Rev. War. He was a Pvt, age 19, when enlisted on June 10th, 1781, in New Kent Co., Va.; served to July 10, 1783. He received a pension, applying for same on Sept 17, 1818; was living in Clay Co., Ky., at that time, ag 56. He was awarded a land office military warrant # 4013 by the Commonwealth of Va, for 200 acres of land on the 2nd of December but year is not ligible!

Dear Mrs. King:

My cousin, Mary Casteel Linn, Princeton, Mo., became acquainted with Annette Hoffman, Trenton Mo., through the Mercer Co. Historical Society.

To begin with, I had better state that My Cousin and I are D A R members through Revolutionary War Soldier Jacob Seabourn, through his daughter, Sarah (Sally) Seabourn who married Hiram Casteel. Sally being a daughter of his second marriage. Mary Linn's maiden name being Casteel. I descend through Mary's Father's sister. Annette Hoffman has been working on the Wild Clan. It so happens that two of our Hiram Casteel's brothers married women by the name of Wild, who were sisters. So we were able to help Annette with these lines.

From Annette's records we learn that in the early days one Elizabeth Wild, daughter of Felix Wild, Sr. married George Bunch. And from these records we actually determined that our Jacob Seabourn's eldest child Mahalia better known as Aley Seabourn, child of his first marriage, was married to one Stokley Bunch.

It is known by us that they were married prior to 1837. In fact we have an original letter written by her father Jacob Seabourn addressed to Stokley Bunch and Aley Bunch which bears the date Oct. 17, 1837.

I understand that you are avidly interested in the Bunch family and would come nearer giving me a lead on this particular line than anyone else.

From Annette Hoffman's records, we noted the following Linn Co. Missouri marriage record: Stockley Bunch of Sullivan Co., married Juliann Rankin Sept. 21, 1865. Any information on our Stokley Bunch that you might help us with would be greatly appreciated.

Thanking you, I am, sincerely,

Anna Lee Goin

Dear Geneva King, Annette Hoffman, Karen Platz, and Mary Linn:

Dear All: Geneva your letter came while I was hospitalized in March, and Varion brought it to me at the hospital. I do appreciate more than words can say, all of the data on Stokley Bunch.

Annette, your letter came soon after I returned home, but was still recuperating. Your letter also contained valuable information.

Mary Linn's letter came a day or two after yours, and she furnished the cemetery records for all of the Metcalfs listed in your letter.

I will begin with Genevas letter. Yes, I am Mary Linn's cousin. We are descended from Sally Seabourn Casteel, who was a younger half-sister of Aley Seabourn Bunch. I am happy to know that Karen Platz is a direct descendent of Aley Seabourn Bunch, and her husband, Stokley.

Until I received data from you, we in our brandh of the Seabourn family, knew that Aley Seabourn Bunch was born and that she was the daughter of Jacob Seabourn, and that she was married to, we called him Hokley Bunch, till within the past year. We did not know exactly where she fit into the family picture. Our proof of her existance was the original letter written by her father, dated October 17, 1837. This letter is now in the possession of my Aunt, Mrs. Frederick Wilkinson, P.O. box 351, Clinton, Mo. This letter was found in an old trunk that belonged to Sally Seabourn Casteel and her husband, Hiram. They brought the trunk with them from Kentucky to Missouri when Hiram Casteel was forced to leave his Native Land, Laurel Co., Ky. for preaching against slavery, from the pulpit.

It was not known to us how this letter had become a part of the contents of this trunk. Since your letter came, it definitely states that Stokley Bunch and family was living in the State of Missouri prior to 1830. And that as of 1850, Aley Bunch was still the wife of Stokley Bunch. This letter was written in 1837, back in Laurel Co. Ky, where Aley's father and mother and younger brothers and sisters were living with Aley's brother Robert.

I feel quite sure that Sally Seabourn Casteel obtained this letter from some of her nieces or nephews after they migrated to Missouri. Sally and Hiram Casteel and younger children migrated first to Illinois in 1857, and then to North Missouri in 1864. Finally settling in Mercer Co. near the town of Albany.

It was just in recentlyears, in fact the summer of 1963 that it came to our attention that Aley Seabourn was not the full sister of our Sally Seabourn Casteel. At that time, National DAR notified Mary Linn upon receipt of one of her sisters applications for membership, that Anna Seabourn was the second wife of Jacob Seabourn. This came about from a DAR application filed by a descendent of Frances Seabourn Young, who was our Sally's younger sister. It was in August, 1963 that National DAR advised me that the information came from the records of a Mrs. Cora A. L. Determan of Paris, Ky., and that from her records, Jacob Seabourn was first married to Annie Price, and 2nd, to Ann Harris.

Upon recript of this information, I wrote Mrs. Determan a lengthy letter, and to this day I have received no reply. I finally wrote Mary Linn, thinking she would no doubt be going to Washington in the near future, asking her if she would go to the DAR library in Washington, D. C. and obtain what information she could.

As I could learn no further information than already stated above, it turned out that Mary, being Regent of her chapter DAR, at that time, was able to obtain a photostat copy of Mrs. Determan's records. This was of course before records were made available to the DAR membership at large.

From Mrs. Determan's records, she stated that Jacob Seabourn's first child was Mehala Seabourn by his first wife, and that Mehala was married to Stoke Bunch. We do not know where she obtain this information.

I will now list the children of Jacob Seabourn and his 2nd wife, Anna Harris: Robert(born Ky. 1802); George W, born Ky., 1807; Thomas P., born 1809; Frances, born 1810 (Mrs. Determan's line); Sally, born Mar. 3, 1812 (This is Mary and my line); Pleasant L., born 1818. You will note from the old letter written 1837, that Jacob Seabourn speaks of each one of these children by name and two of Robert's children, Jacob and James George.

As you probably already know, the 1810 Federal Census, Clay Co., Ky., lists Jacob Sebourn, three sons under 10, one 16 to 26, ~~one 26 to~~ one person 45 and up. Under females, 2 under 10; 1, 16 to 26, and one 26 to 46. There are 4 slaves. I would take the female between 16 and 26 to be Mehala. The male - one - 16-26 could be Stokley Bunch as we have no record of a Seabourn son that age.

I have marriage and census records on all these children with the exception of Mehala, and now I have Mehala records that you have furnished me. I think Mehala's marriage record would be Clay Co. Ky.

Jacob Seabourn was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. He was a private, age 19, date of enlistment, On June 10th, 1781, in New Kent Co. Va. He served to July 10, 1783. He received a pension, applying for same on Sept. 17, 1818. And he was living in Clay Co., Ky., at that time and was age 56, when he applied. He was awarded a land office military warrant #4013 by the Commonwealth of Virginia, for 200 acres of land on the 2nd Day of December ~~13~~, 1785? The year is not really ligible.

Karen is eligible for DAR membership if she chooses to become a member. If she would like to receive a photostat copy of Jacob Seabourn Rev. War record, and does not have the form to obtain same from National archives, please ~~and~~ advise and I will ~~or~~ send ~~her one~~ you one. The cost to National Archives is $1.00.

From your records I am unable to determine Aley ~~Stokleys~~ Seabourn Bunch's year of birth. I believe the 1850 Sullivan Co., Mo., record lists her age incorrectly. Both the 1840 and the 1830 cenusu indicate she was born prior to 1800, or maybe 1800. Recall the 1818 census indicates she was born before 1800. While the 1850 census indicates she was born 1805, which I am sure is incorrect. 1830 Her oldest child listed is Elizabeth, who was born in Mo. 1833. So this is proof that she was living in Missouriat the time her father wrote to her in 1837.

Now as to the marriage record in Linn Co., of one Stockley Bunch to Juliann Rankin, on Sept. 21, 1865, I am inclined to believe this is the marriage record on Aley's son. As he would be 22 years of age in 1865.

From your records, I too come up with 10 children for Stokley and Alkey Bunch, this being determined from the cneusus records you have sent me. I have come up with 6 boys and 4 girls. I also find that Aley Seabourn Bunch died in Sullivan Co., Mo., between 1850 and 1860. So no doubt she is buried in a cemetery in that county, possibly close to Owosco Mo. The 1860 census lists Stokley's wife as Christena and Stokleys birth as the year 1794. The 1850 censis states he was born 1796. In 1860, Aley's four youngest children are still at home.

I determined from the list of the earlier children showing the oldest children William, John, Ary, James and Martha, which you have compiled from other records. I would think the 1850 Missouri census would determine where these children were born. (I now note that you did furnish those, and it says Tennessee). And the 1860 census states Kentucky. I next suggest, is there a will on file in Sullivan co court house, for Stokley Bunch? If not a will, what about deeds, because if he died intestate, there still has to be a court record.

Now in reading Karen Platzs letter to you dated May 17, 1966, Karen has a little bit different information concerning Stokley Bunch's first wife. She names her as Abey Baker but this definitely does not agree with the census record or our record. She does state that he was born 1796 and died 1868. She does not state place of death, other than the heading Sullivan Co., Mo. Karen, do you know the cemetery where he is buried?

I believe that Stokley Bunch's marriage record would be on file in Clay Co., Ky., and if not there possibly Laurel Co., Ky. All of Aley Seabourn Bunch's brothers and sisters marriage records are onl file in the Co. clerk's office, Laurel Co. Ky., located in London, Ky.

I am rather of the opinion that Christena who is listed in the household of Stokley Bunch in 1860 is possibly a Bunch relative rather than his wife. With respect to this Baker estate, I believe that Abey Baker Bunch was some relative back in Pennsylvania, and not Stokley's wife. I would be happy to hear from Karen Platz after she receives and digests these comments. As she is a direct descendent of Stokley Bunch.

I am inclosing a photostat copy of the Jacob Seabourn letter to you and Karen along with a typewritten interpretation of this letter from an older copy that is more legible. If you should not agree with the interpretation please advise. But I think it is correctly interpreted. I do want us all to be of the same understanding in regards to this letter.

Sincerely, Anna Lee Gorn
Mrs V. E.

Karen, if you are in agreement that Stokley Bunches wife was "Aley" Mehala Seabourn I would appreciate a corrected copy of your lineage, for my records. I do note that John Bunch (son of Stokley) and I say Mehala Seabourn) named his first child Mahaley called Aunt Aley. This is from your records.

Dear Karen —

I purposely held up your copy of my letter April 1968 because I wanted to check Sullivan Co. Mo. 1850 Census on Stokley Bunch at our State Library in Salem. I am enclosing a copy for you. I do think the census ~~maker~~ taker made a mistake in recording Aleys age - as I feel she was Jacob Seabourns first child.

You will note that the photo stat differs somewhat from the records Geneva King sent me - as follows -

Geneva shows the second child of Stokeley Bunch as Lavina age 15. The photostat copy shows the name as Ann age 13. Under the family of John Bunch the name is spelled Greenberry. Following the family of James Bunch is ~~Family~~ 237-237

I believe from the names of the children ~~that~~ Ann More's maiden name was Bunch. I would like to hear from you and Geneva on the above notes.

If you are interested in obtaining the papers known to me on Jacob Seabourn let me know and I will tell you how to obtain them - (photo stat copies)

HOCKLEY (STOKELEY?) BUNCH

From Miss Annette Hoffman of Trenton, Mo.
To Geneva King, Nowata, Okla. 1966

Annette's interview with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Linn, Princeton, Missouri:

"Mrs. Linn is a Casteel - direct descendent of Elizabeth Wild and James Casteel. Mrs. Linn is also a descendent of Jacob Seaborn, Revolutionary War soldier. (On some legal papers name was spelled Seaborn and Seabourn). Jacob Seabourn had a daughter named Alley who married a Hockley Bunch. Family is searching for descendents of said Hockley Bunch. Mr. and Mrs. Linn are a delightful couple - middle aged - whatever that is - and she is president of Mercer County (Missouri) Historical Society, and he is Chairman of the Cemetery Committee".......

A later note from Annette:

I called Mrs. Linn, and she is going to write you, and a cousin in Oregon is going to write you. They both are interested Stockly Bunch. By the way, this cousin (a lady) met her husband by corresponding with him re genealogy. They were fifth cousins, andwheh hheyfinally met, fell in love and got married Mrs. Linn said he owns a ranch and that they have opened an antique shop also, and are very happy. k So you can never tell just where all this will lead..."

COPY

Excerpts from a letter to Annette Hoffman, Trenton, Mo., from her cousin Ann (Wild) Bunch - Mrs. Colonel Bunch, of Lancaster, Missouri. Annette's mother and Ann's father are brother and sister.

March 30, 1966

..."Poppa sent me your letter with strict instructions not to lose it, because he knew I would be fascinated. I have the inclination for genealogy. Unfortunately, neither the tine nor money. However, I am very very interested and would love to be able to devote some study to our family. I have intendedto write ever since the night you called...."

....."First, since mother wasn't sure she had them right, here are our birthdays:

Colonel Willis Bunch	Dec. 3, 1933
Ann Wild Bunch	Apr. 1, 1935	m. Dec. 25, 1955
Rebecca Ann Bunch	Dec. 28, 1956
Colonel Willis, Jr.	Sept 28, 1958
Laura Jo Bunch	Jan. 11, 1960	d. Jan. 11. 1960
Jennifer Lynn Bunch	Feb. 16, 1962
Laura Lee Bunch	Oct. 15, 1964"

....."You asked about the Bunch family. Colonel's sister* is trying to trace them back, but has been able to make definite connections only as far back as the early 1800's. Apparently some of the Bunch's have been prolific, since she has been in correspondence with at least six or seven different lines all over the country. Several attempts have been made - as far back as 1930 - to connect our branch with some of the others, but to no avail. At any rate we know that Stokeley Bunch was born 1796 in Ireland. He came to the states and settled in Cumberland Co., Ky. There is no proof that he is related to George and James Bunch, definitely brothers, but the evidence seems to point that way. If he is, then he came over as a child, since George Bunch was born in 1801, James born unknown, but both in Ky. I carefully wrote down all the information I thought you would be interested in, and now can't findit, so must rely from now on on my faulty memory. One of the two brothers, I think George, married a girl named Wild. I had her name but have forgotten it. I do know that there wasn't any information concerning her parents, but there is the wedding date. It is not only possible but probable that she was a member of our family, since they later moved to Grundy Co., and I think it is logical to assume that they might have moved near her relatives. The brothers also lived, or else did business, in Mercer Co. and Stokely Bunch, after moving around a while, settled in Linn Co. You probably have all this, but in case you don't, and would like more details, I can easily get them....."

*Note from GK: The Colonel's sister is Karen Platz. (See correspondence from her.)

Mrs. Joe Linn
Princeton, Missouri

Dear Mrs. Linn:

Some time ago Annette H^ffman of Trenton, Missouri, wrote me about a Hockley or Stockly Bunch who had married a daughter of Jacob Seaborn, a Rev. soldier, who had lived in Clay and Laurel Cos., Ky. I believe she said her name was "Alley". Could it have been "Mahala"? Annette mentioned that you were trying to locate descendants.

I intended to write you at that time, but just never did get around to it. Have you any new information on said Stockly Bunch? Were you ever able to determine if he was the same Stokeley Bunch who lived in Sullivan County? A descendant of Stokeley Bunch wrote me that his wife was Abey Baker, but I have often wondered if maybe this wasn't a 2nd marriage - the first possibly to Alley Seaborn. However, when I read the 1850 census of Sullivan Co, I read his wife's name as "Alley", aged 45, b. Ky. Stokeley's oldest granddaughter was "Maheley".

I received a letter a few days ago (see enclosure) which hints at a Stoag or Stokes Bunch back several generations, and I hope this will be aclue to new findings on the Bunch family. I would very much like to have more information on your Hockley Bunch and Alley Seaborn - dates, places, etc. Anything you know of that you think would help to place them. If our two Stokeley's are the same, I believe I can help you locate descendants.

Will sure appreciate your help.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Garland B. King

Dear Geneva:

I am literally swamped, but I just got this letter today and HAD to send it on to you. It is from Ann Wild whomarried Colonel Bunch; (Dau.. of Ted Wild, mother's brother). Lancaster, Mo.

Geneva, I asked Ann about the bunch's in a rather off-hand way, because she was pregnant at the time and had had German measles and the whole family had the jitters about her baby being OK. I just didn't think it wise to bring up about Elizabeth Wild and George Bunch, for fear a double family tie might worry her. (Baby was fine!)

Well, here she knew it all the time - or at least knows it now - and it evidently doesn't phase her a bit - so you just never know.

I will ask a favor of you that you return her letter to me, as I haven't time to check these dates just tonight.

I will promise to either get Colonel's sister's information for you - or else her name and address so you can correspond. You don't suppose its someone you alread write to, do you?

Ann says there is a wedding date!

I'm hot on the trail of the old Wild Bible. I have the name of the lady who's supposed to have it and her address and the family has authoorized me to try to buy it from her. Rather a long story, but Emily Wooderson says it has lots of info. in it. She saw it when she was a girl. The ladYs name is Lewilda Wild, and I will get the letter off this weenend. She lives in L.A.

Just wanted to let you know I haven't let you down.

Love,

Annette (Hoffman)

Mrs. Garland B. King
R. # 1
Nowata, Okla.

Dear Mrs. King,

On Feb. 26, 1960 you wrote a letter to J. Riley Bunch, Rt. 3, Milan, Mo. Because of my interest in the Bunch family history—Your letter is now in my hands. J. Riley Bunch is the son of Greenberry Bunch who is the brother of Frank Bunch who is my Great Grandfather. Your great grandfather, James Bunch is a brother to Stokeley Jr. the son of Stokeley Bunch who was born approximately in 1796 and died around 1868. I do not have any information yet as to where he is buried.

You stated in your letter that you had quite a lot of information concerning the early history of the Bunch family in America. This information would be very helpful to me as I am also trying to trace the Bunch history and to compile enough information to enable me to print a book. I am quite willing to exchange information with you on the Bunch lines. Between the two of us and our relatives we may be able to trace or gather more information. The enclosed chart is for you—it may straighten out a few questions.

A distant relative—

Dear Mrs. King,

Although it has been a long time since you wrote me concerning the Bunch family, I am still interested and I will try to take some time now and give you some dates and names that you may not have. I will give you first my own direct line back to Stokeley Bunch b.1796 d.1868.

I am Karen Ann Bunch Platz, b. Sept. 15, 1940; dau. of Volley Edward Bunch, b. in Mo., Mar.23, 1905; son of Willis Marion Bunch, b.April 19, 1882, d. Aug. 15, 1951 in Mo.; son of George Franklin (Frank)Bunch ,b.April 13, 1859, d. Sept. 10, 1919;son of John Bunch,b.1821, d.1909; son of Stokeley B., b.1796. According to the 1850 Sullivan County, Mo. Census Stokeley Bunch was married to Aley. In my possession I have a copy of a deed made on the Fourteenth day of June Eighteen hundred and fifty-six by and between Stokeley Bunch and Abey Bunch his wife of the County of Sullivan and state of Missouri concerning a piece of property they purchased in Sullivan Co.,Mo. The name is signed Abey. The 1860 Sullivan Co. census records Stokeley as being married or living with Cristena. It is quite probable that the first spelling of Aley is incorrect and should have been Abey. I do not have anydefinite records of Stokeleys parents or from where he came. The J. Riley Bunch of Milan, Mo. (now deceased) that you wrote to a few years back said he believed they came from Court County, Ireland, settled in Cumberland Co., Ky. or Tenn., moved to Linn Co, Mo., then to Iowa a year, then back to Sullivan Co., Mo. and settled there. Possibly Stokeley's Parents came from Ireland to Ky. or Tenn. where Stokeley was born. Then again, my grandfather Willis M. Bunch (deceased) spoke many times to my oldest sister Mary concerning the origh of 'our Bunch family'. He said they were German immigrants who came into this country illegally, changing their names from the original spelling of Bokar to the present Bunch, to avoid being noticed. Whether this is true we do not know. In some of the papers you sent me you had listed 1732 Five Bunch brothers landed in Alexandris, Va., from Aberdeen Scotland: Jeremiah, Malachi, David, Paul and Henry. Came from Hanover Germany to Scotland in 11th century, German spelling was Buntz. These 5 brothers settled in North Carolina.

This may be the Bunch family that Stokeley's ancestors belong to. It is possible that during the passing down of the original spelling (if it wasn't Bunch) through four or more generations that it too may have been changed, and that some of the details concerning the changing of the name or coming to this country may have been confused. This may be the reason for the difficulty of tracing the Parents of Stokeley, b. 1796. The following dates and names are as I have them now. There may be possible errors.

As soon as I again find time to sit down and write to you I will fill in as much information as possible concerning the children of Willis Marion Bunch b. 1882 and that of my own brothers and sisters, their marriages and their children. Perhaps the above information will be of some help to you. It is not complete by any means.

Have you checked out the possibility that the Cristena listed with Stokeley Bunch in the 1860 Sullivan Co., Mo. Census and was born in N.C. may have been a Bunch who came to Mo. after the death of Abey and stayed with Stokeley's family as a member. As of yet I have not located a certificate of marriage giving Cristena's maiden name. Have you any further information concerning the parents of Stokeley b.1796 or his brothers George and James, as to where their parents came from or who their parents were?

At one time back in the east, I believe in Penn., there was a Baker Estate which had to be settled which involved quite a bit of money. All known heirs had to be contacted. Abey Baker Bunch was a relative, and in July 1932, Walter H. Bunch, Winigan,Mo.(still living) made (or had made a Statement of Claim, claiming himself as a decendant. I have a copy of the Statement and on it he lists the children of Stokley Bunch born1796 as William, George, John, James, Ann, Ary, Elizabeth, Stokley-jr. I do not know if this is correct, although I do believe it is totally correct.

With best wishes to you in your research.

Sincerely yours,

Karen Platz

P.S. Is the DeWitt Bunch out of N.Y. actually publishing a Bunch family magazine? My cousin and I both sent in subscriptions almost 2 years ago. All we received were our canceled checks!!!

Mary 5-18-83

Dear Mrs King:

I really enjoyed hearing from you and all you sent Don't be sorry I had to copy things as I really can 't type very good. I am now in the process of learning all over again as I haven't typed since I left High School in 1945. But am getting a little beter. My usual occupation since I came to California is an aircrafter worker and work on the structure of the plane.
I work for McDonnell Douglas building the DC10 & DC9s and some early models. I am still off work, first had 2 knee operations and was just getting over that and May I broke my ankle. We had just started on what we planed, a long vacation of travel. Got to our children house in Bremerton, Wash. and clumbsy me up and fell on my ankle. So they had to put pens in it and back to a cast. I spent 3weeks up there down, then we came home. So now I am finally begining to walk with OUT crutch.

I really can't remember what I sent you so if I repeat myself don't mind me. I still haven't got all my cencus read haven't been able to stand to sit very long without my leg up. Also its been too hot to bother with them. I would like to go back to the Morman Church libary in L.A. but traffic is so bad. Can only stay a little while. This winter maybe?

There is one question I want to ask, that is if you found our side of the Bunch family has any Indian. Since I was young we were told we did but they would never say anything about it. My Bro. did get out of my grandmother Eva Alexander Dillinger that it was through ggm Alie Bunch Alexander side. But it was always a hush-hush subject not talked about to children. Since have only heard stories from an old lady that said she was a baby catcher but never saying who she ment, was talking about cynthia ann summers & her mother at the time. She said coming across the plains, she was a baby catcher. These people from Mo. are very closed mouth about something like this. If she was caught by the indians and raped , this they would never tell. The same thing happened about the KKK clan and they were a lot of them members and of cource no one would say who they were. Even my father (James Winnie Riddle) would not say and he knew, As he said he accidently was at a place where they met.

I started this letter before we took off an a vacation, this time I made it without breaking anything went to yellowstone, Bad Lands and to Missouri. There got a few things am send you alltomestone at the Butte Cemetary. Also a new suprise, found Stokly Bunch record of heirs and divisior of property and you will see one was signed Julia Anna Bunch wd of Stokly Bunch - So it had to be the Old Stokley B. that married the Julia Ann Rankin, 1865 in Linn Co. Mo. I've sent all of this I found, only lists personal property and didn't find a will so far May not be one as took over 2 yrs to finish settlen it. Only 7 Ch: were listed as heirs so don't know why rest didn't get anything - I still Couldn't find where Stokly or any wifes were buried. If you have that would you send it to me?

We did get a picture of John Bunch and all Children picture made was in such a bad shape the Copyer won't print so can see. Don't know what year was or where. Can tell only who a Couple of Ch: are. Aly looks just like she alwayd did. But My aunt Zelta Burns Riddle g. father was Greenberry Bunch and she couldn't pick him out. Dean Grisamer couldn't pick his mother out, He only had picture of her when older.

I have scribbled enough this time so will send this on.

Sincerely Yours
Mary E. Grisamer

There were many Southern symathizers within the County and Sullivan Co. sent men to serve Confederate Cause. Gov. Claiborne Jackson a strong southern Symathizers had Capt. George W. Sandusky of Linn Co., Mo. recruiting in Sept 1861. A group of men assembled at Field's Mill with aim of Joining Southern army.
Thomas H. Flood cashier Wheeler Saving Bank of Brookfield went to make arrangements for these men to Join Gen.s Price's Army approaching Lexington Mo.
Were approximatly 50 to 75 men Volunteers. Among them were Capt. Thomas H. Flood, First Lt. Samuel Baker, second Lt. Samuel Rose, First Sarg. John McKenzie, John Hutchinson, John Munsey, Joshua Weaver,
Hardin Dillinger, Jacob Sturgill, George Bunch, James Bunch, John Bunch and others - They joined Gen. Price at Lexington where participated in Battle of Lexington, Mo and retreated South. and at end of there Enlistment in Spring of 1862 most of them came home where later went into Union Army as a Home guard unit as were many Bushwackers in Mo. especially Sullivan Co were people were very bitter on both sides; "And several were just shot and others fled the State.

Will Book No. 18, p. 495: Samuel O. Bunch, wife Melinda Bunch (m. 1826 Melinda Perkins).
date 15 Sep 1881, proved 9 Oct 1882.
After the death of his wife, "I give to Betsey Bellamy and her heirs forever 25 acres; to Fontaine B. Leake (to pay in full a debt); to Moses Brown 10 acres; all the residue to Sally Lasley wife of Lansey Lasley and her heirs forever."

He does not say what, if any, the relationship was, but it sounds as though Betsey and Sally were daughters—and perhaps Moses Brown had been married to a daughter—anyway, no sons in sight.
